This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. The Pastoral Session was closed on Saturday, August 2nd, and the Representative Session on Friday, August 8th. At the end of each Session, the Minutes of the Session were read, and adopted by the Legal Conference.

In the Minutes which follow, the business which belongs to the Pastoral Session is placed first; then follows that which belongs to the Representative Session; and lastly comes that which stands in relation to both.

The Conference in its Pastoral Session consisted, in addition to such Members of the Legal Conference as were able to attend, of such other Ministers as had been authorised to attend.

The Conference in its Representative Session consisted of such Members of the Legal Conference as had declared at the May Meeting of the District Committees their intention to attend, and of such Ministers and Laymen as were duly chosen.

For the names of those so chosen, see Appendix I.

E. Blanshard Keeling,	Luke Lewis Swift,
Nicholas Kelynack,	Cornelius Wood.

Q. VI. What Ministers have DIED since the last Conference?

A. 1. In Great Britain, thirty-four, viz.,—

(1.) SAMUEL W. CHRISTOPHERS; who was born at Falmouth in 1810. The public baptism of a young Jewess in the Falmouth chapel, and her confession of faith in Christ, led him earnestly to seek for pardon. He entered the Ministry in 1835, and in several Circuits in Devon and Cornwall his ministry brought many to Christ. In Manchester, during the cotton famine, he gave comfort to many by his suitable tracts and lectures, and his timely pastoral visits.

He was skilful in bringing out from the selected text and the expounded chapter the great aspects of Christian truth and experience. His preaching was full of Cornish warmth, and was of a superior order, bearing the stamp of an age of our Church peculiarly rich in great preachers. He had a firm hold of the Methodist theology, and an intelligent appreciation of its polity. On missionary and other platforms, his playful humour, his fund of anecdote, and readiness of resource, fitted him above many for efficient service. He was widely known as the author of Hymn Writers and their Hymns; The Poets of Methodism; Homes of Old English Writers; The Methodist Hymn-Book and its Writers, and smaller works. His last years were spent in pastoral charge of Formby, near Liverpool, where he continued to preach and labour almost to the end. In his last affliction he testified that he realized the truth and grace of the Gospel he had so long preached. As the end approached he was heard to repeat from time to time with joyous emphasis: 'Eternal Life!' 'Victory!' 'Triumph!' He died August 14th, 1889, in the fifty-fifth year of his ministry.

(2.) HENRY GRAHAM; who was converted to God in early life. He entered the Ministry at the Conference of 1837, and for forty-three years rendered devoted and useful service in the active work. In 1880 he retired from the responsibilities of Circuit appointments, and resided in the Waltham-street Circuit, Hull, where, by the exercise of his pastoral gifts and his pulpit ministrations, he secured the esteem and affection of our people. He was a man of high Christian character, and lived a remarkably pure and beautiful life. His manner was somewhat grave and his bearing dignified; but with these qualities were combined a brightness which never failed to impart cheerfulness. As a colleague in the Ministry, as a Superintendent of Circuits, and as Chairman he was faithful, brotherly and efficient. Whilst his preaching contained a full statement of evangelical truth, and was effective in bringing souls to Christ, his message was more frequently for the members of the Church, and the more devout persons of his congregation regarded it as no ordinary privilege to listen to his ministrations. He was greatly beloved both as a preacher and pastor. When on a visit to Southport, he was summoned to join the faultless worshippers before the Throne of God and of the Lamb, on Sunday morning, September 8th, 1889. He died in the seventy-fourth year of his age, and the fifty-third of his ministry.

(3.) BENJAMIN JOHN; who was born at Milford Haven in 1810. A remarkable reticence characterized him through life, and a habit of self-depreciation, which was in danger at times of becoming morbid. He received his first Class-ticket in 1826, and very soon afterwards began to preach. When the finger of God unmistakably pointed to the Ministry he offered for [illegible] Mission work; but owing to mistrust of himself, he withdrew. The 'Woe' was too clearly pronounced, however, if he did not 'preach the Gospel;' and on presenting himself the second time he was appointed to the West-Bromwich Circuit in 1835.

He travelled until 1873, when he became a Supernumerary and settled at Tenby. Feeble health prevented his preaching often; and after 1878, when he removed to Southport, he never preached at all. He was a diligent student, directing his attention to a wide range of subjects. His preaching was very methodical and evangelical, and most appreciated by mature Christians. His talents were most conspicuous in meeting the members of Society in the Class-meeting, and in pastoral visitation. He was scrupulously conscientious in attention to the minutest details of his office, and so long as he was able, no labour was too great for him to attempt in order to promote the interests of Christ's Cause. He exhibited in a rare degree the graces of purity and meekness, and the charity which 'is not easily provoked,' and 'thinketh no evil.' He was never known to speak a word of detraction, even though smarting under what he felt to be injurious treatment. He went in and out amongst the people wearing 'the white flower of a blameless life,' recognised as a man of God. The people believed in him; and many a life was made brighter and better for his example. His closing years were marked by extreme feebleness, and he welcomed the Master's call, which came to him on September 29th, 1889.

(4.) JAMES PERCY KEELEY; who was born at Lancaster in 1840, and was converted to God in early life. In 1864 he was accepted as a candidate for our Ministry, and after a year at Didsbury entered upon Circuit work.

He was a diligent and conscientious student. His character was the outcome of a genuine conversion, a living union with his Lord, and a clear perception of the ethical side of Divine teaching. His abilities for the work of a pastor and preacher were good and useful. He had a tender heart, a fruitful mind, and much persuasiveness of speech. Children loved him, the poor found in him a friend, and he honoured all the pastoral relations he was called to sustain. He cherished an impassioned desire to bring men to Christ, nor was his 'labour in vain in the Lord.' In every Circuit he won souls, and many will be the crown of his rejoicing in the day of the Lord.

At the Conference of 1888 he sorrowfully retired from Circuit work. He had only seen twenty-three years of ministerial service, and he hoped by timely rest to recruit himself for the work that was dearer to him than his life. But it soon became apparent that his work on earth was done.

Bereavements had left their impress on his sensitive nature, and toil had exhausted his frail constitution; and after lingering for a little more than a year, he peacefully and confidently passed into the presence of his Lord, October 8th, 1889, at Wroxall, in the Isle of Wight, in the forty-ninth year of his age, and the twenty-fourth of his ministry.

(5.) JOHN KILNER, D.D.; who was born in Preston in 1824. He was indebted to his mother for those gracious impressions of the love and claims of Christ which led to his conversion. He soon found congenial work in the Sabbath-school; and here he discovered the promise of those endowments which afterwards adorned the wider sphere of the Ministry. He was accepted as a candidate by the Conference of 1847, and received his appointment to Batticaloa, in North Ceylon, the same year. He was deprived of the help of a college training, but he followed a course of hard reading, especially in mental philosophy. Without other help than that furnished by his natural acuteness and invincible patience, he educated his mind for the great tasks of his life. He was a thinker; for no problem of thought or calculation dismayed him. It was no labour for him to enter upon those abstruse studies which lie at the threshold of an eastern missionary's career; he pursued them with ardour and delight. But study was only a passage that led him to the people, and his acquaintance with them became so intimate that he was almost a native with the natives. Without any affectation of similarity in habit or mode of living, he cherished the closer fellowship of sympathy and language, copying the familiar idioms of their speech, studying their tastes, and mastering both the popular and classical literature of their schools. This was the charm that drew to his ministry all classes of the native community; and it was the secret of a power over them which he never lost.

Although Dr. Kilner's missionary life was chiefly devoted to North Ceylon, he spent three years on the continent of India, first in Negapatam, and then in Manârgudi. This temporary change of field was greatly to the advantage of his preparatory studies.

When he returned to his own ground, in 1852, he began to shape his policy mainly for the attainment of two results: a native Ministry, and self-supporting missionary Churches. These objects had not been overlooked by the men who preceded him; but Dr. Kilner gave to the results which had been reached his rare powers of organization and statesmanship; and the Jaffna district, an almost perfect example of missionary growth, is the monument of his success. His converts revered his talents, but they loved the fellow-feeling which made him their companion rather than their master. The men and women, whom he had trained for work, carried out his plans with affection and enthusiasm; and he presented to them a pattern of absolute devotion to the Master, of painstaking service, and of high conscientiousness. The spirit of his intercourse with missionaries of other Societies was generous and cordial. They were all indebted to his scholarship in the labours of Bible translation, and to his taste in contributions to the literature and hymnology of the native churches.

His brethren in England had watched his career with interest and admiration; and when he returned home early in 1872, they elected him into the Legal Hundred at the ensuing Conference. In 1876 he was appointed to succeed the Rev. William B. Boyce, as one of the General Secretaries of the Missionary Society. For this office he possessed several qualifications; but two of these were eminent. He had a natural aptitude for finance; and the accurate methods of business which characterized his General Superintendence of the North Ceylon District, and the strong conviction which, from the first, he had impressed upon the Committee and upon the native churches that grants from England for native work should be considered grants in aid of what the people themselves could raise, enabled him to render distinguished and memorable help in the administration of the Society's funds when he held the position of Deputy Treasurer. As an advocate, John Kilner had few equals. Before the pressure of care and sickness had impaired his strength, his platform addresses were models of missionary eloquence. He grouped his facts with masterly skill; they were not the embellishments of a speech, but links in the chain of some great missionary argument by which he sought to gain the conviction of his hearers. This gave a logical force to his appeals; and the mingled humour, pathos and earnestness with which they were delivered made them irresistible.

In 1879 he was deputed to visit the native and colonial churches of South Africa. Accompanied by Mrs. Kilner, he went forth on this new missionary errand. He travelled through the Districts; carefully inspected every branch of the work; collected the observations of a mind of large experience; and when these were submitted to the chairmen and representatives of South African Methodism, at their third Triennial meeting in Queenstown, over which Dr. Kilner presided, for him was reserved the honour of carrying into effect a proposal which William Shaw had projected twenty years before,—the formation of a South African Conference. The journeys and cares of this mission imposed a strain upon his health and mind which, though not apparent for some years, shortened his career; and the end was accelerated by frequent attacks of sickness, by heavy domestic trial, and especially by the death of his beloved wife. But this great missionary of many lands and much service had well learned his last and perhaps hardest lesson of quietness and retirement. He accepted silence and suffering as part of 'the ministry which he had received of the Lord Jesus,' into Whose joy this faithful servant entered on October 11th, 1889, in the sixty-fifth year of his age, and the forty-second of his ministry.

(6.) THOMAS AKROYD; who was born near Halifax in 1826. He was specially favoured in his early associations. A liberal education, godly training, the friendship of earnest Methodists, combined with the influence of a succession of ministers of great power to give to his character a charm which was felt in the whole of his work. In 1846 he was accepted as a candidate for the Ministry, and sent to Richmond, where he stayed three years, and in 1850 was appointed to a Circuit. For nearly forty years he laboured with great acceptance in some of our most important centres, where his cultured, ripe preaching, pure and beautiful diction and diligent pastorate, brought blessing to many. He had special gifts for dealing with the young, having the simplicity and playfulness of a child, and a keen discernment of character, which won the love and moulded the life of the little ones. Many useful servants of Christ date their conversion to the wise and holy influence he exercised over their childhood. Our Editor, who had been his Superintendent, describes thus his ministry: 'He was a most conscientious, careful, tender-hearted, watchful shepherd of the flock. He was not only free from self-obtrusion, but also from all self-sparing, or even self-regard. He looked not on his own things, but on the things of others. To say he was not jealous of his colleagues would be nothing; to that he had no temptation. But he was jealous for them, whether older than himself or younger. He neglected nothing; and he did nothing negligently.'

He had the misfortune, when in feeble health, to be severely shaken in a railway collision at Crewe, and he never recovered from the shock. Nervous weakness darkened for a time his joy in Christ, but before the end the cloud was removed. He passed away in peace, October 12th, 1889, saying: 'Faith—Victory—Christ died for me, and He has washed me.'

(7.) GEORGE DICKENSON; who was born in 1813, at Topcliffe, near Thirsk. His parents sought to train their children from infancy in the fear of God. When he was about seventeen he was deeply convinced of sin, and continued praying and searching the Word until the peace of God took possession of his heart. For six years he was a popular and useful Local-preacher in the second London Circuit. In 1840 he was induced by the Rev. George Osborn to offer himself for the Ministry. He was sent into the work at once, and for forty-five years was in labours 'more abundant.' Nearly all his Circuits were in Yorkshire or Lancashire, and throughout both counties his name was a household word. Genial in spirit, full of vivacity, firm in friendship, he was beloved by a very large circle. His strong individuality, combined with racy humour, gave a piquant interest to his conversation; while his buoyant bearing and beaming face made him a favourite with children. His preaching was attractive and powerful. He had a strong, rich voice, a fine presence, a striking dramatic gift, a vivid imagination, and a warm heart: qualifications of an orator which were unsparingly devoted to the Cause of God. In his intercourse with the people he was kind, his feelings were tender, his sympathy quickly excited, he knew how to comfort, and the poor found in him a generous friend. Power in prayer and conscientious faithfulness were noteworthy features of his Ministry, no less than his impassioned eloquence. He was heartily attached to the doctrines and polity of Wesleyan-Methodism, and took a deep interest in Connexional affairs. In Conference he was always bold to aver and defend his convictions. In 1882 he was elected into the Legal Conference. On becoming a Supernumerary he settled in the Hebden-Bridge Circuit. His services were in great request, especially in his old Circuits, and for five years he preached nearly every Sunday. The last two months of his life he was compelled to forego public engagements. It became evident that he was breaking up, yet the end was comparatively sudden. At Blackpool, where he had gone for a change of air, he passed peacefully away, October 22nd, 1889, in the seventy-sixth year of his age, and the fiftieth of his ministry.

(8.) GEORGE EDWARD YOUNG (A); who was born at Ryton in 1823. His parents were saints: his father a Class-leader and Local-preacher, and, under their influence, he was from infancy trained for God. In early life he became a faithful follower of Christ, and a zealous worker in His Church. He was accepted as a candidate for the Ministry in 1847, and sent to Didsbury, where for three years his character was moulded, and his gifts improved under the influence of Dr. Hannah. Nearly half of his ministerial life was spent in some of the principal Circuits of Yorkshire, where he was greatly beloved and very useful. His preaching was simple, earnest, practical and evangelical, his only aim being to win his hearers to the love and obedience of the truth. He was most helpful to the sick and poor. His genial smile brought sunshine into many a darkened home, and his inspiring words gave comfort and hope to many a burdened heart. He 'adorned the doctrine of God our Saviour in all things.' The considerable intellectual gifts with which he was endowed were crowned by preeminent goodness. His rare saintliness gave sweetness to his life and unction to his ministry. In 1889 he was appointed to the Batley Circuit, but after eight weeks' labour he was seized with sickness, which in a few days ran its fatal course. His last audible word was 'Hosanna!' Consciously reclining in the arms of everlasting Love, he passed away on November 3rd, 1889, in the sixty-seventh year of his age, and the fortieth of his ministry.

(9.) JAMES RITCHIE; who was born in 1834, near Aberdeen. He was early the subject of religious impressions, and some years later was brought into closer fellowship with God. He entered the Ministry of the Evangelical Union of the Church of Scotland; but after reading the works of Fletcher and Wesley, and especially the Plain Account of Christian Perfection, he felt compelled to relinquish that position, offered himself as a candidate for the Wesleyan Ministry, and was accepted in 1866. His ministerial work was marked by entire consecration to Christ, and a passion for souls. In all his Circuits many were added to the Lord. He was a most faithful pastor, and preached to his people out of an intimate knowledge of their lives and their spiritual needs. He had great personal influence; and when he showed his people the glorious possibilities of the spiritual life, his own holy walk and conversation witnessed to the truth of his testimony. He had the entire humility of truest devotion. In October, 1889, he was seized with typhoid fever. In his last illness he had perfect peace, and his intimate communion with his Lord made his sick room as the gate of heaven. The ruling passion continued strong, and he still hoped to do more for God. Without the consciousness of dying, he fell asleep on November 21st, 1889, in the fifty-sixth year of his age, and the twenty-fourth of his ministry.

(10.) JOHN TUCKER; who was born at Hythe in 1814, and entered the Ministry in 1839, from which year, until his retirement in 1881, he faithfully served Methodism in some of our most laborious Circuits. In many Circuits his work was greatly owned of God in bringing about gracious revivals of religion. His preaching power was considerable, and in the delivery of his sermons his energy was very remarkable. He was diligent as a pastor, and gentlemanly and courteous to everybody. A devoted admirer of Methodism, he disliked innovation, and was firm in upholding godly discipline. He greatly loved his work; indeed, the work he did could only have been done by a man of unquenchable zeal. His blameless walk, his brotherly spirit and unfailing courtesy, greatly endeared him to all who were associated with him. On his retirement, he went to reside in the Liverpool (Wesley) Circuit; and although he had been actively engaged in ministerial work for forty-two years, he undertook a considerable amount of preaching and visiting. His labours were very acceptable in the Circuit, as subsequently in the Huddersfield (Queen-street) and Deptford Circuits. Growing infirmity led to his relinquishing this work. His long illness was borne with Christian cheerfulness. Death was no more to him than a change of place. He passed peacefully away on November 29th, 1889, at Streatham, in the Brixton-Hill Circuit, in the fifty-first year of his ministry.

(11.) THOMAS BROADBENT; who was born at Ballaspit, Isle of Man, in 1839. Through the instrumentality of a Local-preacher, he yielded his heart to God when about twelve years of age, and erelong he began to make sermons; and when only sixteen he became a Local-preacher in the Ramsey and Peel Circuit. He gave up business, and placed himself under the Rev. John P. Lockwood, and was in due course accepted as a candidate for the Ministry. After spending three years at Richmond, he was sent to British Guiana, where for five years he laboured with zeal and success. In 1871 he returned to this country, and in England and Scotland rendered good service to Methodism—service none the less valuable because utterly free from ostentation. In 1888 he was appointed to the Shotley-Bridge Circuit, and quickly won the affections of the people. Incessant toil and the cares of administration in an exceptionally laborious Circuit overtaxed his strength. More than once he was laid aside, and after a period of severe suffering, in peaceful triumph, he entered into rest, December 11th, 1889, in the fifty-first year of his age, and the twenty-fifth of his ministry. His devotion to the sacred work of his life amounted to a passion, and the fervour of his public ministrations undermined his physical powers. He was an attractive and serviceable platform speaker. In the pulpit, whilst always eloquent, he sometimes preached with overwhelming power. He lived without blame and above suspicion, winning the respect and affection of all who knew him. He was straightforward, 'of good courage,' and knew his own mind; walking in the fear of God, he feared no man, but said the truth, and did the right. To every one he was genial and gracious; and to his colleagues in particular he was uniformly considerate and kind.

(12.) JOHN JONES (C); who was born at Llandwrog, Carnarvonshire, in the year 1825. In his youth he was truly converted to God, and he and his father, to whom he felt much indebted for religious instruction, met in Class for the first time together. His whole life testified to the depth, sincerity and thoroughness of his Christian character. After serving the Connexion for several years as a Local-preacher, he was accepted as a candidate for the Ministry by the Conference of 1854, and was appointed to the Mold Circuit; and for thirty-three years laboured with very great acceptance and honour in the most important Circuits in the North Wales District. He had a genial and sympathetic nature, and his mental abilities were of an exceptionally high order—varied, strong and philosophical. These gifts were unreservedly devoted to the work of the Ministry. His discourses were generally expository, and always presented the essential truths of Christianity with great lucidity. As a writer he rendered valuable service to the Principality. His works on the Atonement; his Expository Sermons; Poem on the Bible; Logic; together with various and numerous articles contributed by him to different periodicals, will be long and highly valued. When occasion required, he very ably defined and successfully defended the fundamental principles of Christianity, and the distinctive doctrines of Methodism. He was undoubtedly one of the most gifted and efficient ministers that Wales has produced. In 1887, owing to the failure of his memory, he retired from the full work. He victoriously and peacefully entered into rest December 17th, 1889, in the sixty-fourth year of his age, and the thirty-sixth of his ministry.

(13.) JOHN LOCKE; who was born at Lyme, Dorset, in 1814. His father died before the son could know him, but a widowed mother was God's handmaiden in moulding his character, and giving a right impulse to his life. An early and clear conversion was the foundation of every excellence in his character. He entered the Wesleyan Ministry in 1841, and for forty years 'endured hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ,' in wide and laborious Circuits. He was a diligent student, and his Greek Testament was his daily companion. He published a System of Theology, in 1862, which had a large circulation in this country, America and Australia. Theology was his favourite study; and his book manifests much reading and a very intimate acquaintance with the Word of God. On retiring from our full work in 1880, he settled in the London (Mostyn-road) Circuit. His Society-class, occasional preaching and the visitation of the sick and aged, occupied the quiet evening of a beautiful life. He was a cheerful helper of the Circuit ministers, a sunny Christian, and his testimony at the Saturday-night Band Meeting was ever bright and joyous. His last illness was brief and painless. Just before 'he fell on sleep,' he said: 'All is well: Good-bye.' He was guileless, devout and kind-hearted. The children of the Sunday-school wept when they heard of his death, and widows and the aged poor mourned the loss of one who had often comforted them. On January 2nd, 1890, 'God took him,' in the seventy-fifth year of his age, and the forty-ninth of his ministry.

(14.) CHARLES HILLARD; who was born at Shepton-Beauchamp, Somerset, in 1822, and was converted to God in 1839. He offered himself for Foreign Mission work in 1846, his desire for this having been aroused by reading the journal of the Rev. T. B. Freeman, and he was immediately appointed to the West Coast of Africa; thus realizing his earnest wish to preach to those who had never heard the Saviour's Name. During a residence of a year and a half in Coomassie he saw the face of a white man but two or three times. He returned home in 1850, and laboured with great acceptance until 1886; but his love for Africa was unabated, and it was his delight to plead her claims until the end of his active ministry. He was diligent, methodical and sympathetic as a pastor, thus winning many hearts; and as a colleague he was greatly beloved. He was conscientious in attention to all Circuit duties, and firm in the maintenance of our discipline. His preaching evinced careful preparation: practical, interesting, forceful, closely applying the truth to the heart and conscience. His manliness and thoroughness deeply impressed our people. He was plodding and faithful. He retired from the full work of the Ministry in 1886, settling in Rochester, a former Circuit, where he spent much time in visiting the sick and the aged. After a short illness, during which his faith was never for a moment dimmed, he passed away to his eternal reward on February 4th, 1890, in the sixty-seventh year of his age, and the forty-fourth of his ministry.

(15.) DANIEL GALLAND MAILLARD; who was born of Methodist parents in Guernsey in 1827. At the age of eighteen he gave himself to God, and soon became engaged in Christian work. By reading he began to prepare himself for further service, and while a Local-preacher he commenced the study of the Greek Testament. He profited greatly by a three years' residence at Didsbury College, where he proved himself an earnest student. In 1855 he was appointed to a Circuit. His preaching was generally expository, his sermons carefully prepared, and pervaded by a serious and spiritual tone. He exhibited, even in his earlier ministry, an unusual familiarity with Scripture. His religion was of the manliest type: aloof from everything mean or questionable, and had its noblest expression in a 'godly, righteous and sober life.' His extreme modesty overshadowed some of the many excellencies of his character. He was a genial, intelligent and spiritually-minded companion. At the Conference of 1884, on becoming a Supernumerary, he settled in the Cardiff (Wesley) Circuit, taking the oversight of the South Splotlands Society, where he discharged his pastoral duties with great advantage to the cause of Methodism. He endeared himself to the people greatly, and has left behind a precious memory. He preached for the last time on Sunday, January 19th, and during the week was attacked with influenza, which rapidly exhausted his strength. He expressed himself very confidently respecting the foundation of his faith and hope, and said he trusted only in the merits of Christ. He peacefully entered into rest on February 4th, 1890, in the sixty-third year of his age, and the thirty-fifth of his ministry.

(16.) GEORGE OSBORN BATE; who was born at Faversham in 1825. Through the Christian influences of his home life he was early led to religious decision; and he found peace with God on Good Friday, 1836, when only eleven years of age. The resolutions then formed guided his whole life. After ten years spent in business, he was in 1850 accepted as a candidate for the Ministry, and was sent to the Theological Institution, Richmond, where he remained for three years. In 1853 he entered on Circuit work, to which the next eighteen years of his life were devoted. Mr. Bate was an example of one of the best types of a Wesleyan minister in Circuit work. His sermons, which were mainly expository, were fresh and interesting; and an occasional quaintness of expression, and a genuine flavour of old-fashioned Methodist teaching, increased their attractiveness. We have a striking proof of their excellence in the influence which they exercised over thoughtful young men, who highly prized Mr. Bate's ministry. There was with him no attempt at oratorical display; but the earnestness and instructiveness of his preaching riveted the attention of those who came to learn. His week-night services were memorable; regular attendants on these knew that a rich feast awaited them. The work of the pulpit was followed up with unremitting diligence. Young people especially found in Mr. Bate a sympathetic friend; one who showed himself at all times ready to enter into their difficulties, and who spared no effort to minister help. His labours were not limited to those who sought his pastoral care. He would be found repeatedly visiting the lowest and worst quarters of a town, searching for men who had slunk out of sight, that he might reclaim them for Christ.

In his administration of Circuit affairs he displayed the same qualities of patience, faithfulness and careful study of detail. In the midst of much harassing opposition he held his own by means of blended courtesy and firmness, gaining mastery over opponents through his own self-control.

In 1871 Mr. Bate was appointed Secretary of the Education Committee; and for ten years he discharged the onerous duties of his office with 'singular ability and unceasing carefulness.' He left Westminster for Southlands in 1881. Though he held the office of Principal for five years only, he showed that he still possessed the power of winning the confidence and affection of those entrusted to his care. During these fifteen years he rendered most valuable service on many Connexional Committees, especially in the cause of Middle-Class Education, displaying at all times unwearied industry and remarkable capacity for detail.

Failure of health compelled him to retire from active work in 1886, and the remaining years of his life were a time of quiet rest. His illness brought with it little pain, but continually increasing weakness. In his retirement, he cherished a warm and unchanging affection for his brethren; and his deep interest in all that concerned the welfare of Wesleyan-Methodism remained with him almost to the last day of his life. He died in Cambridge, on February 20th, 1890.

(17.) Arthur Brigg; who was born at Islington in 1834. In early life he was led to decision for Christ, and soon afterwards commenced to preach in the Oxford-Place Circuit, Leeds. In 1856 he became a candidate for the Ministry, offering himself, in answer to an appeal from the Rev. Samuel Coley, for Foreign work. He received an appointment to South Africa, where he laboured with great diligence and success for twenty-five years. During his residence at Bensonvale he had the honour of planting Christianity amongst the hitherto unvisited tribes of the Blikana, and of founding the Wesleyan Mission there.

He possessed in an eminent degree the spirit of the true missionary; and words written on the eve of his embarkation for the Cape found perpetual illustration during the course of his ministry: 'I covet no adornment, and aim at no excellence, beyond the "excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus, my Lord." O that I may "know nothing among men, save Jesus Christ, and Him crucified"!'

Enfeebled health necessitated his return to England in 1882; but he was sufficiently recovered to enter upon Circuit work at the following Conference, and continued therein till summoned, after a brief illness, to his reward, on March 7th, 1890. His end was peace. All fear of death was removed, and he told some friends who called to see him that he realized God to be very near. Whilst, in accordance with his wish, the members of his family were singing around his bed, his spirit passed to God Who gave it.

His memory will be cherished as that of a successful missionary, an acceptable and earnest preacher, a diligent pastor, a faithful friend, and a lover of little children.

(18.) Joseph Burgess West; who was born in Plymouth in 1816. He had godly parentage and training, and early in life he yielded himself to the Lord. His hereditary attachment to Methodism was strengthened by some striking associations. His mother was dedicated to God in baptism by the Rev. John Wesley; and he himself was baptised by the Rev. Joseph Burgess, whose name he bore, and to whose place in the Wesleyan Ministry he seemed to succeed in 1839—the year when Mr. Burgess died. He was modest and retiring, but his call to the Ministry was clear; and having entered upon it, he attended to all its claims with much diligence. For forty-two years he continued in the active work, highly esteemed and greatly beloved as a pastor and friend, and held in much respect by his ministerial brethren. He possessed a singular gift of lucid exposition, and a rich unction of the Spirit attended his preaching. His sermons were full of evangelical truth, and were deeply impressed upon the minds of his hearers. Amongst those who were blessed under his word some now occupy an honourable position in the Wesleyan Ministry. As a Supernumerary, he was able, until within a fortnight of his death, to render very valuable services in Devonport and the adjoining Circuits. In his last illness, when prostrated by physical weakness, his mind was filled with holy thoughts, and most of his wakeful moments were occupied in prayer for his daughters, for the members of his Class, and for the prosperity of the Church, and in repeating his favourite hymns and Scripture passages. On his last night on earth he exclaimed to those sitting near: 'How light it is! How beautiful is that glorious light!' The dawn of the eternal day had began, and into it he passed on March 19th, 1890, in the seventy-third year of his age, and the fifty-first of his ministry.

(19.) JAMES FOWLER BROUGHTON; who was born at Hull in 1837, of godly parents, and passed his early years under the best religious influences. As a boy, he was serious and thoughtful, and when about thirteen years of age fully accepted Christ as his Saviour. He spent two years at Westminster Training College, and subsequently entered the Ministry in 1859. His character was refined, and he was free from self-seeking. With an intense abhorrence of every kind of falsehood and meanness, he was full of tender compassion for the erring, and loving gentleness to all. His mental powers were of a high order, vigorous, penetrating and logical. He enriched his mind by varied and extensive reading, and devoted earnest thought to prominent questions in religion and philosophy. His widely cultivated sympathy, blended with thorough loyalty to Christ as Teacher and Saviour, gave him a happy influence over young men struggling with intellectual difficulties. His sermons were full of freshness and force, combining some of the best qualities of the expositor, divine, and moralist. His rare gifts as a preacher made a deep impression, and throughout his ministerial course he steadily increased in power and efficiency. He was diligent in pastoral duties, his sympathizing spirit and gentle manners eminently fitting him for the work. He invariably won high esteem by fidelity and thoroughness in every part of a Methodist preacher's work. He was 'faithful in that which is least.' As examiner in Theology for several years at Didsbury, and as Financial Secretary of the York and Bolton Districts, he rendered valuable Connexional service. His high-toned and cheerful piety nowhere shone with more lustre than in his own home. Pure and undefiled religion sweetened and adorned his life. During his short fatal illness he was kept in perfect peace, and his face beamed with heavenly radiance. While in great suffering, he asked his wife to sing: 'Nearer, my God, to Thee.' He died on March 24th, 1890, at Manningham, in the fifty-third year of his age, and the thirty-first of his ministry.

(20.) HUMPHREY HUGHES; who was born in North Wales in 1835. When about twelve years of age he was taken by his father to a Lovefeast held in connection with a District Meeting, and was so impressed by the testimonies to the power of Divine grace that he resolved then and there to dedicate himself to God. He was soon able to rejoice in a clear sense of pardon, and afterwards received a distinct call to the Ministry, for which he was accepted by the Conference of 1861. His preaching showed great ability; he had a special gift for lucid and beautiful exposition, the result of diligent and systematic study of God's Word. He was of a genial and happy temperament, and his kindness and brightness endeared him to many. As a pastor, his ready sympathy often carried balm to the sick and sorrowful. At the Conference of 1888 he was appointed to St. Just, but failing health compelled him to seek rest. He left his Circuit, hoping to return; but his illness increased, and he slept peacefully away, at Dartmouth, on March 27th, 1890, in the fifty-fifth year of his age, and the twenty-ninth of his ministry.

(21.) DAVID THOMAS (A); who was born at Bridgend in 1838. He was blessed with a godly training, and fully decided for God before he was thirteen years of age. When quite young he began to preach. In 1855 he entered Westminster Training College, where he spent two years, subsequently having the position of schoolmaster at Wednesbury, Frome and Pontypridd. During this period he exhibited striking gifts as a preacher of God's Word, and was frequently urged to devote himself to the Christian Ministry. His modesty caused him to shrink from so responsible an office, but God so owned his labours to the conversion of souls, that he felt at last it was his duty to yield to the call of the Spirit and the Church. He was accepted as a candidate for the Ministry in 1864, some years after marriage.

His ministry was greatly blessed. He possessed in an eminent degree the qualities of a successful minister of Christ. As a preacher he was earnest, cultured and powerful; his sermons being rich in thought and beautiful in diction. He was much beloved, easily winning his way into the hearts of the people by his kind and genial spirit. He was a judicious and painstaking Superintendent, and a loyal and affectionate colleague. He proved himself a faithful steward of the Lord, maintaining a spotless character and a deep, thoughtful piety. While stationed at Torquay he was taken with paralysis, and was compelled to abandon work for some time; but recovering, he removed to Brecon at the Conference of 1889. Here his health seemed to be rapidly improving. In February, 1890, he assisted in a very gracious revival of religion in Brecon, throwing himself most heartily into the work he loved so much. Almost in the midst of such scenes, he was seized with paralysis while on a visit to Hay, where, after six days of suffering, he passed home to God, on March 27th, 1890, in the fifty-first year of his age, and the twenty-sixth of his ministry.

(22.) THOMAS IATSON FAIRLESS; who was born in 1847 at Humshaugh, Northumberland. Trained by God-fearing parents, early in life he was influenced for good, and manifested a desire to become a preacher of the Gospel. He became a member of the Methodist Church at the age of fourteen. In 1871 he was accepted for the Ministry. In all his Circuits, from Castletown, Isle of Man, to Minehead and Dunster, in which he was cut down in mid life, he gained the respect and affection of his people, ever manifesting a genial and kindly disposition. His friends often marvelled at the amount of sterling work he accomplished in spite of so great weakness. He followed in the footsteps of him who said: 'I will very gladly spend and be spent for you.' To the close of life he maintained his trust in the God of his youth, and preached the truths which had become increasingly dear to him. After eight days' illness he entered into rest on March 30th, 1890.

(23.) GEORGE HUGHES; who was born in Liverpool in 1809, and died at Carlisle, April 19th, 1890.

His early religious associations were with the Church of England, but under deep spiritual conviction he was led to join the Methodist Society, and in his twenty-third year began to preach. In 1836 he was admitted into the Ministry, and continued in our itinerant work until the Conference of 1879.

Mr. Hughes possessed a vigorous mind, which he cultivated by diligent reading. To the end of his life he was an eager student. His sermons were most carefully prepared; they were marked by great clearness both of arrangement and expression, and in a high degree 'profitable for instruction in righteousness.'

In several Circuits his strength of character and his fidelity to our institutions were particularly valuable. During his residence, as a Supernumerary, in the Carlisle ircuit, he lived in the affectionate esteem of all who knew him. His occasional ministrations were much appreciated, and his latest discourses were accompanied by special tokens of the influence of the Holy Spirit.

He preached twice on the last Sabbath of his life; retained clear consciousness until within a few hours of his departure; and peacefully 'fell on sleep' in the eighty-first year of his age, and the fifty-fourth of his ministry.

(24.) JOHN JAGGER; who was born at Netherthong, in the Holmfirth Circuit, in 1849. He was of an old Methodist family, and was converted to God in early life At the age of sixteen he began to preach, and gave promise of a highly acceptable and useful ministry. He was diligent, painstaking and successful. As a pastor he was full of sympathy and tenderness, knowing how to 'rejoice with those who do rejoice, and weep with those who weep.' His sermons were full of thought. He sought carefully to bring out the meaning of the Sacred Text, and he presented the truth in a very profitable and practical manner. His Christian experience was clear and well founded. He studied and lived holiness. He took a deep interest in young people, and was greatly beloved by them. His work was his delight. He laboured in Cardiff, Bolton and Manchester, with great acceptance and success. Mr. Jagger was a beloved and trusted colleague. During his first year at Birkenhead, he was prostrated by illness. As a Supernumerary he rendered for two years valuable pastoral service in the Cross-Hills Circuit. Returning to the work, he laboured at Cullingworth and Barton-on-Humber. In the latter Circuit he was again prostrated. After suffering for some months from enfeebled health he 'fell asleep' on April 25th, 1890, in the forty-first year of his age, and the seventeenth of his ministry.

(25.) JOHN POGSON; who was born at Coningsby, in the year 1826. In the sixteenth year of his age he was converted to God under the ministry of the Rev. Joseph Mortimer. From the time of his conversion to that of his death he retained a joyous assurance of the Divine favour. He became a candidate for our Ministry in his twenty-second year, and entered the Didsbury Branch of the Theological Institution; where, by his genial disposition, and the consistency of his life, he won the esteem and affection of all who knew him. In his various Circuits he was esteemed and revered. As a Pastor he was devoted, faithful and kind. As a Superintendent he was eminently judicious; firm, yet always on the side of charity and peace. As a preacher he excelled: his wide reading, his retentive memory, his habit of close observation, and his pleasant manner, rendered him in the pulpit most efficient. He was greatly owned of God in the conversion of sinners, and in the edification of believers. His end was sudden and unexpected; only a few hours intervening between danger and death. He peacefully passed away on Sunday, April 27th, 1890, in the sixty-fourth year of his age, and the fortieth of his ministry. Among his last utterances were expressions of absolute trust in Christ; more than once, and in triumphant strains, he said: 'The Lord reigneth.'

(26.) ROBERT NEWTON HESSEL; who was the son of the late Rev. William Hessel, who died in the midst of his years on his return from Australia to Bristol. Robert was thus left in early boyhood to the sole care of his mother, who trained him in the truth, and in godliness of life. His conversion was sound and clear, and he soon became a Bible-class teacher, and a preacher of marked success in the Kingswood Circuit, where a number of young men were led to God by him. He commenced a three years' course at Didsbury in 1877, and secured the full respect of Tutors and fellow-students. His clear and vigorous intellect, and the balance of his faculties, gave him a singular sagacity and prudence. He had an uncompromising love of truth, and a profound sympathy with suffering. He became an able and successful minister of high promise. His preaching was lucid and finished, fresh and forceful, and accompanied by a fervour which failed not to impress his hearers. Many of his bright and beautiful utterances are indelibly stamped upon his people's minds. After six years of service his health became delicate, and in 1885 he retired to Bristol. A year spent in South Africa brought no visible improvement; and after five years of increasing weakness and pain, he closed a suffering life on April 29th, 1890, in the thirty-sixth year of his age, and the eleventh of his ministry.

At times, sorrow and disappointment deeply beclouded him; but he maintained peace of soul and a sure hope through grace, having a good conscience towards God and man. He was good, manly and amiable, was esteemed and beloved by all who knew him, and his early departure is matter of deep and widely felt regret.

(27.) JAMES PEET; who was born at Ormskirk in 1832. He belonged to an old Methodist family, and all his early associations were of a religious character. While he was yet young, he began to seek the God of his fathers, and was called to active service in the Church of Christ. He offered himself in 1858 as a candidate for Foreign Mission work. He was sent as a missionary to the Gambia, on the West Coast of Africa, where for three years it was his joy 'to give light to them that sit in darkness, and in the shadow of death.' Whilst there, he was frequently attacked with fever, and he returned home with a constitution greatly weakened. From 1862 he exercised his ministry chiefly in the Midland Counties. In every Circuit he won the confidence and affection of the people. Though not highly cultured, he was singularly conscientious. His sermons were thoughtful, 'in doctrine showing uncorruptness,' and not wanting in forceful application. He cared for the congregations committed to his charge; and not only 'publicly, but from house to house,' he sought to fulfil 'the ministry which he had received of the Lord Jesus.' Mr. Peet excelled in administration. For twenty-two years, in the Home work, he had the charge of Circuits; and in Wellingborough twice. As a Superintendent, he rendered valuable service by his wise and prudent direction of the affairs of his Circuits. His last illness was very brief. He died on May 4th, 1890, in the fifty-ninth year of his age, and the thirty-second of his ministry.

(28.) WILLIAM BENJAMIN DENNIS; who was born at Colchester, in 1815. He had godly parents, who from his infancy trained him 'in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.' At an early age he became a decided Christian. Humility, gentleness and integrity were the most remarkable features of his character throughout his life. He showed himself an example of Scriptural holiness. He was accepted as a candidate for the Ministry in 1837. He spent one year at the Theological Institution, where he was a diligent and successful student. He was appointed to a Circuit in 1838, and continued in the full work for thirty-nine years. In some of these spheres he was permitted to see great prosperity. His preaching was lucid, evangelical and instructive, adapted to promote the conversion of sinners and the edification of believers. In all his Circuits he was greatly beloved by the people, and by his colleagues. His last affliction was long and painful; involving, at times, much mental depression, but never undermining his faith in God, or his hope of immortality. His patience and resignation to the Divine will were evident so long as he had any control over his faculties. He died in peace at High Barnet, May 12th, 1890, in the seventy-fifth year of his age, and the fifty-second of his ministry.

(29.) THOMAS HEELEY; who was born at Canterbury in 1811.

In Birmingham, where he went as a youth, he became soundly converted under the ministry of the Rev. John Angell James, and joined the Wesleyan-Methodist Society in 1823. He entered the Ministry in 1834. His character was transparently simple, and he was entirely devoid of unworthy ambition. His charity in judging and speaking of others was conspicuous. He was a diligent and devout student of God's Word, and painstaking in preparation for the pulpit. His preaching was marked by great earnestness and force. He had peculiar power in prayer; and in his last days, when incapable of responding intelligently to ordinary remarks, could follow with evident appreciation the prayers of those who visited him. He was a judicious and skilful administrator, and conscientious in attention to every detail of his duty. Dignified in bearing and courteous in demeanour, under his management peace and prosperity were experienced in his Circuits. He became a Supernumerary in 1879, entering into an engagement for occasional services with the Southport (Trinity) Circuit. His last illness was peculiarly painful, but no complaint escaped his lips, and he frequently expressed his unabated confidence in God. For him to live had been Christ, and to die was gain. He passed away on May 20th, 1890, in the fifty-sixth year of his ministry.

(30.) ALFRED COOKE; who was born in 1849, and closed a brief but fruitful life and ministry on June 28th, 1890. The son of a Wesleyan minister, and one of three brothers in the same sacred office, he was identified with our Church life from childhood. His gifts, graces and fruits were such as Methodism most approves. These were very conspicuous during his appointment as a District Missionary. Great wisdom, zeal and usefulness characterized his Circuit work. When closing his three years' service in the Thetford Circuit, in 1887, his health failed, and he became a Supernumerary. At this trying period domestic affliction and bereavement fell upon him heavily; but Divine grace was magnified more and more in his bright experience and cheerful devotion to his family and to the work of God. In this spirit he finished his course, committing himself and orphan children to Divine mercy. By his decease our Church has been bereaved of a most beloved and useful minister.

(31.) WILLIAM LINDLEY; who was born near Castleford, in 1809. When a young man he was brought to God. He at once identified himself with the Methodist Church, and entered the Ministry in 1833. He continued in the active work for forty-four years, travelling in some of our most extensive Circuits, and often enduring hardness as a good soldier of Jesus Christ. He was called to fill official positions in the Methodist Ministry, the duties of which he discharged in a most diligent and conscientious manner. He was elected Chairman of the Channel Islands District in 1873. When resident in Jersey he rendered great service to the Chapel Trust Estate. In 1875 he became a member of the Legal Conference. His preaching was expository, and his views of the doctrines of Scripture, as defined in our standard works, were clear and sound. His sermons, prepared with great care, abounded in forceful and telling application. He was a strong disciplinarian, and carried out the rules of our Church in all her courts with impartiality. One great secret of his usefulness was his systematic visitation of the people, which gained him their respect and love. A short time after the Conference of 1877, he was seized with partial paralysis, which compelled him to become a Supernumerary, but his interest in the welfare of Methodism remained undiminished to the last. For some time the signs of approaching dissolution became more discernible, but his mental powers remained bright. On July 6th, 1890, he died in great peace at Stourbridge, in the eighty-second year of his age, and the fifty-seventh of his ministry.

(32.) JOHN LEWIS (B); who was born at Calne in 1824.

He was blessed with a godly mother, under whose instructions he was led to decide for Christ when twelve years of age. He began to preach when eighteen, and was accepted for the Ministry in 1846. His first appointment was to Hastings in Western Africa, where he spent four years. For thirty-five years he laboured with great diligence and fidelity in the Home work, nineteen of which were spent in the Bath District. In all his Circuits he won the confidence and affection of the people as an administrator and preacher. He was a great lover of Foreign Missions, and enthusiastic in advocating their claims. He was a very bright Christian, full of sympathy and kindness; very generous, genial and courteous. His preaching was plain, racy, original; and his sermons were delivered with considerable fervour and animation. After thirty-nine years of Circuit work he became a Supernumerary; and, as far as his strength permitted, he continued to preach, speak at public meetings, visit the sick, and meet a Society-class. His last illness was very painful, but most patiently borne. He said: 'I'm going home.' He gave repeated testimonies as to his joyful confidence in God, and his bright hope of the future. He peacefully fell asleep in Jesus at Weymouth, July 11th, 1890, in the sixty-sixth year of his age, and the forty-fourth of his ministry.

(33.) WILLIAM ANDREWS; who was born near Salisbury in 1815. He was brought into the enjoyment of salvation at the age of fifteen, from which time his life gave increasingly beautiful evidence of the power of Divine grace, until he was called home on July 12th, 1890. He was 'a man greatly beloved,' of guileless heart, of sweet and gentle disposition, and of saintly life. He combined firm adherence to the right and good with a spirit most tender and lovable. During nearly half a century of active ministry he was honoured by God as the means of salvation to many. His preaching was marked by perfect loyalty to Gospel truth—truth presented with a freshness and originality of thought which made his ministry very attractive. In all his Circuits he gained the affection of his people of every class by cultivating sympathetic spiritual intercourse with them in their homes. He was a wise and faithful Superintendent, and a kind and genial Chairman of the District. Retiring from active work in 1886, he spent most of his remaining years in Melksham, preaching as his strength would permit, and endearing himself to the people. His last illness was brief. As the end drew near, he spoke much of Christ and His Atonement, saying: 'If I were a young man again, how I would preach Christ!' Heaven was very near to him. He passed away in the fifty-third year of his ministry.

(34.) JOHN THOMAS (B); who was born at St. Austell in 1820. He was converted in early life, and owed much to the godly influence of his mother. In 1846 he was ordained to the Ministry, going out at once as a Missionary to Western Africa, and spending there and in Southern Africa twenty-one years of loving, useful and successful work. Though in perils oft, yet he was most fearless, firm and faithful in dealing with the heathen chiefs and natives; while for their well-being in many ways he was 'in labours more abundant,' and so was much beloved. Returning to England in 1867, for nineteen years his earnest preaching and sympathetic pastoral work brought many seals to his ministry. He loved to be among his people; and wherever there was trouble, he was sure to be found. In 1885 he became a Supernumerary, when it was soon manifest that the strong man was being bowed down. For the last two years, owing to insidious paralysis, he was unfit for any public work; and after many seasons of mental weakness, the end came very peacefully on July 25th, 1890, in his seventy-first year. His last words, repeated with much emphasis, were: 'Praise the Lord! Praise Him! Praise Him always!'

N.B.—The obituaries of JAMES HUGHES, who died July 31st, 1890; THOMAS J. DESPRÈS, who died August 5th, 1890, will appear next year.

2. In Ireland, five, viz.,—

(1.) WILLIAM BURNSIDE; who was born at Newry in 1800, and born again when about seventeen years of age. In 1830 he was received on probation, and appointed to the Armagh Circuit. For thirty-five years he discharged the duties of his sacred office with fidelity, acceptance and success. He was a good man, an example to believers 'in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.' His preaching was thoroughly evangelical, his appeals to the hearts of his hearers were earnest and convincing, and his labours were much owned of God, particularly amongst young people, in whom he took especial interest. He was distinguished by liberality to God's Cause and to the poor, by catholicity of spirit, and devotedness to Methodism. He applied himself assiduously to the pursuit of theological knowledge, and was in more than an ordinary degree conversant with the Holy Scriptures. By his faithfulness and brotherly kindness he secured the confidence and affection of his brethren in the Ministry, and of those amongst whom he laboured. For a long period his name stood on the Minutes as a Supernumerary, but he continued to pursue a course of pulpit and pastoral work with acceptance and usefulness until the rush of numerous years weakened his physical and mental powers. The Lord did not 'cast him off in the time of old age, or forsake him when his strength failed.' He could say: 'God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever.' He died in peace and full of hope on August 5th, 1889, in the ninetieth year of his age, and the sixtieth of his ministry.

(2.) RICHARD TAYLOR TRACY, M.A.; who was born in Limerick in 1791. From a child he enjoyed the benefit of Methodist influences, and under the watchful care of godly parents he grew up with a reverence for God and Divine things. Soon after his conversion, which took place while he was young, he manifested a strong desire to bring sinners to Christ. Although prospects of worldly prosperity were presented to him, cheerfully and humbly obeying the Divine call, he offered himself as a candidate for the Ministry. By the Conference of 1815, he was placed on the List of Reserve. In 1817 he was appointed to a Circuit, and with great fidelity for forty years he discharged all the duties of an ambassador for Christ, labouring with acceptance in some of our most important Circuits, to several of which he was appointed for two terms. As Chairman of a District, and in various other offices in connection with the Conference, he was faithful and painstaking. In 1857 he became a Supernumerary, but in this capacity he rendered valuable service to Methodism, notably at Ennis, where for several years he laboured with great efficiency until his hallowed toil was interrupted by an attack of paralysis.

He recovered, but did not again take part in public work. He possessed considerable mental gifts, which were carefully cultivated. He was a faithful and earnest preacher, a kind and diligent pastor, a wise and thoughtful Superintendent, and a brotherly colleague. He was beloved by the people of his charge, especially by the sick and poor; the afflicted found in him a friend who could sympathize with them and comfort them. He spent the evening of his unusually long life in his native city, beloved by all who knew him; possessing a cheerful disposition and a retentive memory, he was a pleasant companion, delighting to recount the trials and triumphs of early Methodism, not a few of which he had witnessed. He said: 'All the days of my lengthened life have been full of mercies. I have had trials keen, and privations many; but not one day in my Master's service would I have left out.' As the end drew near, his confidence in the Saviour was increasingly strong, and his hope increasingly bright. He seemed to catch blessed visions of the coming glory. Almost his last words were, as he gazed upward: 'They are coming; don't you see them?' He passed home to God on October 17th, 1889, in the ninety-eighth year of his age, and the seventy-third of his ministry.

(3.) ROBERT KINGSBOROUGH; who was born near Portadown in 1813. His parents trained him 'in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.' As a child he was exemplary and obedient, and had a tender conscience. When very young he felt his need of salvation, and earnestly sought a change of heart. On the Sabbath following his conversion he joined a Class-meeting, and bore joyous testimony to the saving grace of God. From that time the Class-meeting was to him precious and profitable. He soon became a Local-preacher, and ultimately was accepted as a candidate for the Ministry of the Primitive Wesleyan Society in 1838. During the forty-one years of his active ministry he was greatly esteemed; his courteous and gentlemanly bearing, simple piety and uniform kindness of spirit gaining for him the love of his people, and of persons belonging to other Christian denominations. His brethren in the Ministry testified to their love for him, and to his ability for official work, by electing him Secretary of the Primitive Wesleyan Conference.

The closing years of his life were spent principally at Blackwatertown, where he rendered valuable aid by preaching and otherwise engaging in the work of God as his strength permitted. He generously supported Circuit and Connexional funds, and delighted to receive his brother ministers in his home, and to converse with them on spiritual subjects. Of late years he passed through severe affliction, but was specially sustained by the grace of God. During his last illness he was able to speak with calm confidence of his trust in Jesus and of Christ's preciousness to him. When he was dying a bright smile lit up his countenance, and a beautiful and exemplary life came to a fittingly peaceful end, in the seventy-seventh year of his age, and the fifty-second of his ministry.

(4.) WILLIAM HOEY; who was born in Carrick. His father died when he was very young. He had, however, a wise and godly mother, to whom he owed his earliest and most lasting impressions. He had a distinct recollection of loving his Saviour when he was four years of age, and this love deepened and strengthened with the growth of years. He greatly prized the Class-meeting, and filled the offices of Leader and Local-preacher acceptably. In 1839 he was accepted as a candidate for the Ministry. In all his Circuits he was greatly beloved and much owned of God. As Chairman of a District, he discharged his duties with great acceptance to his brethren. He had a sound judgment and a well-informed mind. His preaching was largely expository. His arrangement was logical, his method original, and his application clear and forceful. He was a diligent and laborious pastor, and his visits were anticipated with delight, especially by the children, in whom he felt a deep interest. In 1879 he retired from active work, and took up his residence in Belfast. From time to time, as long as he was able, he preached with great acceptance, and aided in every way he could the work of God. 'He was a good man, and full of the Holy Ghost and of faith.' As years crept upon him, one could not realize that he was old, his mind was so vigorous, his spirit so cheerful, and his memory so clear. He manifested to the end a deep interest in all Church-matters. His faith in the Saviour was strong, and he rejoiced in the sanctifying grace of God. In peaceful anticipation of heaven he awaited his final summons. On the 21st of September, 1889, the weary wheels of life stood still, and his spirit passed through the gates into the city in the eighty-first year of his age, and the fiftieth of his ministry.

(5.) JOHN KER, D.D.; who was born at Meaghy, County Tyrone, on July 18th, 1834. His parents, members of the Methodist Society, made their house a home for the Methodist preachers and a centre for Evangelistic effort. His mother taught him early to read the New Testament, and introduced him to the Sunday-school and Class-meeting. The impressions thus made resulted in his conversion to God at a Lovefeast he attended in the sixteenth year of his age. His first love led him to engage in calling sinners to repentance, and in 1854 he was accepted as a candidate for the Ministry in connection with the Primitive Wesleyan Conference. He was appointed to some of the most laborious Circuits in Irish Methodism, including Dublin, Cork, Belfast, Enniskillen, and Clones. In all he was eminently successful in winning souls, and 'in labours more abundant,' for which he possessed rare physical and mental endowments. He had a robust constitution, a marked individuality, a strong will, great decision and promptitude, a commanding voice and ready utterance, a fearless nerve and energy that seemed to laugh at impossibilities; and yet, underlying a rather rough exterior, a sympathetic, large and tender heart. His sermons were clear expositions of Divine truth, and were delivered with great unction. His platform addresses were full of humour and instruction, and very popular. He was many times chosen Chairman of a District; and was President of the Primitive Wesleyan Conference at the time of the Union, and filled that office with conspicuous ability.

He visited America twice on Connexional business: first, in 1881, when an appeal was made to the Methodist Churches of that country for aid to further the interests of united Methodism in Ireland. His mission was a marked financial success, and his ability won for him the degree of D.D. from one of the first Universities in the United States. His second visit was on behalf of the Clarke Memorial Church at Portrush, which, with the Campbell Memorial Church, Bundoran, will long stand as a monument of Dr. Ker's energy and devotion. His immense financial efforts, with continuous powerful pulpit and platform ministrations, overtaxed his strength, and at the last Conference he was greatly prostrated. His brethren hoped a season of rest would restore him, but his work was done. During his illness his faith was unwavering. He often said: 'I have no wish to recover, except it be to preach Christ. If I am to be laid aside like a broken vessel, I should greatly prefer going home.' He often spoke with affection of his brethren, and would say: 'I am being promoted before them, but they will join me by-and-by.' During his last night on earth, when seemingly unconscious, he burst forth with all his former energy into a shout of praise: 'Glory be to God! Glory be to God!' and a little before the end he repeated the same words. Thus 'an entrance was ministered unto him abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ,' on the 6th of March, 1890, in the fifty-sixth year of his age, and the thirty-sixth of his ministry.

N.B.—The obituary of THOMAS CATHER MAGUIRE, who died June 29th, 1890, will appear next year.

8. In our Foreign Missions, six, viz.,—

(1.) TIMOTHY CRESSWELL; who was born at Radford, near Nottingham, in 1829. He feared the Lord from his youth. In 1859 he was accepted as a candidate for the Ministry, and sent to South Africa, where he laboured with much success. In 1881 he visited England, but returned to South Africa the following year. An accident, which occurred several years ago, caused him much suffering, and resulted in life-long lameness. But tribulation worked patience, and by his resignation the grace of God was magnified. His character was transparent, his disposition amiable, his preaching simple and instructive. The last five and a half years of his life were spent as a Supernumerary at Jagersfontein in the Orange Free State, where he entered peacefully into rest, October 4th, 1889, in the sixtieth year of his age, and the thirty-first of his ministry.

(2.) WILLIAM SPENCER HODGSON; who died in Belize, of malarial fever, on November 1st, 1889, in the thirtieth year of his age, and the second of his ministry. In early life he set himself vigorously to search after truth, and, when found, manifested fearlessness in maintaining it. He acknowledged gratefully the influence upon his character of his mother's Christian life. After conversion his first work for Christ was in connection with Ragged Schools in Manchester. In 1885, he was accepted by the Conference for Foreign Missions, and was sent to Handsworth, where he won distinction: Governor, Tutors, and fellow-students alike recognising in him mental force and beauty of character. In 1888 he was appointed to the Honduras District. Till the time of his death he laboured in the Belize Circuit with great devotion, acceptance and usefulness, endearing himself to all with whom he had intercourse. Mr. Hodgson was respected, esteemed and appreciated by many beyond the range of our own communion. He died in the Lord, and his memory is blessed.

(3.) EDWIN NICHOLSON; who was born at Collingham, Notts., in 1864, and died of congestive malarial fever, at Belize, after three days' illness, on January 20th, 1890.

He had godly parents, and in early life experienced the sweetness of his Saviour's love. In a record he has left, he describes having lost his 'first love,' and how he sought salvation in the Confirmation Service of the Church of England, and otherwise, but in vain; until, as he expresses it, 'I poured out my complaint unto God, and trusting alone in the merits of Christ Jesus for pardon, I received the spirit of adoption, whereby I could cry, Abba, Father!'

He was afterwards led to join the Wesleyan Church, in which he soon found employment as a Sunday-school teacher and Local-preacher. Being recommended for the Ministry in 1886, he was accepted by the Conference and sent to the Theological Institution, Richmond, where he prosecuted his studies for three years. Originally designed for Home work, he offered himself, at the end of his first year at College, for Foreign Missions. In 1889 he was appointed to Ruatan; but on account of the death of Rev. W. Spencer Hodgson, was detained in Belize to supply the vacancy. His course of service, only fifteen weeks, was very short, but that service was not fruitless. Mr. Nicholson gave good promise of being a faithful, earnest and successful minister of Jesus Christ; but suddenly 'he was not, for God took him.'

(4.) CARL BÖTTCHER; who was born in the province of Hanover, in 1830, and died at Sulzbach in March, 1890. In 1852 he found his way to London, where he lived a godless life. Soon after marriage his wife was converted to God, and this led to the conversion of her husband. As the result of this change, Mr. Böttcher began, by the distribution of religious tracts and the holding of Bible-classes, to seek the conversion of his fellow-countrymen. After a time a vestry of St. George's-in-the-East chapel was placed at his disposal, and the meetings held there were the beginning of our German work in the East of London. Mr. Böttcher was employed with considerable success as a Lay-agent of the Home-Mission Committee, and later on in the same capacity in Sunderland. In 1873 he returned to Germany, and was received by the British Conference as a preacher on trial, and continued to the time of his death to preach the Gospel in his own country. He was an earnest and diligent labourer in his Lord's vineyard; and was distinguished by his continual cheerfulness even under adverse circumstances; by active faith and glowing love to Christ and to his fellow-men. He was faithful unto death, and his memory is blessed.

(5.) DAVID ALPHÆUS JOHN; who was born in 1846, at Wilberforce, Sierra Leone, of liberated African parents. He was converted to God in 1861. After a training of two years and a half at King Tom's Institution he was appointed to the charge of Buxton day-school. In 1874 his name appeared as a Local-preacher on trial. On the establishment of the High School in the same year, he was appointed the first Assistant Master, and in that capacity rendered service until, in 1877, he entered the Ministry, and laboured zealously in the Freetown, York and Hastings Circuits. In March, 1890, he had an attack of influenza, followed by pneumonia, from which he died on April 2nd, 1890, in the forty-fourth year of his age, and the thirteenth of his ministry.

(6.) GEORGE S. SHELDON; who was born at Rainow, in the Macclesfield Circuit, in 1862, and died at Johannesberg, South Africa, on April 29th, 1890. He was brought to God through Methodist influence, and accepted for our Ministry in 1884. After two years at Richmond he received an appointment to Potchefstroom, in the Transvaal and Swaziland District, where his genial disposition and attractive preaching soon endeared him to our people. For two years he laboured most acceptably in this Circuit, when the exigencies of the work necessitated his removal to Vryburg, in Bechuanaland. Here, amidst many difficulties, and much to discourage, he did good, earnest and faithful work. In 1889 he was stationed at Johannesberg, the principal centre of the Witwatersrand Gold Fields. He entered with much joy, and an evident sense of deep responsibility, upon this large and important sphere. His preaching, always of a high order, grew in power and helpfulness. His sermons, thoughtful, fresh, telling, were highly appreciated by large congregations, and did not fail in the purpose for which they were delivered. His urbanity and kindly thoughtfulness made him a colleague beloved and esteemed, whose loss will be long mourned. He succumbed to an attack of typhoid fever. A life full of promise was thus early cut short.

N.B.—The obituaries of JOHN BADCOCK, and SOLOMON PIERIS, Native Minister, will appear next year.

Q. VII. Are there any OBJECTIONS to any of our Ministers or Preachers on Trial?

A. They were examined, one by one.

Q. VIII. Who have CEASED TO BE RECOGNISED AS MINISTERS amongst us?

A. 1. In Great Britain,

(1) William Jeffries, who has voluntarily retired in order to join the New South Wales and Queensland Conference; Caleb Lord and James Whitehead, who have also voluntarily retired.

(2) John D. Clark and William H. Hambley.

2. In our Foreign Missions,

(1) Joseph D. Hayford, who has voluntarily retired.

(2) James Booth and John S. Joiner.

Q. IX. How are our Ministers and Preachers on Trial STATIONED for the ensuing year?

A. As follows; viz.:—

[N.B. 1. Each of the places mentioned in these Stations, and numbered consecutively, from 1 to 912, is the head of the Circuit; and the Minister first named is the Superintendent.

2. The Superintendent and other Minister or Ministers, stationed in or appointed to the several Circuits undermentioned, is and are appointed by the Conference to preach and to perform all acts of religious worship and Methodist discipline, in each and every one of the Wesleyan-Methodist Chapels already erected, or to be erected, in each Circuit respectively, within the space of twelve calendar months, at such time or times, and in such manner, as to him or them shall seem proper; subject, nevertheless, to the Superintendent Minister.

3. The Minister appointed to any Station without a number is the Superintendent, and is therefore entitled to preside in the Quarterly Meeting and Trustees' Meeting; but he shall, as heretofore, act under the direction of the Chairman of the District.]

34. Edinburgh and Aberdeen, The General Secretary, Henry John Pope.

N.B.—The Ministers who are appointed as Deputations on behalf of our Home and Foreign Missions are responsible to the Conference for the fulfilment of their appointments.

EXAMINATIONS OF CANDIDATES FOR ORDINATION.

Q. XV. What are the Directions of the Conference respecting the EXAMINATIONS OF CANDIDATES FOR ORDINATION?

A. 1. Before any Preacher, having travelled four years, is recommended by his District Meeting for admission into Full Connexion, he shall undergo a careful examination by the Chairman of that Meeting, respecting his acquaintance with Mr. Wesley's Works in general, and especially with his Sermons and his Notes on the New Testament, in addition to the other examinations required by our existing Rules; and no Preacher shall be so recommended unless the result of his examination be satisfactory to the Meeting. (Minutes, Vol. IV., p. 122.)

2. Arrangements shall be made for conducting the Examination in the Conference of Candidates for Ordination at a time when the President of the Conference can attend, and when a large proportion of the Conference, including its official members, may be expected to be present.

3. An explicit declaration of his belief of the Doctrines of Methodism shall be required of each Candidate.

EXAMINATION OF PREACHERS ON TRIAL.

Q. XVI. What is the Report upon the EXAMINATION OF PREACHERS ON TRIAL for the past year? And what are the directions of the Conference respecting the Examination of PREACHERS ON TRIAL for the ensuing year?

A. 1. The following is a summary of the Report upon the Examination of Preachers on Trial.

The Examination was held on April 15th and 16th. There were two cases of failure in Scripture subjects in the Fourth Year, in both of which there was a second Examination before the District Meeting. The June Examination has this year been particularly heavy; for, in consequence of the influenza epidemic, a good many Examinations had to be postponed. There were also nine re-examinations in June of those who failed in Scripture subjects in April.

With the exception of one who was unable to take the Examination in consequence of illness, all the Probationers were examined. There were five who did not take the full number of subjects required by the Conference; but the reasons of their failure to come up to the expectation were satisfactory.

The following is a comparison of the present system of marking with that which was formerly in use:—

Present Scale		Former Scale	Meaning.
1*	answers to	1+	Exceptionally excellent.
1	„ „	1	Excellent.
2	„ „	2+	Very good.
3	„ „	2	Good.
4	„ „	3+	Fair.
5	„ „	3	Moderate.
6	„ „	4+	Poor.
7	„ „	4	Very poor.

The general results of the examination of the Probationers of each year are as follows:—

FIRST YEAR.—69 probationers were examined, who wrote 276 papers, the valuation marks of which were as follows:—8; ii, 39; iii, 53; iv, 66; v, 65; vi, 33; vii, 11; Failure, 1,

SECOND YEAR.—36 probationers were examined, who wrote 179 papers, the valuation marks of which were as follows:—1*, 2; i, 10; ii, 19; iii, 36; iv, 45; v, 34; vi, 21; vii, 11; Failure, 1.

THIRD YEAR.—29 probationers were examined, who wrote 145 papers, the valuation marks of which were as follows:—1*, 4; i, 11; ii, 29; iii, 25; iv, 21; v, 28; vi, 16; vii, 11.

FOURTH YEAR.—40 probationers were examined, who wrote 195 papers, the valuation marks of which were as follows:—1*, 6; i, 18; ii, 29; iii, 57; iv, 36; v, 27; vi, 17; vii, 5.

The average marks obtained by the examinees as compared with those of 1889 were as follows:—

FIRST YEAR, 1889.—Papers valued 4, 31%; above 4, 36%; below 4, 33%. 1890.—Papers valued 4, 24%; above 4, 36%; below 4, 40%.

SECOND YEAR, 1889.—Papers valued 4, 24%; above 4, 52%; below 4, 23%. 1890.—Papers valued 4, 25%; above 4, 37%; below 4, 37%.

THIRD YEAR, 1889.—Papers valued 4, 21%; above 4, 49%; below 4, 29%. 1890.—Papers valued 4, 14%; above 4, 48%; below 4, 38%.

FOURTH YEAR, 1889.—Papers valued 4, 16%; above 4, 64%; below 4, 20%. 1890.—Papers valued 4, 18%; above 4, 56%; below 4, 25%.

A place in the Honours List is assigned to those who take the full number of subjects required, and in other respects fulfil the conditions of the Examination as laid down in the Minutes of Conference, and who obtain an average mark not exceeding 3 for the subjects taken in the Examination. In the First Class are placed those whose average mark does not exceed 1. In the Second Class those who have an average of between 1 and 2. In the Third Class those who have an average of between 2 and 3. The names in each year stand in the order of merit; but, on account of the difference in subjects, no attempt is made to compare one year with another. The Honours List for this year is as follows:—

FIRST YEAR.—First Class, none. Second Class, E. O. Barratt, M.A. Third Class, T. W. Fawthrop, and J. D. Rainforth, B.A. (bracketed equal); W. P. Hutton, B.A., and W. Wallace (bracketed equal); R. Dixon, F. Godson, and D. L. Pawson; J. W. Colwell, J. S. Morris, H. Windross, and J. Wright.

SECOND YEAR.—First Class, none. Second Class, R. M. Pope, M.A.; W. H. Holmes, B.A. Third Class, R. J. Wardell; A. E. Balch, and W. H. Wardle, B.A. (bracketed equal); E. E. Ormiston, and J. A. Rothery (bracketed equal); W. A. L. Taylor, B.A.

THIRD YEAR.—First Class, none. Second Class, J. A. Barnes, B.A.; A. H. Walker, B.A. Third Class, J. Barns, and G. Jackson, B.A. (bracketed equal); W. G. Triggs; F. J. Briggs; F. J. Harvey, and J. A. Ingle, M.A.; J. L. Smith.

FOURTH YEAR.—First Class, F. W. Kellett, M.A., J. H. Moulton, M.A. Welsh Examination, J. Humphreys. Second Class, R. Philipson. Third Class, J. T. W. Stafford; J. F. Holdsworth, and P. H. Taylor (bracketed equal); R. Browell, and J. Whitehead (bracketed equal); J. Goudie, J. E. Crawshaw.

Two Ex-Students were examined according to the directions contained in the Minutes of 1889, p. 190, § 14. Because of the diversity of subjects, it is impossible to classify these with the other examinees, or to compare them with one another. Both of these, S. W. Stocker and G. E. Young (B), obtained an average which in the ordinary examination would have entitled them to a place in Third Class Honours.

2. (1) The Examination of Preachers on Trial shall be conducted by a Connexional Board of Examiners, to consist of one Examiner in each subject contained in the course of reading prescribed for the four years of probation.

(2) In addition to the Probationers' Examination Committee, two General Examination Secretaries shall be appointed.

(3) Arrangements shall be made at each Financial District Meeting for a Central Examination of Preachers on Trial in each District, or more than one if necessary; at which Central Examination or Examinations the Probationers in that District shall attend. In the event of any Preacher on Trial being unable to pay the necessary travelling expenses, those expenses shall be defrayed, together with other expenses of the Examination, from the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund, and from the Theological Institution Fund, in such proportions as the Committees of those Funds may decide.

(4) At each Financial District Meeting a District Probationers' Examination Secretary shall be appointed, or more than one, so as to provide a Secretary to take charge of each Central Examination in the District; and each District Secretary shall be held responsible for the efficient conduct of the Central Examination. Full and clear instructions as to the course to be pursued are to be forwarded to the District Secretaries by the General Secretaries.

(5) The Examination shall be held in the Spring, on days to be fixed from year to year; and shall take place throughout the Connexion on the same days.

(6) The Examination-Papers, prepared under the direction of the Committee, shall be sent by the General Secretaries to each District Examination Secretary, whose duty it shall be to distribute them at the Central Examination, and by the earliest post transmit to the General Secretaries the Papers written by the several Probationers at those Examinations.

(7) The Probationers' Papers shall be forwarded by the General Secretaries to the Examiners for valuation, and each Examiner shall send to them the results of his valuation of the Papers shown by numbers, together with any remarks upon them which he may think desirable. In the case of the North and South Wales Districts, such variations from the foregoing arrangements are permitted as the Examination Secretaries may find necessary.

(8) The General Secretaries shall compile from the returns of the Examiners a complete Report upon the examination of each Probationer, and forward it to the District Examination Secretary, to be presented by him to the May District Meeting, together with such remarks on the Examination of the Preachers on Trial in the District as he may think desirable. The numbers obtained by each Preacher on Trial in the several subjects of Examination shall be entered on the District Minutes. The Resolutions of the District Meetings on the Examination of Preachers on Trial shall be forwarded to the General Secretaries by the District Examination Secretaries.

(9) The Conference directs the General Examination Secretaries to send to each District Committee—in May—having one or more Candidates for Ordination, a Report showing the result of the examination of every such Candidate during each year of his probation.

(10) The General Secretaries shall prepare and present to the Conference a General Report upon the Examination of the Preachers on Trial.

3. The following Ministers are appointed the Probationers' Examination Committee for the ensuing year; viz.,—the PRESIDENT of the Conference, the SECRETARY, the EX-PRESIDENT, the Tutors of the four Branches of the Theological Institution, the two General Examination Secretaries, the REV. DR. GREEVES, DR. GREGORY, GEORGE W. OLVER, B.A., DR. OSBORN, and DR. RIGG. The REV. G. ARMSTRONG BENNETTS, B.A., is appointed the Secretary of this Committee.

4. The REV. G. ARMSTRONG BENNETTS, B.A., is re-appointed, and the Rev. JAMES HOPE MOULTON, M.A., is appointed, General Examination Secretaries.

(b) 1 and 2 Peter, and Jude, in English.
vi. (a) Isaiah xl.—xliv., in Hebrew; or (b) Isaiah xl.—lvii., in English.

7. The Conference requires every Probationer who is acquainted with Greek and Hebrew to take the Greek and Hebrew subjects which are specified in the list of subjects for his year. Every Probationer who has been a student in the Theological Institution shall be examined in these Greek and Hebrew subjects, unless the Tutors under whom he studied, having taken into consideration his attainments on leaving the Institution, are of opinion that these examinations cannot reasonably be required in his case.

8. The Conference requires every Probationer of the second, third and fourth years respectively to be examined in four subjects; but it expects such Probationers to be examined, as a rule, in five subjects. Probationers of the first year shall be examined in four subjects. In all cases in which the full number of subjects is not taken, special attention shall be called to the fact in the report presented to the District Meeting.

9. Every Probationer of the second, third and fourth years respectively shall be examined in the subjects marked iv., v., and vi., in the list of subjects for his year. Every Probationer of the first year shall be examined in the subjects marked iii., iv., and v., in the list of subjects for his year.

10. Whenever a Probationer obtains less than one-third of the full number of marks for a paper on any portion of Scripture, either in the original language or in English, he shall be re-examined in the same subject, and the results of both examinations shall be specially reported to the Conference. In the examinations on the Hebrew Bible and Greek Testament, questions on points of grammar shall form an essential part of every paper set.

11. In the case of Probationers of the fourth year, the second examination referred to in the last paragraph shall, if possible, take place early in May, in order that the District Meeting may be made acquainted with the result. In other cases the second examination shall, as a rule, be held in the latter part of June.

12. Every Probationer shall, not later than the end of October, 1890, inform the Rev. G. Armstrong Bennetts, B.A., what subjects he will present for Examination.

13. Every Probationer, whether appointed to a Circuit or on the List of Reserve, shall be examined in the subjects of his year.

14. If any student be removed from the Theological Institution for Circuit-work later than Christmas-day in any year, he shall not be expected to take the subjects prescribed for the examination of Probationers; but provision shall be made for his being examined, not later than June, in five subjects arranged by his Tutors and the General Examination Secretaries, in accordance with the course of study which he pursued before leaving the Institution. In every instance three of the subjects presented for examination shall be Books (or portions of Books) of Scripture. The result of this Examination shall be reported to the Conference, and shall be included in the special report required in the case of all candidates for Ordination.

15. The days of Examination for the ensuing year shall be Wednesday and Thursday, April 8th and 9th, 1891.

16. Should any Probationer be prevented by illness, or otherwise, from attending the Annual Examination, the General Secretaries shall, in concert with the Chairman of the District in which he is stationed, make suitable provision for his examination.

17. The Conference sees no sufficient reason for the exemption of those brethren who have formerly been Ministers in other Churches from the usual course of reading and examination prescribed by the Conference for Preachers on Trial, and directs that they be required to observe such regulations.

18. The following Ministers are appointed the Board of Examiners for the ensuing year; viz.,—the Rev. John Baker (B), M.A., Frank Ballard, M.A., B.Sc., John S. Banks, Thomas Hardy Banks, B.A., Joseph Agar Beet, R. Wallis Boyns, William Bradfield, B.A., Edward Brentnall, B.A., Arminius Burgess, T. Theophilus Davison, M.A., William Done, Charles O.

Eldridge, B.A., George G. Findlay, B.A., Alfred S. Geden, M.A., Richard Green, J. Robinson Gregory, T. Galland Hartley, Henry G. Highfield, B.A., John Hutcheon, M.A., W. Rodwell Jones, Frederick W. Kellett, M.A., J. Scott Lidgett, M.A., Edward Lightwood, Thomas F. Lockyer, B.A., Frederic W. Macdonald, Henry H. M'Cullagh, B.A., Joseph T. L. Maggs, B.A., R. Waddy Moss, James Hope Moulton, M.A., MacDonald Munro, M.A., Charles D. Newman, Dr. Nicholson, George Oyston, B.A., Valentine W. Pearson, B.A., Marshall Randles, G. Stringer Rowe, Francis B. Sandbach, Arthur E. Sharpley B.A., John S. Simon, William F. Slater, M.A., William Spiers, M.A., John G. Tasker, John Telford, B.A., Alfred H. Vine, Thomas Wilde, Frederick Luke Wiseman, B.A., T. Lawry Withington, and the General Examination Secretaries.

19. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Board of Examiners for their services during the past year; and also to the Rev. Dr. Moulton and G. Armstrong Bennetts, B.A., for their services as General Examination Secretaries.

EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY.

Q. XVII. What are the Directions of the Conference respecting the EXAMINATION OF CANDIDATES FOR THE MINISTRY?

A. 1. (1) No Candidate for the Ministry shall be received who does not possess a fair acquaintance with English Grammar, Orthography, Arithmetic, Geography and History.

(2) A preliminary Examination by papers, which shall be prepared each year by the Tutors of the several Branches of the Theological Institution in turn, shall be conducted by a Sub-Committee before the session of the District Committee, who shall value the answers of the Candidates; the report of their valuation to be sent to the District Committee concerned. This Sub-Committee shall be appointed by the Conference. The answers shall be written in the presence of the Superintendents of the Circuits by which the Candidates are recommended, or of one or more other Ministers.

The Sub-Committee for this year shall consist of the Rev. G. Armstrong Bennetts, B.A., Joseph T. L. Maggs, B.A., John G. Tasker, and John Telford, B.A.

(3) In order to secure, as far as practicable, uniformity of valuation, figures showing the number of marks obtainable by a complete answer shall be placed at the end of each question, and no Candidate shall be considered to have passed a satisfactory examination who does not gain one-fourth of the maximum number of marks allotted to the whole of the papers. No Candidate shall be excused from the preliminary examination on the ground that he has passed it in a former year.

(4) No Candidate who has failed to obtain the minimum number of marks in the preliminary Examination shall undergo the usual Examination by the District Committee unless, in the judgment of the Committee, he possesses such special gifts as to justify an exceptional procedure.

2. The Special Examination of Candidates for the Ministry, who have passed the District Committees, shall be conducted by a Committee in two Sections, having charge of Examinations to be held simultaneously at Richmond and Didsbury, respectively.

(i.) The two Sections of this Committee shall be constituted as follows:—

(1) THE SOUTHERN SECTION, to meet at Richmond, shall consist of the PRESIDENT and the SECRETARY of the Conference; the Ex-Presidents resident in London; two of the Secretaries of the Missionary Society; the Tutors and Governors of the Richmond and Birmingham Branches; the General Treasurer of the Theological Institution; the Local Secretary of the Richmond Branch; one of the Secretaries of the Home-Mission Committee; one of the General Secretaries of the Examination Committee; the Rev. Robert Culley, together with twelve other Ministers of the three London Districts, four of whom shall be elected by the District Committee of each of the said Districts in May.

(2) THE NORTHERN SECTION, to meet at Didsbury, shall consist of the EX-PRESIDENT of the Conference; the Ex-Presidents living in the Manchester and adjoining Districts; two of the Secretaries of the Missionary Society; the Tutors and Governors of the Didsbury and Headingley Branches; the Local Secretary of the Didsbury Branch; one of the Secretaries of the Home-Mission Committee; one of the General Secretaries of the Examination Committee; the Rev. Simpson Johnson, together with twenty-one Ministers of the Liverpool, Manchester, and Bolton Districts, seven of whom shall be elected by the District Committee of each of the said Districts in May.

N.B.—The Biblical and Theological Tutors of the Theological Institution shall have the conduct of the Oral Examination of Candidates before the Committee.

(ii.) Two Sub-Committees, to read and report on the manuscript sermons of the Candidates, shall be annually appointed as follows:—one for the Southern Section, consisting of six Ministers, two of whom shall be chosen by the District Committee of each of the three London Districts, from among the Ministers elected by it as members of the Examination Committee; and another for the Northern Section, consisting of six Ministers, two of whom shall be chosen by the District Committees of the Liverpool, Manchester, and Bolton Districts respectively, from among the Ministers elected by them as members of the Examination Committee.

N.B.—Three different Trial Sermons are required from each Candidate, viz.,—two preached, and one sent in manuscript.

(iii.) The Literary Paper for the Examination shall be prepared, in succession, by the Tutors in Biblical Literature and in Classics of each of the four Branches of the Theological Institution; and the Theological Paper for the Examination shall be prepared, in succession, by the Theological Tutors of the said four Branches.

(iv.) The Tutors in Biblical Literature and in Classics of the Richmond and Birmingham Branches shall be the Literary Examiners for the Southern Section of the Committee; and the Tutors in Biblical Literature and in Classics of the Didsbury and Headingley Branches shall be the Literary Examiners for the Northern Section of the Committee.

(v.) The Examiners of the Papers in Theology, written by the Candidates, shall be appointed as follows:—the First and Second London, the Liverpool, and the Manchester Districts shall each appoint one Examiner from among the Ministers elected by it as Members of the Examination Committee; thus providing two Examiners for each of its two Sections.

(vi.) In each Section of the Committee two Medical Examiners shall be employed, one of whom shall be a specialist on residence in a tropical climate.

(vii.) The Rev. William J. Tweddle, General Secretary of the Theological Institution, and the Rev. Peter Thompson are appointed General Secretaries of the Examination Committee. All communications relating to Candidates, and the Reports on their sermons heard after the District Committees, must be addressed to the Rev. Peter Thompson, 242, Cable Street, London, E. The Ministers appointed to report on these sermons are requested not to fix marks of value.

(viii.) The Local Secretary of the Richmond Branch of the Theological Institution, and the Rev. Robert Culley, are appointed to act as Examination Secretaries for the Southern Section; and the Local Secretary for the Didsbury Branch, and the Rev. Simpson Johnson, to act as Examination Secretaries for the Northern Section.

3. When Candidates for the Ministry are recommended by the North or South Wales District Committee, the General Secretaries of the Examination Committee shall summon a Welsh Minister to attend the Northern or Southern Section of the Committee, who shall be a member of that Committee.

4. CANDIDATES FROM IRELAND FOR FOREIGN MISSION WORK. (Minutes, 1886, pp. 203-4.)

That future two Ministers, instead of one, shall hear and report upon the sermon preached by each Candidate between the District Meeting and the July Examination.

6. The names of the Candidates who come before the Candidates' Examination Committee shall be presented to the Conference in three sections: (i.) those who are unanimously recommended; (ii.) those upon whom a divided vote was taken, with the result of the voting; (iii.) those who are unanimously declined.

7. The cordial thanks of the Conference are presented to the REV. BENJAMIN GREGORY, D.D., for the great ability and diligence with which he has fulfilled the duties of Editor during the past year.

8. The cordial thanks of the Conference are presented to the REV. CHARLES H. KELLY for his valued and diligent services as Book-Steward during the past year.

9. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the REV. WILLIAM J. TWEDDLE, the Secretary of the Book Committee; and to the Rev. John Telford, B.A., the Secretary of the Methodist Tract Committee, for their services during the year.

Q. XXII. What Resolutions provisionally adopted by the last Conference in its Pastoral Session, and sent to the District Meetings for consideration, are now confirmed?

A. 1. Order of Pastoral and Representative Sessions of the Conference. Also the Order and Form of Conference Business. (See Minutes, 1889, pp. 291—301.)

2. The re-appointment of a Minister to a Circuit after an absence of three years. (See Minutes, 1889, p. 304.) The Conference adopts the Resolution, provided that the invitation of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting is substantially unanimous.

Q. XXIII. What Resolutions of the Conference are to be submitted to the several Districts in Great Britain, at their Annual Meeting, when Ministers only are present?

A. None.

MISCELLANEOUS RESOLUTIONS.

1. The respectful and hearty thanks of the Conference are due and are hereby presented to its late President, the Rev. Charles H. Kelly, for his dignified, untiring and able discharge of the duties of his office, both during the Sessions of the last Conference, and throughout the year.

2. The best thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. David James Waller for his valuable services as Secretary of the Conference during the past year.

3. The respectful thanks of the Conference are presented to the Ex-President, the Rev. Charles H. Kelly, for his very able and helpful sermon preached at Old Market-street Chapel, Bristol, on Sunday morning, July 27th.

4. The respectful thanks of the Conference are presented to the Ex-President, the Rev. Charles H. Kelly, for his forceful, manly and eminently practical Charge delivered to the newly-ordained Ministers at Wesley Chapel, Bristol, on Thursday, July 31st; and he is requested to publish it.

5. The cordial thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. David James Waller for his efficient services as Representative to the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, of the United States, in the spring of 1890.

6. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. Francis W. Greeves, the Convener of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions, and he is re-appointed.

N.B.—1. The Convener is instructed to divide the District Suggestions into two lists, according to their subjects: (1) For the Pastoral Session, and (2) for the Representative Session, of the Conference; and submit the lists to the President before they are entered in the Agenda.

2. The Secretary of the Conference shall furnish the Convener with a list of all matters referred for consideration to the several Departmental Committees; and the Convener shall obtain the several decisions of the said Committees thereupon, and present them to the following Conference.

The Rev. Anthony Ward. — In permitting the Rev. Anthony Ward to become a Supernumerary, the Conference records its high appreciation of his character, and of the valuable services which he has rendered to the Church as a Minister in full Circuit work for the long term of forty-eight years. During the greater part of this time Mr. Ward has laboured in some of the principal Circuits of the Connexion; and for some years he was Chairman of the Leeds District. His preaching has been characterized by great earnestness and fidelity to the truth; and as an administrator he has displayed firmness, sound judgment and great kindness. In his intercourse with his brethren, his unvarying courtesy and sympathy have won their highest esteem. The Conference hopes that in his retirement he will have strength still to engage in the work in which so large a part of his life has been spent.

THE REV. JOHN MARTIN (A).—The Conference, in consenting to the retirement of the Rev. John Martin (A) after a ministry of forty-seven years, places on record its high appreciation of his personal character and service. As a Missionary in Western Africa he laboured for some years with considerable success. Upon his return home his pulpit ministrations were highly valued, and the most important Circuits sought for the benefit of his ministry. He was specially selected by the Conference to represent Methodism in Edinburgh and Oxford, where he also fulfilled the duties of Chairman of the District with marked ability. With an evangelical, intelligent and winsome ministry, which won the hearts both of young and old, he combined the charm of a beautiful and blameless life. As a Preacher and Pastor he was alike valued, and for the past forty-two years his ministry has been limited only by the three years' term. The Conference prays that he may be spared for many years to serve the Cause of Christ by his richly evangelical and edifying pastorate; and that the eventide of life may be enriched with heavenly blessing.

THE REV. WILLIAM HIRST (A).—The Conference has had this year reluctantly to consent to the retirement of an exceptionally large number of honoured brethren from the ranks of the active Ministry; and it regrets to find that the Rev. William Hirst (A) feels it necessary to request to become a Supernumerary. In granting his request, the Conference gratefully remembers how for the space of forty-three years he has served Methodism, both as a Circuit Minister and the Chairman of important Districts. Mr. Hirst has rendered valuable service, not only by his pulpit ministrations, but also by his high personal character, his genial and attractive social qualities, and the spiritual influence which attended his devoted efforts, as a minister of the New Testament, to spread the Kingdom of Jesus Christ. The Conference assures Mr. Hirst of the esteem and affection of his brethren; and it is their earnest prayer that, during a long eventide filled with light, he may be spared to minister the Word of Life, and to edify and comfort the Church of Christ.

The Rev. William J. Tweddle.—The Rev. William J. Tweddle having requested to become a Supernumerary, the Conference desires to place upon record its high appreciation of his personal character, and of the varied service he has rendered to Methodism throughout a prolonged ministry. Endowed with rare natural gifts, and master of a chaste and nervous style, his preaching, whilst enjoyed by all, has been specially valued by the more thoughtful and cultured of his hearers. His Circuits have been among the most influential in the Connexion. For many years Mr. Tweddle's services as Secretary of Connexional Committees: the Theological Institution Committee, the Book Committee, and the Committee for the Examination of Candidates for the Ministry, have been invaluable. Happily these services will not be interrupted by his retirement from Circuit work. The Conference assures Mr. Tweddle of its affection, and of its prayer that for many years he may still go in and out among his brethren in that Christian fellowship which his genial and happy disposition has done so much to strengthen.

The Rev. Francis J. Sharr.—In granting the request of the Rev. Francis J. Sharr to retire from the full work of the Ministry, the Conference places on record its appreciation of his forty years of faithful service. As a preacher of exceptional ability he has rendered service of a very high order; whilst his manliness and brotherly kindness have won the hearts of all who knew him. Mr. Sharr has taken but little part in Connexional affairs, but Circuit interests have always commanded his attention and sympathy. The Conference knows how to value, not only his pulpit gifts, but also his judicious administration, combined with unfailing loyalty to Methodism. The love and confidence of his brethren will follow him into his comparative retirement. They are glad, however, to believe that Methodism may still have for many years the advantage of his pulpit services and pastoral habits.

THE MISSIONARY CONTROVERSY.—The Conference in its Pastoral Session, having considered the Report of the Sub-Committee on Indian Missions, together with the evidence on which it is based, desires, in the first place, to record its profound satisfaction that the confidence which it has ever placed in its Indian Missionaries, and to which it gave renewed expression at the Conference of 1889, has been more than vindicated by the recent enquiry. The Conference deeply regrets that such faithful servants of Christ and of the Church should have been exposed in newspaper articles, for which the Rev. Hugh Price Hughes, M.A., and Dr. Lunn were jointly responsible, to painful and humiliating charges, injurious alike to their personal character and to their usefulness as Missionaries; charges which, on investigation, proved to be wholly without foundation. While once again assuring its Missionaries in India of the strong affection and entire confidence with which they are regarded by their brethren at home, the Conference feels bound to express its grief and displeasure that imputations at once so grave and so undeserved should have been made with so little regard for the facts of the case, and for the reputation of men deservedly esteemed, the effect of which has been to inflict lamentable injury upon the Work of God.

In the case of Dr. Lunn, the Conference directs that his connection with the London West Central Mission shall at once entirely cease, and agrees to permit him to labour in London in connection with another Religious Organization.

Dr. Lunn shall be responsible to the Chairman of the Second London District in all matters that relate to his standing as a Wesleyan Minister.

OBITUARIES.—On the decease of any Minister of an affiliated Conference, who has a right of return to this country, an obituary shall be inserted in the Minutes of the Yearly Conference.

SOUTH AFRICAN CONFERENCE.—The Conference agrees to amend the Constitution of the South African Conference by the omission of the following words:—'The business to be transacted by the Ministers only shall be completed before that which belongs to the Ministers and Laymen conjointly is entered upon.' (Minutes, 1882, p. 217.)

MINISTERS WITHOUT PASTORAL CHARGE IN RELATION TO THE LEGAL CONFERENCE.—In the case of a Member of the Legal Conference having been entered on the Minutes as without Pastoral Charge, in conformity with the Resolutions of the Conference of 1888, the Conference resolves that at the expiration of four years from the commencement of such an arrangement, he shall cease to be a Member of the Legal Conference. The effect of this Resolution shall not be retrospective.

TEMPORARY SUPERNUMERARYSHIP AND THE LEGAL CONFERENCE.—In the case of a Member of the Legal Conference who has been a Supernumerary for one or more years, and who afterwards returns to the work, he shall, notwithstanding, remain a Member of the Legal Conference two years after becoming a Supernumerary permanently.

TRANSFERS BETWEEN THE FOREIGN AND HOME WORK.—

1. The Conference directs that a Committee be annually appointed, jointly by the Home Missionary, the Foreign Missionary, and the Theological Institution Committees—viz., five ministers by each—which shall sit prior to the Sessions of the Conference in each year, and report upon all cases of proposed transfer between the Foreign and the Home Work. The Junior Secretary of the Foreign Missionary Society is the Convener of the Committee.

2. This Committee is directed to enquire into and report upon all cases in which the Conference has determined that special reports upon Probationers shall be presented to the ensuing Conference.

3. The same Committee shall annually advise the Conference as to the number of Candidates required for the Ministry.

MINISTERS IN THE CHANNEL ISLANDS.—The Conference authorises the Chairman of the Channel Islands District to attend the French Conference, when necessary, to negotiate the exchanges between the French Conference and the French Circuits in the Channel Islands, on condition that the expenses be paid by those Circuits.

ORDER AND FORM OF BUSINESS OF DISTRICT COMMITTEES.—The Conference receives the Report of the Committee, and directs that the 'Order and Form,' as now revised, be issued from the Book-Room, and used in District Committees.

CITY-ROAD CHAPEL, LONDON.—The following are appointed Special Morning Preachers for City-Road Chapel on the Sundays of the ensuing Connexional year:—The Rev. WILLIAM F. MOULTON, D.D., President of the Conference; DAVID J WALLER, Secretary of the Conference; CHARLES H. KELLY, Ex-President; J. Ernest Clapham, Robert Culley, Dr. Dallinger, W. Theophilus Davison, M.A., Robert P. Downes, Charles Garrett, Dr. Greeves, Hugh Price Hughes, M.A., Dr. Jenkins, Frederic W. Macdonald, Dr. Rigg, Francis J. Sharr, William L. Watkinson; together with the Rev. Henry Douthwaite, Superintendent of the City-Road Circuit.

CONFERENCE MEMORIAL SERVICE.—The following Committee is appointed to consider whether a brief and impressive service may not be advantageously substituted for the reading of the Obituaries of Deceased Ministers in the Conference; and if so, to suggest the form of such a service:—The Rev. WILLIAM F. MOULTON, D.D., President of the Conference; DAVID J. WALLER, Secretary of the Conference; CHARLES H. KELLY, Ex-President; G. Armstrong Bennetts, B.A., Edward Dodds, Thomas M'Cullagh, Joseph Nettleton, William Nicholson, George W. Olver, B.A., Dr. Rigg, John V. B. Shrewsbury, Dr. Stephenson. The Secretary of the Conference is the Convener.

MINISTERS UNDER AFFILIATED CONFERENCES, AND NATIVE MINISTERS.—The following Committee is appointed to consider (1) The cases of Ministers employed under Affiliated Conferences who are, or who may regard themselves as being, related to the Yearly Conference; (2) The question of the relation of Native Ministers in our Foreign Missions to the Yearly Conference:—The Rev. WILLIAM F. MOULTON, D.D., President of the Conference; DAVID J. WALLER, Secretary of the Conference; Robert J. Andrew, William Arthur, M.A., John Bond, Nicholas Boyns, J. Ernest Clapham, Walford Green, Dr. Greeves, J. Richard Hargreaves, Dr. Jenkins, Joshua Mason, George W. Olver, B.A., Dr. Osborn, Marmaduke C. Osborn, Henry J. Pope, Joseph Posnett, Dr. Rigg, John S. Simon, J. Smith Spencer, Dr. Stephenson, John Walton, M.A., and Marshall Hartley, Convener.

CLASS-LEADERS' MANUAL.—The following are appointed a Committee to prepare a Manual of Instruction and Advice for Class-Leaders, and a Form of Service for the Public Recognition of New Members:—The Rev. WILLIAM F. MOULTON, D.D., President of the Conference; DAVID J. WALLER, Secretary of the Conference; CHARLES H. KELLY, Ex-President; George Bowden, William J. Brown, Joseph Bush, Nehemiah Curnock (B), W. Theophilus Davison, M.A., Dr. Greeves, Dr. Gregory, John Hartley, Marshall Hartley, Hugh Price Hughes, M.A., Featherstone Kellett, Joseph Posnett, John Rhodes (B), Dr. Rigg, John V. B. Shrewsbury, Dr. Stephenson, Anthony Ward, William L. Watkinson, Silvester Whitehead, and John S. Simon, Convener.

STATIONS.—In view of the many and obvious inconveniences attendant upon the present method of introducing and discussing the Stations in the Conference, the following Committee is appointed to consider the possibility of devising some plan less open to objection, and to report to the next Conference:—The Rev. WILLIAM F. MOULTON, D.D., President of the Conference; DAVID J. WALLER, Secretary of the Conference; Thomas Allen, Joseph Bush, J. Ernest Clapham, Walford Green, Dr. Greeves, David C. Ingram, John Samuel Jones, John Pope, Dr. Rigg, Dr. Stephenson, Dr. Young, and ll Hartley, Convener.

SECTION II.

THE REPRESENTATIVE SESSION.

COMMITTEE OF PRIVILEGES.

Q. XXIV. What are the COMMITTEES FOR GUARDING OUR PRIVILEGES during the ensuing year?

„ Arthur J. Hay, Lerwick.

The Rev. T. Tapley Short, M.A., and Mr. Robert W. Perks are re-appointed Secretaries to this Committee.

3. (i.) The Conference refers back to the Committee of Privileges the question of the introduction into Parliament of a Bill to relieve Nonconformists from the presence of the Registrar at Marriages celebrated in their places of worship, with instructions to reconsider the whole question, and to act accordingly.

(ii.) The Committee is further authorised to secure the introduction of a Bill to enable Nonconformists to secure sites for places of worship where such sites cannot be obtained otherwise than by the exercise of compulsory powers; and also to present petitions to Parliament in favour of any such measure, subject to such alterations and amendments in the Bill as the Committee may deem necessary.

(iii.) The Conference approves of the principle that all needful facilities should be given for the compulsory enfranchisement of chapels erected on leasehold sites; and again directs the Committee to give its attention to this subject in connection with any measure which may come before Parliament.

(iv.) The Committee is further directed to take the necessary steps to secure an alteration of the 'Burial Laws Amendment Act, 1880,' by which the length of the necessary notice of intention to bury may be reduced, if possible, to twelve hours.

(v.) The Conference authorises the Committee to take steps to secure such an amendment in the law, or in the administration thereof, as shall secure, within reasonable limits, the uninterrupted right of preaching in public thoroughfares and open spaces.

(vi.) The Conference again directs the Committee to consider during the year the electoral disadvantages to which Wesleyan-Methodist Ministers are subject in consequence of the Itinerancy, and to take such legal action as may be advisable, in order to the removal of such disadvantages.

(vii.) The Conference further directs the Committee to confer with the representatives of the Nonconformist Churches in any matter coming within the province of the Committee, in which common action may be deemed advantageous.

(viii.) The Conference directs that a Memorial be sent to the Marquis of Salisbury respecting the Marriage Laws in Malta.

(ix.) The Conference protests against the action of Her Majesty's Government in sending a Diplomatic Representative to the Vatican.

v. The Treasurers of the District Auxiliaries.

N.B.—The Chairman of any District, who may be in London at the time of holding any Meeting of the General Committee, shall be entitled to attend and to vote with the Committee.

4. INDIAN MISSION AFFAIRS.—(1) The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee on the Special Inquiry into Indian Mission Affairs, as follows:—

(a) The Committee adopts the unanimous findings and judgment of the Sub-Committee of Investigation, which findings and judgment are, to use the language of the Sub-Committee—a 'complete exoneration of the Indian Missionaries of our Society from all charges made or suggested against their character or the character of their work, whether in respect of their mode of living or of their relations with the native populations, Christian and otherwise.'

(b) The Committee receives and reserves for its special consideration at the earliest opportunity, the important and valuable suggestions at the close of the Report bearing upon the Financial policy of the Committee in the future; suggestions, it is satisfactory to find, that are in close harmony with the Resolutions on the same subject which were adopted by the last Conference, on the recommendation of this Committee, but which the necessity for carrying out the investigation, now completed, has prevented the Committee from embodying during the year in detailed plans and instructions as to financial arrangements in India.

(c) The warmest thanks of the Committee are due and hereby presented to the members of the Sub-Committee, especially to its Lay-members, who, at the request of the President of the Conference, have served upon the Sub-Committee, for the invaluable service which, at the cost of so much labour and care to themselves, they have rendered to the Committee, and the Society, and the Cause of Christ at home and abroad.

(d) The Committee expresses its great satisfaction that its Missionaries in India have been thus completely exonerated, and records its profound regret that charges so grave and so unsustained should ever have been brought against them.

(2) The Conference directs the Missionary Committee to consider during the year the several suggestions of the Special Committee, and also to prepare, in harmony with the minute of the last Conference (Minutes, 1889, pp. 213-215), a statement of facts, figures, and suggestions dealing with the evangelistic and educational policy of the Society, the employment of Native Agents, vernacular preaching, allowances to Missionaries, and the results of the Society's work, in India; and to report to the next Conference.

5. THE MISSIONARY SECRETARIAT.—In view of the present financial position of the Missionary Society, the Conference resolves that from the Conference of 1891 there shall be only three Secretaries.

THE FUND FOR THE MAINTENANCE AND EDUCATION OF MINISTERS' CHILDREN.

Q. XXVI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference respecting the affairs of the FUND FOR THE MAINTENANCE AND EDUCATION OF MINISTERS' CHILDREN?

MAINTENANCE.

A. 1. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the District Treasurers of the Children's Fund for their valuable services during the year; and also to the REV. G. STRINGER ROWE and MR. WILLIAM MEWBURN, the General Treasurers, and to the REV. JAMES D. TETLEY, the General Secretary.

2. The REV. G. STRINGER ROWE and MR. WILLIAM MEWBURN are re-appointed the General Treasurers, and the REV. JAMES D. TETLEY the General Secretary, for the ensuing year.

3. Remittances are to be sent to the REV. G. STRINGER ROWE, Wesleyan College, Headingley, Leeds. Other communications respecting the Fund are to be addressed to the REV. JAMES D. TETLEY, 8, Malvern Street, Newcastle-on-Tyne.

4. The following Statement shows the amounts to be raised in each District for the general purposes of the Fund :—

„ J. Fishwick Stead.

6. Mr. J. Hartley Blackburn, F.C.A. (Messrs. H. W. and J. Blackburn, Bradford, Yorks.), is re-appointed Honorary Auditor of Kingswood School Accounts.

7. The Conference directs that the October Meetings of the Governing Bodies and of the General Committee be held in Manchester on Thursday and Friday the 23rd and 24th days of the month, that the January and July Meetings be held in London, and that the April Meetings be held in Bath.

8. The Conference, having received the report of the General Committee, resolves:—

(1) That the Ministerial Subscriptions and Circuit Assessments be continued, and that the payment by Ministers in Circuit work, having children at the schools, of £2 for each child at school, shall be, as heretofore, in addition to the subscription of one guinea.

(2) That Ministers received into Full Connexion with the Conference, yet not provided with houses, shall, in the matter of the annual subscription, be treated as Preachers on Trial, subscribing half-a-guinea per annum to the Fund.

(3) That that part of the Common Fund which is for Education shall be made self-adjusting upon the lines already adopted in respect of Maintenance; the charge in this respect upon each Circuit calling out an additional Minister being £2 per annum during the period of probation, and £4 per annum afterwards; making a total assessment in such cases of £11 and £22 respectively.

(4) That, as it appears that the expenditure of the Education Section of the Fund will exceed its present income during the period 1888—1894 by about £10,000 in the gross, the Conference directs the continuance of the increase of half-a-guinea each in the subscriptions of Ministers and Preachers on Trial, which was assessed in 1888. The total of these increased subscriptions in any District may be allotted among the Ministers of that District in other than equal proportions by the District Meeting when composed of Ministers only.

9. ADMISSION TO THE SCHOOLS.

(1) On the Foundation. The number of boys for whom provision is made is two hundred and fifty.

(2) On Payment. In addition to the 250 admitted on the Foundation, fifty boys are received annually on payment. In the case of boys who have neither received Education allowance nor been at the School, the charge is £25. Parents whose boys are thus received will be entitled, for that year, to the usual allowances from the Maintenance Fund, and twelve pounds for Education.

Extra Years. The Rule as to extra years shall be construed in harmony with Clause twenty-one of the Scheme of Management of the Kingswood School, and with Clause nineteen of the Scheme of Management of the Queenswood and Trinity Hall Schools. In every case where an extra year, at the end, is granted to any boy or girl, the sum of £30 shall be paid. Parents whose children are granted an extra year are entitled to the six guineas from the Maintenance Fund, and, unless they have already received for six years, the twelve pounds for Education.

Special Resolution on Extra Years. In the case of boys who come very near to winning Scholarships, an extra year shall be granted on the payment of £25, if the parents desire it, subject to the recommendation of the Governor and Headmaster. This Regulation shall be made retrospective, so as to secure the return after Midsummer of boys specially reported to the Governing Body.

10. APPLICATION FOR ADMISSION. Not later than the 1st of October, the name and age of every applicant for admission must be sent, in the case of boys, to the REV. WILLIAM

PERKINS, 4, Wetherell Place, Clifton, Bristol; and, in the case of girls, to the REV. RALPH M. SPOOR, 59, Upper Brook Street, Manchester. The boys must be not less than ten, and girls not less than twelve, years of age on the 1st of January next following.

11. EXAMINATIONS FOR ENTRANCE.

I. BOYS.

Standard IV. Candidates ten years of age. Reading—A few lines of poetry to be read intelligently. Writing from Dictation—A short passage from an easy Reading-Book. Arithmetic—The First Four Rules, Simple and Compound (Money only). Grammar—The Parts of Speech. Parsing a simple sentence. Geography—Outlines of Geography of England and Wales. History—Elementary knowledge of the main facts of English History. Scripture—Main facts of Scripture History, as contained in Appendix to Catechism, Part I.

Standard V. Candidates eleven years of age. Reading—Intelligent reading of a more difficult passage. Dictation—Short passages from an easy author. Arithmetic—The First Four Rules, Simple and Compound (Money and Weights and Measures) and Practice. Grammar—Elementary work. Parsing simple sentences. Geography—Outlines of Geography of Great Britain and the Colonies. History—Outlines of History of England. Scripture—Main facts of Scripture History.

Standard VI. Candidates twelve years of age. Reading and Dictation—As above for Standard V., but more advanced. Arithmetic—As Standard V., with Elementary Vulgar Fractions. Grammar—Analysis and Parsing of simple sentences. Geography—Outlines of Geography of Europe (including British Isles). History—Outlines of History of England. Scripture—Main facts of Scripture History.

II. For Girls.

The Examination shall be according to the minimum standard appointed in the year 1877 (Minutes, 1877, p. 171), viz:—

'Reading—The candidate must be able to read, with intelligence, a few lines of poetry, selected by the Examiner. Writing (Small Hand)—Eight lines to be slowly dictated from a reading book. This will be also a test of spelling. Arithmetic—The Four Simple Rules, and the four Compound Rules (Money and Weights and Measures). Geography—Outlines of the Geography of Europe in general, particularly of England. English Grammar—To Parse simple sentences correctly and readily. History—To have a fair knowledge of Bible History, and of the History of England. The candidate must give evidence of skill in Plain Needlework.

The Conference further directs that the above standard be printed in the Minutes of this year, with the following addition, from the Scheme of Management (Minutes, 1886, p. 382, par. 20): 'The examination shall be graduated according to the age of the girl, or other circumstances, at the discretion of the Governing Body.'

12. Notice of Removal from School.—The Conference directs that, in order to avoid any unnecessary disturbance of arrangements made for the teaching and general management of the Schools, and in order to give the Governing Bodies sufficient time to make an equitable selection of candidates for any vacancies which may occur during the year, parents having children at the Schools shall be required to give three months' notice before the removal of such child or children. In the event of parents neglecting to give such notice, the officers of the Fund for the Maintenance and Education of Ministers' Children are authorised to withhold three months' allowances which would otherwise be payable for each such child or children.

The Conference further directs that should a boy or girl, to whom an extra year has been granted, be withdrawn without the required three months' notice, the parent or guardian shall pay one-fourth of the sum charged for the extra year in lieu of such notice.

13. WOODHOUSE-GROVE SCHOOL, LIMITED.—The Conference directs that the fee charged to Ministers for sons, who are claimants on the Fund, and who are admitted on the Foundation, shall be, for the year 1890-91, £21.

The Conference directs that notice be given to the Directors of the Woodhouse-Grove School, Limited, that in all probability they will not be required, in subsequent years, to reserve places for the sons of Wesleyan Ministers nominated by the General Committee of the Fund for the Maintenance and Education of Ministers' Children. This notice shall not affect existing arrangements in respect of boys nominated by the General Committee, who are already in the School, or who shall enter in the present year.

14. EDUCATIONAL ALLOWANCES FOR CHILDREN NOT AT THE SCHOOLS.—The regulation (Minutes, 1889, p. 220, par. 13) is revised as follows:—

Payments are made at the Conference for the past year; and in every case in which the Educational Allowance has been received by the parent, the claim upon the Education Section of the Fund shall be understood to have been met and satisfied for that year.

Parents may begin to claim for their children when they are nine, ten, eleven or twelve years of age, on the preceding Christmas-day; but the first claim for a child who is twelve years of age on or before any Christmas-day must be made at the following Conference at the latest; and having once begun to claim, they shall receive their payments annually.

In the case of a child who is a candidate for admission to one of the Schools, who has passed the entrance examination, and has been elected to enter, but for whom there is not room on the next following re-opening, the regulation requiring the taking up of the Annual Allowance shall not apply for that year.

N.B.—The date of the close of the Schools' Year having been changed from June to December, the Conference remits the question as to what sum shall be paid in settlement of claims for the year 1890-1 to the General Committee, with power to act.

15. The application and enforcement of the rule respecting the clothing of the sons of necessitous Supernumeraries or Widows at Kingswood School is left to the discretion of the General Committee. (Minutes, 1882, p. 240.)

16. CIRCUIT SCHEDULES.—Not later than the 1st of March, each Superintendent shall send to the REV. R. WALLIS BOYNS, Southfield Road, Cotham, Bristol, a particular account of all claims for Educational Allowances in his Circuit; specifying distinctly the names of the children for whose education the claims are made, together with the date, year, and place of their birth, and the exact number of years during which the allowance has been received.

17. NEW DENOMINATION OF THE FUND.—The Conference directs that the Fund be called, hereafter, the Fund for the Maintenance and Education of Ministers' Children.

18. ALTERATION OF THE BEGINNING OF THE SCHOOL YEAR AT ALL THE SCHOOLS.—The Conference directs that the School Year at all the Schools shall hereafter begin in January, instead of, as heretofore, in July.

19. ALTERATION IN THE TERM OF A BOY'S RESIDENCE, WITHOUT PAYMENT, AT KINGSWOOD SCHOOL.—The Conference hereby agrees to rescind the Resolution adopted in 1881 (see Minutes, 1881, p. 224, par. 3), and to adopt in the place thereof the following:—

The Conference directs that the ordinary term of a boy's residence at the school, without payment, shall be five years, but that it shall be extended to a sixth year, in the case of any boy, who, to the satisfaction of the Governing Body, shall, for this purpose, be recommended by the Governor and Head-Master, and that any boy so remaining for a sixth year, shall, at the end thereof, be eligible for any of the School scholarships; and the Conference further directs that in the case of any boy so remaining for a sixth year, for whom the full Educational Allowances have, under the arrangements at present in force, been received, the parent or guardian shall repay one year's Educational Allowance to the Treasurers of the Fund for the Maintenance and Education of Ministers' Children, and this repayment shall be deemed to be due at the Conference immediately following the beginning of the sixth year.

20. STRUCTURAL ALTERATIONS AND ADDITIONS TO THE PREMISES AT KINGSWOOD SCHOOL.—The Conference hereby approves the purpose of the General Committee 'to make certain much-needed improvements in the lighting and ventilating of some of the class-rooms of Kingswood School, and to erect a gymnasium and other buildings;' and places at its disposal the legacies of Mrs. Sarah Brackenbury and Mr. John Farnworth, for the purpose of defraying the costs of such structural alterations and additions as the General Committee shall sanction.

21. TRANSFER OF WOODHOUSE-GROVE CHAPEL AND SUNDAY-SCHOOL TO TRUSTEES. — The Conference directs that the Trustees of the Woodhouse-Grove School Estate shall grant a lease of the Chapel and Sunday-School erected on the Estate to William Jessop and twenty-one others, being Trustees chosen by the Woodhouse-Grove Circuit, at the nominal rent of ten shillings per annum, for the term of ninety-nine years, determinable in certain events, and upon the conditions and trusts specified in the lease already prepared and approved by the Committee of the Schools Fund, and now submitted to the Conference, and identified by the signature of the President.

22. CLAIMS OF MINISTERS TRANSFERRING TO OTHER CONFERENCES UPON CONNEXIONAL FUNDS. — The Rev. William

Jeffries having applied for an allowance from the Schools and other Funds, in consideration of his transfer from the British Conference to one of the Australian Conferences, the Conference appoints the Officers of the several Connexional Funds concerned, a Committee, to which it refers the said application, with authority, in case it shall admit any claims, to settle them. And the Conference directs the Committee, in dealing with the above-named case, to determine the basis upon which other similar claims, arising hereafter, shall be settled.

23. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the Officers of the Schools Fund, the General Committee, the Governing Bodies, with their Treasurers and Secretaries, and to the Managing Committees, for the diligent and faithful discharge of the duties of their respective offices during the year; also to Mr. J. Hartley Blackburn, of Bradford, for his valuable services as Honorary Auditor of Kingswood School Accounts.

24. SPECIAL RESOLUTION:—THANKS TO THE REV. T. TAPLEY SHORT, M.A.—The Conference, in accepting the resignation by the Rev. T. Tapley Short, M.A., of the office of General Treasurer of the Schools Fund, places on record its high appreciation of the remarkable ability, geniality and faithfulness with which he has fulfilled the offices, formerly of General Secretary, and more recently of General Treasurer, for a period, in all, of twelve years. During this period several most important changes and developments have been wrought out in the general economy and financial management of the Schools Fund, the effectiveness of which is attributable in a pre-eminent degree to Mr. Short's superior business capacity and unfailing brotherly courtesy.

25. All Collections, Subscriptions, and Circuit Assessments on behalf of the Education Section of the Fund are to be sent to the REV. WALFORD GREEN, Centenary Hall, Bishopsgate Street Within, London, E.C.

26. All payments for children at the Schools, whether £25 for first year or £30 for extra year, are due in four equal instalments, one on each quarter day; and the money must be sent to the REV. WALFORD GREEN, Centenary Hall, Bishopsgate Street Within, London, E.C.

N.B.—The bye-laws and regulations governing the administration of the Fund have been codified and published by direction of the Conference (1886), and can be obtained at the Book-Room, London.

CHAPEL AFFAIRS.

Q. XXVII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference with regard to CHAPEL AFFAIRS?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Wesleyan Chapel Committee.

2. The Conference authorises the President, during the year, to affix his signature to any consent to the sale of Trust Property which may be certified to him as approved by the Chapel Committee.

3. Irregular Chapel Cases. The Report was presented, and received by the Conference.

The Conference directs the Chapel Committee to send the particulars of all these cases to the several District Meetings; so that enquiry may be made from time to time, until it shall appear that the conditions of erection or enlargement have been complied with. The Conference further directs the Chapel Committee to call the special attention of the District Meetings to those cases in which the proportion of debt is excessively heavy, or the proceedings wholly irregular, that the judgment of the District Committees in these cases may be communicated to the Trustees through the Superintendents.

4. Vesting of Trust Property.

The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Special Committee on the vesting of Trust Property.

The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Chapel Committee respecting the passing of the 'Trustees Appointment Act,' and directs the Committee to take such steps as it may think necessary to acquaint Wesleyan-Methodist Trustees generally with the nature and bearing of the provisions of the Act; and to assist Trustees by such advice and help as the Committee may think desirable to secure the largest possible benefits from the new legislation.

The respectful and hearty thanks of the Conference are presented to the Right Hon. Lord Herschell for the valuable services he has rendered in conducting through the House of Lords the 'Trustees Appointment Bill,' which will greatly facilitate the appointment of new Trustees for Wesleyan-Methodist and other Nonconformist places of worship, and diminish the expenses incident to such appointments, and will tend very largely to the efficient working of religious agencies in the country.

The cordial thanks of the Conference are presented to the Right Hon. Henry H. Fowler, M.P., for undertaking to bring in a Bill for facilitating the appointment of new Trustees of Wesleyan-Methodist Trust Properties, for the acceptance by him of the suggestions made by the Chapel Committee as to the form of the Bill, and for the very able and successful manner in which he has secured the passing of the Bill through both Houses of Parliament. The Conference has received with satisfaction the assurance of the Chapel Committee that the new legislation will result in great benefit to our Trusts throughout the country.

5. Mr. William Tunstill, of Nelson, and Mr. John Cooper, of Manchester, are re-appointed Treasurers of the General Chapel Fund.

RELIEF AND EXTENSION FUND FOR METHODISM IN SCOTLAND.

1. The Conference receives and approves the Report of the Committee.

2. In accordance with a resolution adopted by the General Committee of the Relief and Extension Fund for Methodism in Scotland, approved by the District Committee of the Edinburgh and Aberdeen District, the Conference hereby directs and appoints:—

(1) That at 31st December, 1890, the sum of £99 15s. 2d. of interest accruing during the current year from invested capital, shall be carried to the capital of the Loan Fund, thereby making up the capital of that Fund to the sum of two thousand pounds.

(2) That the remainder of the interest of invested capital for the current year shall be carried to Grants' Account.

(3) That until otherwise determined the interest accruing, year by year, from invested capital after 31st December, 1890, shall be applied yearly in free grants either for Relief or Extension.

3. The Conference directs that Annual Collections on behalf of the Fund be made in all the Chapels in the Edinburgh and Aberdeen District on the Lord's Day, and recommends that the Annual Income be further augmented by Donations and Subscriptions; and also resolves that in the May District Meeting of the Edinburgh and Aberdeen District the interests of this Fund shall be considered when the Connexional Funds are under review.

4. The General Treasurers and Secretaries of the Fund shall be appointed by the Committee at their Meeting to be held in connection with the Financial District Meeting of the Edinburgh and Aberdeen District.

METROPOLITAN CHAPEL BUILDING FUND.

1. The Conference adopts the Report of the Committee, and directs that an Abstract of it be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix VII.)

2. The Conference, recognising the great benefits the Fund has conferred on Metropolitan Methodism, and the Cause of Christ generally, calls on all Metropolitan Methodists, and especially on the Trustees and all others interested in the eighty-one Chapels already erected with the aid of this Fund, stain it to the utmost of their power, that sufficient means may be provided for the further development of Methodism in this immense and ever-growing Metropolis. It trusts also that the Methodists of the Provinces will heartily aid their London brethren in this movement.

3. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the General Treasurers, Mr. SAMUEL D. WADDY, Q.C., M.P., and Mr. ALEXANDER M'ARTHUR, M.P., and to the other Officers of the Fund, for their services during the past year.

4. The following are the Officers for the ensuing year, viz.: Mr. SAMUEL D. WADDY, Q.C., M.P., Mr. ALEXANDER M'ARTHUR, M.P., Treasurers; Rev. JOHN BOND, General Secretary; Mr. CLARENCE SMITH, Rev. WILLIAM D. WALTERS, Rev. JOSEPH OLPHERT, and Rev. CHARLES E. WANSBROUGH, Assistant Secretaries.

The Committee shall consist of:—

(1) The Ex-officio Members, viz.:—the Rev. WILLIAM F. MOULTON, D.D., President of the Conference; Rev. DAVID J. WALLER, Secretary of the Conference; the Treasurer, Secretary, and Assistant Secretaries; the Secretary of the Chapel Committee; and the Secretaries of the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund.

(2) The elected Members:—i. By the Conference; fifteen Laymen of the London Districts, who are Annual Subscribers, and such a number of Ministers as will equalize the number of Laymen and Ministers, amongst whom shall be included the Chairmen of the three London Districts, viz., the Rev. Dr. Moulton, President of the Conference; the Rev. Dr. Rigg, and the Rev. Walford Green; together with:—

Rev. Richard W. Allen,

„ Edward Rugg,

ii. By the London District Committees; four Ministers and four Laymen in each District, at its September District Meeting.

HOME-MISSION AND CONTINGENT FUND.

Q. XXVIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference in reference to the HOME-MISSION AND CONTINGENT FUND, and other HOME-MISSION AFFAIRS?

A. 1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee, and of the Army and Navy Sub-Committee; and directs that the Returns from the Army and Navy and Reserve Forces be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix II.)

LAY AGENCY.

2. (1.) The Conference re-appoints the Special Committee to consider in detail plans for the training of Local Preachers, the provision of suitable literature at small cost, the organization of Mission Bands, and the securing of additional preaching-places, especially in connection with the Circuits of the large towns.

The following is the Committee:—The PRESIDENT and the SECRETARY of the Conference, the REV. THOMAS ALLEN, GEORGE BOWDEN, THOMAS CHAMPNESS, CHARLES GARRETT, DR. GREEVES, JOSEPH POSNETT, JOHN WALTON, M.A.; Messrs. MOSES ATKINSON, THOMAS H. BAINBRIDGE, JOHN BEAUCHAMP, J. WESLEY LEWIS, JOHN H. MASON, W. OLIVER QUIBELL; together with three Ministers and three Laymen, to be nominated by the Committees of the Home-Mission Fund and the Wesleyan Missionary Society; and the REV. J. ERNEST CLAPHAM, Convener.

(2.) The Conference directs the Home-Mission Committee to appoint a Sub-Committee at its first meeting after Conference in each year, to have the oversight of any Lay Mission work under its direction; and that this Sub-Committee advise with the Rev. Thomas Champness with reference to the work now more fully undertaken by him in the provision and training of Lay Agents.

Methodist Councils in Large Towns.

3. The Conference rejoices that in various large towns, in which there are more Circuits than one, Committees consisting of Ministers and Laymen, representative of the several Circuits, have already been formed for the purpose of united action in such Evangelistic and aggressive work as can best be carried out by a union of the forces of several Circuits. The Conference believes this especially to be the case with reference to those old Chapels the congregations of which, owing to changed conditions, have greatly declined.

The Conference believes that good may result from the experiment, already tried in several places, of holding social gatherings, at which the ministers and people belonging to different Circuits in the same town may meet each other.

The Conference does not direct the formation of such representative Committees as those alluded to above, nor does it formulate any rules for their constitution or guidance. The Conference believes that the conditions prevailing in the various towns are so different, that more good will result if such Committees, and the movements represented by them, are the outgrowth of local sympathy and earnestness, and take shape according to the particular circumstances of each case.

The Conference commends the consideration of this subject to the attention of Quarterly Meetings and Monthly Ministers' Meetings.

Pledges to Provide for Married Ministers.

4. The Home-Mission Committee having reported that sixteen Circuits were under pledge to provide for married Ministers at the Conference of 1890, and that the following was the result; the Conference directed that the Report be printed in the Minutes:—

St. Leonard's furnished a house at the end of three years.

Birmingham (Aston Park), Willenhall, York (Wesley), and Sunderland (Fawcett Street), fulfil the pledge; and also Bournemouth, on condition of help during two years.

Wolverhampton (Darlington Street), Preston (Lune Street), and Scarborough, offer each £40 for the year to the Home-Mission Fund, as part compensation for non-fulfilment, and Birmingham (Wesley) satisfies the claims of a Minister who is entitled to a house.

Hampton Court now requests that the Minister be withdrawn.

Gravesend promises to provide a house at the Conference of 1891.

There remain four Circuits—Whitstable, Maidstone, Torquay (Union Street), and Tamworth and Lichfield—which postpone the matter indefinitely. To these Circuits, and to some others whose pledges are of earlier date, the Committee has directed letters to be written, claiming compensation.

BEDFORD AND NORTHAMPTON AND KENT DISTRICTS.

5. The Conference appoints the following Special Committees to consider and advise upon the re-arrangement of Circuit Boundaries and Grants in the Bedford and Northampton and Kent Districts:—

For the Bedford and Northampton District:—

The Chairman, the Home-Mission Secretaries, Rev. W. Hargreaves Cooper, James Cuthbertson, Joseph Hammond, George W. Olver, B.A., and John M. Wamsley; with Messrs. Alfred Clare, James Daniel, Thomas Hine, Frederick Howard, and James C. Sheppard. Rev. James E. Clapham, Convener.

For the Kent District:

The Chairman, the Home-Mission Secretaries, Rev. Walford

Green, William Mellor, and Henry Soper; with Messrs. Thomas M. Attwater, Thomas G. Cozens, John Holden, and George R. Killick. Rev. James E. Clapham, Convener.

The Superintendent and a Circuit Steward of each Circuit concerned shall be invited to attend these Special Committees.

The Mercantile Marine.

6. The Conference receives the following Report:—(1) That the spiritual needs of Sailors and Fishermen are not fully provided for by the existing agencies; and (2) that the Constitution of the London Seamen's Mission should be altered and enlarged, and the work strengthened and developed so as to make it the nucleus of a Connexional Mission to Sailors and Fishermen at home and abroad.

The Committee recommends:—(1) That the title of the London Seamen's Mission be altered to 'Wesleyan-Methodist Mission to the Mercantile Marine.' (2) That the Committee of Management shall be a Sub-Committee of the Foreign and Home-Mission Committees, having the same relation to such Committees as the Army and Navy Sub-Committee, but with separate financial arrangements as at present. (3) That the Mission shall minister to the social and spiritual wants of Sailors and Fishermen, (a) by the employment of Ministerial and Lay Agents; (b) by the formation of Local Committees wherever practicable; (c) by the appointment of Corresponding Secretaries in Ports at home and abroad; (d) by Religious Services on board Ships and floating Bethels, as well as in Chapels or Rooms set apart for Sailors and Fishermen; (e) by keeping a Register of Seamen who have been recognised as members of the Wesleyan-Methodist Society, with a view of employing them in active religious work at sea and in port; and (f) by such other means as may hereafter be adopted.

The Conference directs that, inasmuch as the Report of the Committee has not yet been considered by the Foreign and Home-Mission Committees, it be remitted to these Committees for consideration during the year. The Conference reappoints the Committee to consider any recommendations and suggestions these Committees may make, and to report to the next Conference.

The following is the Committee:—Rev. Richard W. Allen, John Bond, J. Ernest Clapham, Charles Garrett, John W. Greeves, William W. Grigg, James E. Hargreaves, Dr. Rigg, Enoch Salt, T. Tapley Short, M.A.; Messrs. Henry Avis, George P. Bazeley, John Cory, T. Morgan Harvey, Thomas B. Holmes, Edward Hutchinson, William Kilner, George Lidgett, B.A., Digby F. Shillington, George J. Smith, Lewis Williams; and Rev. Peter Thompson, Convener.

Lieut.-Col. George J. Smith, „ William Thomson.

The REV. MARMADUKE C. OSBORN and the REV. J. ERNEST CLAPHAM are the Secretaries; and the REV. RICHARD W. ALLEN is the Assistant-Secretary.

2. The Conference directs that the name and functions of the Army and Navy Sub-Committee shall be considered during the year by the Committees of the Wesleyan Missionary Society and of the Home-Mission Fund.

3. The Conference resolves (1) That it is not expedient to seek for Commissions for our Ministers serving with the Army.

(2) That the Ministers appointed to the London, Aldershot, Woolwich, Portsmouth (Pembroke Road), Devonport, Chatham, Gosport, and all Garrisons or Naval Stations with a minimum strength of Declared Wesleyans of 250, shall be definitely set apart to the Army and Navy Work, and that their relation to the Circuit in which their work lies shall be regulated in accordance with the Standing Order of the Conference on the subject, viz., 27 (5), p. 318, Min. Conf., 1889:—

'Ministers who are appointed to Army and Navy Work are not to be considered as Ministers of the Circuit where they may be stationed, so as to be claimed for Circuit work, unless special arrangements be made in any case with the Army and Navy Sub-Committee. After their proper work has been efficiently done, they may give such help to the Circuit as they may be enabled to do, but only on arrangement in writing between the Superintendent of the Circuit and the Army and Navy Sub-Committee. Their personal conduct is to be under the cognisance of the Superintendent of the Circuit and the District Meeting, with the before-mentioned conditions.'

(3) That Ministers appointed to these Stations shall be sustained directly by the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund Committee (except where special arrangements already exist and are working satisfactorily), which shall receive all capitation and other official payments made in their behalf, except such amounts as may be determined for seat-rents.

(4) That in order to secure a succession in our Naval and Military appointments of Ministers experienced in our Army and Navy work, wherever Ministers are in part sustained by the Home-Mission Committee, their invitation shall be arranged by the Army and Navy Sub-Committee, acting for the Home-Mission Committee, in consultation with the Circuits.

(5) That the Ministers appointed to officiate for Wesleyans in the Army and Royal Navy shall be so designated on the Circuit Plans.

(6) That all stated appointments made for the Army and Navy work—such as Hospital and Prison Visitation, and Religious Instruction for the Young—shall appear on the Circuit Plans.

(7) That at the October Leaders' Meeting of the Society connected with the Chapel in which the soldiers and seamen worship, the work in the Army and Navy shall be specially considered; and the meeting shall appoint one of its members, or some other suitable person, to assist the Army Minister in visiting the barracks, and generally in seeking to attract our Methodist soldiers and seamen to the services of their own Church, and in winning them to Christ.

(8) That at the Quarterly Meeting, when the Annual Army and Navy Returns are presented, the Work of God among our soldiers and seamen shall be statedly considered.

(9) That in all cases where the Capitation Payment, other than the amount paid for seat-rents, is assigned to the Circuit Funds, the Minister responsible for the Army and Navy work shall be proportionally relieved of other Circuit duties.

(10) That the Assistant Secretary of the Army and Navy Sub-Committee shall, by arrangement with the Superintendents of Circuits, visit the Naval and Military Stations in Great Britain for the purpose of holding meetings amongst our Wesleyan soldiers and seamen, and otherwise furthering the work in the Army and Royal Navy.

(11) That instead of, as now, 50 per cent. of the Army Capitation Grants being paid as seat-rents for our Wesleyan soldiers, the Trustees of our Chapels shall receive payment for the accommodation provided, as in the case of other seat-holders.

(12) ARMY WORK IN INDIA.—That the following recommendations of the special Committee appointed by the last Conference, on our Army Work in India, be remitted for the special consideration of the Foreign Missionary Committee:—

(i) That steps be taken to obtain (a) the definite recognition of our Church in the official publications of the Indian Government; (b) allowances for our Ministers officiating in the principal garrisons more in harmony with the duties they have to discharge, and such as are granted under similar circumstances to Ministers of other Churches; and (c) the general recognition of the principle that Local-preachers, whether voluntary or paid agents, can, under the superintendence of a Minister, discharge the pastoral duties and conduct the services of minor garrisons; and, in the case of paid agents, draw the Capitation Grants.

(ii) That as opportunity occurs Ministers be stationed at such principal garrisons as are not yet occupied.

(iii) That one Minister, residing as near as possible to the Military Headquarters of the Empire, be appointed the official representative of our Church with the Indian Government in all matters relating to our Army Work, and the correspondent with the Secretaries of the Army and Navy Sub-Committee at home, with a view to a more complete and profitable organization of the work generally.

(iv) ALDERSHOT.—The Conference appoints the following Committee to consider the relations between the civil and military departments of the work at Aldershot, and what arrangements should be made as to the finances of the Circuit and the invitations of Ministers, so as to meet the claims of the Army and Navy Sub-Committee, the Second London District Meeting, the Trustees of the Aldershot Wesleyan Military Property, and the Aldershot Quarterly Meeting; and to report to the next Conference:—

Rev. Josiah Banham,
„ John Bond,
„ James E. Clapham,
„ Dr. Greeves,
„ Charles H. Kelly,
„ John H. Loxley,
„ Joseph Olphert,
„ Dr. Rigg,
„ Ralph M. Spoor,
„ Dr. Stephenson,

Mr. Francis Darracott,
„ T. Morgan Harvey,
„ William Hedges,
„ W. Willmer Pocock,
„ H. Arthur Smith, M.A.,
Major John Smith,
Mr. Richard Sunnuck,
„ James E. Vanner,
„ Greaves Walker,

and Rev. Richard W. Allen, Convenor.

(v) PORTSMOUTH.—The Conference appoints the following Committee to visit Portsmouth during the year, and to inquire into all the circumstances of the case, and to suggest such a scheme as will, in its judgment, secure the efficient discharge of our duties to our soldiers and seamen in Portsmouth, the development of local Circuit resources, and the true interests of the Work of God, especially in Portsea, and the Gosport Circuit; and to report the same to the Quarterly Meetings and District Meetings concerned, and also to the Home-Mission Committee, and to the Conference, viz.:—

Rev. James E. Clapham,
„ George R. Graham,
„ John W. Greeves,
„ Jabez Ingram,
„ Charles H. Kelly,
„ John Rhodes (B),
„ David J. Waller,
Sir George Hayter Chubb,
Mr. John Holden,
„ W. Willmer Pocock,
Major John Smith,
Mr. William Vanner,
„ Ezra T. Wilks,
„ Peter F. Wood,

Rev. Richard W. Allen, Convenor.

N.B.—It is understood that the Superintendents and Circuit Stewards of the Circuits concerned shall be invited to attend the Meetings of the Committee.

6. The Conference directs the Army and Navy Sub-Committee (1) To take the necessary steps to obtain the distinctive recognition of the Wesleyan-Methodist Church in the Royal Navy, in order that Wesleyan Ministers may be appointed 'Officiating Ministers' with clearly defined duties, and that all necessary facilities for attendance at Divine Service may be secured for Wesleyan Seamen and Marines.

(2) To seek to secure the general application at home and abroad of the Regulation as to Capitation Payments in the Royal Navy, now in force in the principal Home Ports and in Marine Headquarters.

(3) To prepare a circular to be issued to the Superintendents of our Sunday-schools, and a card which may be placed in the lobbies of our Chapels, making known the facts that full religious liberty obtains in the Army and Royal Navy; and that all children admitted into the Duke of York's School in London, the Royal Hibernian Military Asylum at Dublin, the Royal Naval School at Greenwich, and the Royal Patriotic Fund School at Wandsworth, are entitled to the privileges of their own Church.

(4) To take the necessary steps, by communication with the proper authorities and otherwise, to secure greater accuracy in the religious attestation of recruits.

(5) To enquire as to the management and methods of wo x in Soldiers' and Sailors' Homes of proved success, to consider the question, and to report.

WORN-OUT MINISTERS' AND MINISTERS' WIDOWS' AUXILIARY FUND.

Q. XXIX. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the affairs of the AUXILIARY FUND?

A. 1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference, having received the Financial Statement of the Treasurers, is thankful to learn that by the aid of two special items, viz., £815 16*s.* 2*d.*, accrued interest on two legacies, and the balance of £433 14*s.* 4*d.*, brought to credit at the beginning of the year, the expenditure has been met by the income, and a balance of £84 9*s.* 1*d.* carried forward. The Conference, however, calls attention to the fact that, but for the two items specified above, there would have been a deficiency of £665 1*s.* 5*d.* on the year.

3. The Conference rejoices to hear that the large sum of £10,285 0*s.* 5*d.* has been received on account of Legacies; also £1,120 on account of the Special Fund, originated by the late Rev. John Rattenbury, and £1,000 as Donations on Annuity. These sums have been carried to the credit of the Investment Account. The Conference is also thankful to learn that the General Treasurers have received promises amounting to £9,000 towards the Special Effort, commenced during the last year, of which £2,989 5*s.* has been already paid; and commends this effort to the generous support of the Connexion.

4. The Conference, having regard to the great and growing increase in the number of claimants on the Fund, and to the increased amount required to meet the applications for aid in cases of severe affliction, is deeply convinced of the importance of maintaining the contributions in the Classes, re-affirms the necessity of this source of income; and gives explicit directions to the Ministers to bring the claims of the Fund before the Classes at the September Visitation.

5. The Conference, whilst anxious to secure separate and accurate returns of the amounts raised in the Classes, urges upon the Circuits the necessity of the average of sixpence per member being made up in each Circuit; and sanctions this being done in such a way as may be approved in the respective Circuits, provided that the Collections, usually made in July, be separately returned.

6. The Conference also directs the Superintendent Ministers to use every effort during the coming year to obtain in their respective Circuits additional annual Subscribers to the Fund.

7. The hearty thanks of the Conference are presented to those friends who during the past year have generously responded to the appeal of the General Treasurers; to those Executors who have paid sundry Legacies; to those Trustees who have contributed to the Fund from their Chapel Income; and to the District and Circuit Treasurers for their valuable services.

8. The Conference resolves that the scale of allowances to Ministers' Widows be, for this year, fourteen pounds, in addition to the ten shillings per annum for each year that the husband travelled.

9. The hearty thanks of the Conference are presented to the Rev. Walford Green and Mr. John Napier, for their careful and diligent services as Treasurers during the past year.

10. The Rev. Walford Green and Mr. John Napier are re-appointed Treasurers for the ensuing year.

11. The Committee of Management for the ensuing year shall consist of the Rev. William F. Moulton, D.D., President of the Conference; the Rev. David J. Waller, Secretary of the Conference; the Rev. Charles H. Kelly, Ex-President; the General Treasurers; and the following Ministers and Gentlemen:—

N.B.—For the Discipline Committees of the several Branches, of the Institution, see pp. 203, 204.

12. The Conference directs that the following Resolutions previously adopted, shall be reprinted:—

(1) The Conference resolves that, wherever it is practicable, two Collections shall be made annually in each Chapel throughout the Connexion on behalf of the Funds of the Theological Institution; and that these Collections shall be made, if possible, on some Sunday in December.

(2) The Conference directs the Superintendents of Circuits to remit all subscriptions and collections for the Theological Institution to the General Treasurers early in the year; and the Chairmen of Districts to ascertain, by enquiry at the May District Meeting, whether such payments have been made.

(3) The Conference affirms the principle, which has from the beginning been recognised in the administration of the Institution, in regard to charges on account of Students, that such Students as have the means, or whose friends have the means, shall be expected to contribute, in whole or in part, according to their ability, towards the cost of their own maintenance and education; and it directs the General Committee to consider and adopt such methods as may be deemed best for carrying this rule into effect.

(4) The Conference resolves that a minimum charge for maintenance shall be made, which every Student shall be expected to defray; it being, however, distinctly understood that the General Committee shall be empowered to remit the charge wherever, and in so far as, it may be found on enquiry that any Student is unable to pay. And further, that all who are able, either themselves or by their parents or friends, to add to the payment for maintenance, payment on account of education, should be urged to do so.

(5) The Conference directs that information be given to the General Treasurers of the Institution Fund of the resignation of any Preacher on Trial, or of any Minister who has not been ten years in the full work of the Ministry, in order that a list may be kept of those who have not discharged their obligations in respect of their College training.

EDUCATION.

Q. XXXI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of WESLEYAN EDUCATION?

A. 1. The Conference receives the Report of the proceedings of the Education Committee during the year, together with a Statistical Statement relating to Training Colleges, Day Schools, Sunday Schools, and the Connexional Sunday-School Union; and directs that an Abstract thereof be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix III.)

2. The thanks of the Conference are presented to the REV. WALFORD GREEN, to MR. FREDERICK HOWARD, and to MR. WILLIAM VANNER, for their services as Treasurers of the Education Fund.

5. Day-Schools.—The Conference directs that the following Resolutions, previously adopted, shall be reprinted:—

(1) The Conference empowers the Education Committee to make Grants, on inspection, to new Schools to which the provisions of the Minute of the Education Department, dated June 21st, 1878, apply, and for the probationary period during which, under the said Minute, such Schools cannot receive Grants in aid from the Department.

(2) The Conference expresses its opinion that, in view of the working of existing arrangements for Public Elementary Education, it is highly desirable that the number of Wesleyan Day Schools should at least be maintained. The Conference therefore strongly recommends that before any steps are taken towards the closing or transfer of any Wesleyan Day School, the proposal to close or transfer it be communicated to the Education Committee, in order that they may have an opportunity of suggesting alternative proposals for the consideration of Local Managers.

(3) The Conference directs that in all ordinary cases of Day Schools conducted on Wesleyan Trust premises, no such Schools shall be discontinued so long as there is a reasonable prospect of their being carried on without serious embarrassment. The same general principle shall apply to Wesleyan

Day Schools conducted in premises rented for the purpose under the management of a recognised Wesleyan School Committee. When, however, the discontinuance of a Day School is proposed, before such proposal is carried into effect, the Superintendent shall consult the Trustees, the Managing Committee, and the Subscribers; and if in any case there is a considerable division of opinion, the case shall be submitted to the Quarterly Meeting of the Circuit. In all cases, the general principle laid down by the Conference respecting the Transfer of Schools —viz., that the Superintendents of the Circuits, with the Managers and Trustees acting in concert, shall consult the Education Committee—shall be adhered to.

(4) The Conference declares that it shall not be deemed to be within the power and option of a Superintendent to prevent the establishment or continuance of a Wesleyan Day School, so long as responsible parties pledge themselves to bear all the financial cost and risk.

(5) (i.) In view of the interpretation which is put upon Section XXIII. of the Elementary Education Act by the Lords of the Committee of Council, to the effect that any transfer of a School, settled upon our School Model Deed No. I., to a School Board, for any term whatever, for the purposes of such School Board, must be sanctioned not only by the signatures of the Trustees, but by the Conference, testified by the President in writing, the Conference directs that in every case in which the transfer of such a School is proposed, the Superintendent, with the Managers and Trustees acting in concert, shall first consult the Education Committee on the subject, and that if, for reasons given, that Committee recommends such a transfer, the Rules of the Conference in relation to the sale of Trust Property shall be applicable thereto;—the Education Committee considering all questions affecting School management, and the Chapel Committee questions affecting Trust Property.

(ii.) In respect to Schools settled on the School Model Deed No. II., or on any other Deed in which the consent of the Conference is rendered necessary for the alienation of the property, the Conference recommends the Trustees to act upon the same principles as those laid down in the foregoing clause in relation to Schools settled on the School Model Deed No. I.

(iii.) In all cases of transfer which may hereafter occur, the Conference recommends that provision be made in the instrument of transfer to secure the resumption of the premises by the Trustees, without their being required to reimburse any money laid out upon them by the School Board solely for its own purposes.

6. The Conference further directs as follows:—

(i.) All who are contemplating the erection or alteration of premises for the establishment of new Schools, shall communicate with the Education Committee, for the purpose of receiving counsel as to their projected undertakings, and the adaptation of the premises to the system of instruction designed to be adopted.

(ii.) The Managers of every School shall require from the Teacher, at least once a year, a report as to the nature and extent of the Religious Instruction given in the School, in order that they may be satisfied that the truths of Scripture are regularly taught to the children.

(iii.) It is deemed desirable that the Managers shall arrange, in conjunction with the Teacher, for regular examinations of the School in Religious Knowledge; such examinations to be conducted, as to time and method, as circumstances may require.

(iv.) A General Report on the Religious Instruction given in the Day Schools, founded upon the Teachers' Reports from the several Schools, as well as upon the personal visitation of the Ministers, shall be submitted to the March Quarterly Meetings, when the Returns as to the Day and Sunday Schools of the Circuit are presented.

(v.) The October Examination of Pupil Teachers in Religious Knowledge shall be held on the last Saturday of that month. The March Examination will continue to be held on the first Saturday of that month.

7. SUNDAY SCHOOLS.—The third Sabbath in October in each year shall be observed as a day for Special Prayer on behalf of Sunday Schools and young people.

8. The Conference attaches the utmost importance to doctrinal teaching in Sunday Schools by means of Catechetical instruction, and directs that Ministers shall give special attention to this subject. Superintendents and Teachers are also urgently and affectionately recommended to do their utmost to promote the use of our own Catechisms in our Sunday Schools.

9. The Conference resolves that, while it may be well to provide a separate service for very young children, it is most undesirable that scholars of eight years of age and upwards should be kept from the services in the chapels.

10. DAY AND SUNDAY SCHOOLS.—The Statistics of the Day and Sunday Schools of each Circuit shall be read in the March Quarterly Meeting; but if sufficient time be not then available for the discussion of the Statistics, and for enquiry into the state of the Schools, such discussion and enquiry shall take place in the June Quarterly Meeting.

11. The Education Schedules, having been duly filled up and presented to the March Quarterly Meeting, shall be sent by the Superintendents to the District Education Secretary, not later than April 20th, in each year.

12. The District Sunday School Sub-Committees shall have charge also of the interests of the Day Schools in their respective Districts.

13. PROSPECTIVE PARLIAMENTARY LEGISLATION—APPOINTMENT OF A REPRESENTATIVE COMMITTEE.—In view of the fact that proposals seriously affecting Public Elementary Education may probably be brought before Parliament during the ensuing Connexional year, the Conference appoints a Representative Committee composed of the Education Committee, the ordinary Committee of Privileges, and one Minister and one Layman to be chosen by each District Meeting in September; and directs that if, in the judgment of the Education Committee, or the Committee of Privileges, or the President of the Conference, it be desirable that this Special Committee should meet, the President shall convene the Committee, which shall be empowered to take such action as may be deemed necessary.

MIDDLE-CLASS EDUCATION.

1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Committee, and expresses its thankfulness for the success of the movement for Middle-Class Education.

2. The Conference receives with pleasure the favourable reports of the Schools at Jersey, Truro, Bury St. Edmunds, Woodhouse-Grove, Trowbridge, Penzance, Camborne, Congleton, Canterbury, and Folkestone.

3. The Rev. W. Henry Thompson and the Rev. George Marris are appointed Directors of the Cornwall Wesleyan-Methodist School Association, Limited. The Rev. W. Henry Thompson, the Rev. John A. B. Harry, the Rev. W. Gluyas Pascoe, and the Rev. William Brooks are appointed Directors of the Cornwall Wesleyan-Methodist Girls' School Association, Limited. The Rev. Richard Jenkin and Mr. Percy W. Pocock are appointed Directors of the East Anglian Wesleyan-Methodist School Association, Limited. The Rev. Marshall Hartley and Mr. Samuel Wright are appointed Directors of the Woodhouse-Grove School, Limited. The Rev. William Wilson (D) and the Rev. Henry Lewis are appointed Directors of the Cheshire and North Staffordshire Wesleyan Middle-Class School Association, Limited. The Rev. George Bowden and Mr. William Hunt are appointed Directors of the Western Counties Wesleyan-Methodist School Association, Limited. The Rev. James Bransom, the Rev. Henry Parkes and Mr. John Beauchamp are appointed Directors of the Kent Wesleyan-Methodist School Association, Limited.

4. In view of the increasing demand for good intermediate Education, the Conference deems it highly expedient that further efforts should be made to establish Methodist Middle-Class Schools in different parts of the country, in order that the Connexion may take its due share in this important work.

5. The Committee is empowered to make appropriations by way of grant or loan, or otherwise, on account of the remainder of the sum of Ten Thousand Pounds, which was allotted from the Thanksgiving Fund in aid of Methodist Middle-Class Schools.

6. The Education Committee shall have charge of the Middle-Class Education. A Special Sub-Committee shall be appointed in the interests of Middle-Class Schools, which shall report to and through that Committee to the Conference.

THE CHILDREN'S HOME AND ORPHANAGE.

Q. XXXII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of the CHILDREN'S HOME AND ORPHANAGE?

A. 1. The Conference receives the Report of the Children's Home and Orphanage, and directs that an Abstract be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix IV.)

2. The Conference expresses its satisfaction that the benefits of the work of the Children's Home are becoming increasingly apparent year by year, inasmuch as the inmates trained in the Home have, with rare exceptions, become useful members of the community, and many of them are leading Christian lives and actively interesting themselves in the Cause of Christ, whilst some of them have attained to positions of usefulness and honour as Teachers of the young, and even as Ministers of the Gospel.

3. The Conference recognises with pleasure the co-operation in this work of Members of other Christian denominations, especially as illustrated by the erection of the 'Barlow Memorial Buildings,' this year completed, and by the addition of a House and proposed Hospital at the Princess Alice Orphanage. And inasmuch as children are received belonging to all Churches or to no Church, and from all parts of the country, it commends the interests of this work to the cordial and liberal support of Christians of all denominations, and to the public at large.

4. Messrs. JAMES E. VANNER and THOMAS BARTON HOLMES are re-appointed General Treasurers. Messrs. FRANCIS HORNER and T. MORGAN HARVEY are re-appointed Treasurers of the London Branch; Messrs JOHN R. RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCE OF THE LORD'S DAY.

Q. XXXIII. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on receiving the Report of the Committee for Promoting the RELIGIOUS OBSERVANCE OF THE LORD'S DAY ?

A. 1. The Conference adopts the Report, and re-affirms its conviction that the maintenance of the Sabbath as an institution of Divine appointment and authority is of vital importance to the interests of religion and morality; it deeply deplores that Sabbath desecration should prevail among all classes to so alarming an extent; and expresses the earnest hope that Ministers and people will exercise all possible vigilance and zeal in checking this great evil, and will endeavour in every way, both by faithful testimony and consistent example, to raise the standard of Sabbath observance in the Church and the nation.

2. The Conference renews its recommendation that on one day in the year attention shall be called in all our pulpits to the duty of sacredly observing the Sabbath Day.

TEMPERANCE.

Q. XXXVI. What are the Resolutions of the Conference on the subject of TEMPERANCE?

1. The Conference receives and adopts the Report of the Temperance Committee, and directs that an Abstract be printed in the Minutes. (See Appendix V.)

2. The Conference hears with great satisfaction of the continuous growth of Wesleyan-Methodist Bands of Hope, which now number 3,569 Bands, and 370,681 enrolled members.

3. The Conference is gratified to learn that the Adult Temperance Societies still show an increase in the number of Societies and Members, and commends this important branch of our work to the attention and care of our people.

4. The Conference again expresses its deep regret that no Bill has yet been passed extending to England the benefits arising from the Sunday Closing of Public-Houses, and urges our people to put forth strenuous efforts in order to secure this object.

5. The Conference recommends that, on the last Sunday in November in each year, special reference shall be made in all Wesleyan-Methodist places of worship, and in all our Sunday-Schools, to the appalling extent and dire results of Intemperance in Great Britain.

6. The Conference approves the suggestion of a large majority of the District Meetings that a Minister shall be set apart as General Temperance Secretary, and directs that this appointment shall be made at the Conference of 1891.

7. The Conference deeply deplores the wide-spread prevalence of betting and gambling, and is of opinion that the time has come when vigorous efforts should be made by the pulpit, the platform, the press, and the legislature in order to combat this growing evil.

8. Mr. THOMAS SEABER is re-appointed the Treasurer, and the Rev. G. ARMSTRONG BENNETTS, B.A., and WILLIAM E. CODLING are re-appointed Secretaries.

9. The Committee for the ensuing year shall consist of:—

Q. XXXVII. What Resolutions provisionally adopted by the last Conference in its Representative Session, and sent to the District Meetings for consideration, are now confirmed?

A. 1. Order of Pastoral and Representative Sessions of the Conference. And Order and Form of Conference Business. (Minutes, 1889, pp. 291-301.)

2. The re-appointment of a Minister to a Circuit after an absence of three years. (Minutes, 1889, p. 304.) The Conference adopts the Resolution, provided that the invitation of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting is substantially unanimous.

Q. XXXVIII. What Resolutions of the Conference are to be submitted to the several Districts in Great Britain, at their Annual Meeting, when Ministers and Laymen are present?

A. None.

MISCELLANEOUS RESOLUTIONS.

1. The Rev. John W. Greeves is appointed to ascertain, and to receive and forward to the respective Treasurers, the payments to be made in accordance with our Rules to the various Connexional Funds in the case of married men who are received as Ministers, or of Ministers received from other Conferences or Churches. (See Minutes, 1889, pp. 413-415.)

2. The Rev. Ralph M. Spoor is directed to prepare the volume of Agenda for the Conference of 1891, and to have it sent to the Lay Representatives as early as possible.

[N.B.—The Conference directs that the Order of Conference Procedure and Rules of Debate be printed in the volume of Agenda for 1891.]

3. Mr. John Wesley Lewis is re-appointed Convener of the Scrutineers of votes for the election of Lay Representatives by the Conference.

NOMINATION COMMITTEE.—1. The Nomination Committee shall consist of:—(a) The eighteen Lay Representatives elected by the Conference in the three preceding years: viz., the Right Hon. Henry H. Fowler, M.P., Sir George Hayter Chubb; Messrs. George P. Bazeley, Moses Atkinson, Lewis Williams, Skelton Cole; Messrs. Thomas Cole, Samuel Osborn, Henry B. Harrison, Thomas H. Bainbridge, Edward Hutchinson, John H. Mason; Messrs. William Hunt, Thomas F. C. May, W. Oliver Quibell, John Brewer, Joseph Beckett, and Obed Hosegood; (b) eighteen Ministers to be appointed by the Conference of 1891 in its Pastoral Sessions; and (c) two Secretaries, one Minister and one Layman.

2. Mr. William Vanner is re-appointed Lay Secretary of the Nomination Committee, and is directed, in conjunction with the Rev. Thomas Allen, the Ministerial Secretary, to prepare lists of the persons recommended by the Committee for service on the several Connexional Committees.

3. It shall be the duty of the Secretaries: (a) To convene the Meeting of the Nomination Committee, and to summon to it persons entitled to attend its Meeting; (b) to receive from the Committee of each Connexional Department a list of persons, ex-officio and otherwise, who are proposed for appointment upon it by the Conference; (c) to present the lists so received to the Nomination Committee; (d) to keep the record of the proceedings of the Committee; and (e) to report to the Conference on its behalf.

4 The Nomination Committee shall meet on the Saturday previous to the Meeting of the Representative Session of the Conference. At that Meeting the President of the Conference shall preside, or in his absence, some Ex-President, or other Minister whom he shall depute; and the Secretary, or some other deputed representative, of each Connexional Department shall attend to give such information as may be necessary.

5. The Nomination Committee shall consider the lists sent forward by the several Committees of Connexional Departments; it shall take care that the constitution of each Committee nominated is in accordance with the regulations of the Conference; it shall have power to amend the lists sent forward, as it may deem desirable, and to make any changes in reference to Ministers recommended for nomination which the action of the Ministerial Conference may have rendered necessary; but only in cases of necessity shall it make any change in reference to either the Ministerial or Lay nominees of a District Committee, and every such change shall be reported to the Conference.

6. The Conference directs that all Lists of Committees which are to be considered by the Nomination Committee shall be printed in the Conference Agenda, as far as possible; the names of new members being printed in italics, and those of members nominated for re-appointment by a four-fifths majority distinguished by an asterisk; care being taken to give the Christian name of each Layman.

7. Secretaries of Departments shall duly inform all new members, ministerial and lay, of their appointment upon Connexional Committees.

THE CUSTODY OF CONNEXIONAL DOCUMENTS.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee, and repeats the instructions contained in Standing Order, No. 38.

Perks, R. Pearson Price, Thomas Richardson, J. Thorp Taylor; and Rev. Marshall Hartley, Convener.

GUISBOROUGH CIRCUIT.—The following are appointed a Committee to advise with the Circuit authorities in regard to the suggested division of the Guisborough Circuit:—The Rev. Joseph Bush, J. Ernest Clapham, Henry J. Pope; with Messrs. Matthew Braithwaite and William D. Stephens; and the Chairman of the Whitby and Darlington District, Convener.

PONTYCYMMER.—The Conference directs the Cardiff and Swansea and the South Wales District Committees, at their September Meetings, each to elect five persons (including the Chairman in each case), who shall form a Sub-Committee, to meet, together with the Rev. Henry J. Pope, and determine whether the property at Pontycymmer shall be disposed of or retained; and, if it be resolved to retain it, to recommend as to the Circuit and District to which it shall belong.

BRISTOL AND BATH DISTRICTS.—The Conference directs the Financial District Committees of the Bristol and Bath Districts to appoint each a Sub-Committee of five persons (of whom the Chairman in each case shall be one), to meet together during the year to consider the question of the union of the two Districts, and allied questions, and to report to the May Meeting of each of the above District Committees.

METHODIST SETTLEMENT IN LONDON.—1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee.

2. The Conference approves the following Scheme of Management of the Settlement as prepared by the Provisional Committee:—

(1.) The general object of the Settlement shall be to provide a centre in London for Religious, Educational and Social work to be carried on by resident and non-resident workers.

N.B.—The site of the Settlement shall be in Bermondsey.

(2.) The Settlement shall be under the general management of a Committee annually appointed by the Conference.

(3.) The President of the Conference for the time being shall be ex-officio President of the Settlement.

(4.) The General Committee shall have power to appoint Vice-Presidents, who shall be members of some Evangelical Church, subject to the condition that one half of the number shall be members or adherents of our own Church. These gentlemen shall be furnished annually with reports of the work of the Settlement.

(5.) Care shall be taken to provide as far as possible for the representation on the General Committee of Colleges and Schools or other Bodies connected with the Settlement.

(6.) The General Committee shall have power to add to its Sub-Committees persons who are not Members of the Committee itself.

3. The Conference approves the Deed conveying the property to Trustees, and declaring the Trusts.

4. The following is the Committee:—

The Rev. WILLIAM F. MOULTON, D.D., President of the Conference; Rev. DAVID J. WALLER, Secretary; Rev. CHARLES H. KELLY, Ex-President;

Rev. John Bond,
„ George Bowden,
„ J. Ernest Clapham,

5. Mr. T. Morgan Harvey is re-appointed Treasurer, and the Rev. James Hope Moulton, M.A., Secretary.

LEASEHOLD CHAPELS.—The Conference directs that the enquiry ordered to be made in the three London District Committees as to Leasehold Chapels aided by the Metropolitan Chapel Building Fund, be made in all District Committees as to all Chapels or Leasehold property.

AFFAIRS IN TONGA.—The Conference receives with very great satisfaction information from the President of the Australasian General Wesleyan Conference, of the recent action taken by Her Majesty's High Commissioner in Tonga, by which the religious liberties and rights of the inhabitants of the Tonga Group have been vindicated and restored; and authorises the President of the Conference to express to the Government, on its behalf, its sense of the great and permanently valuable services to the highest interests of humanity which have been rendered by Her Majesty's Commissioner in this case.

SECTION III.

BUSINESS TRANSACTED PARTLY IN THE PASTORAL AND PARTLY IN THE REPRESENTATIVE SESSION.

THE 'ALLAN LIBRARY.'

1. The following Report of the Committee is adopted by the Conference:—

The Books of the Library are in good condition and careful custody. Valuable gifts of books have been presented during the year by Mr. Frederick G. Brown, Rev. John Hay, Mr. George H. Heath, B.A., Rev. Edward P. Lowry, Mr. Alexander M'Arthur, M.P., Mr. Robert A. Macfie, Mrs. Paul Orchard, and others; and these welcome contributions have been suitably acknowledged by the Committee.

The Library of the late Mr. W. Foster Newton, bequeathed by him to the Local-preachers of Methodism, has been handed over to the Committee, and the books are now in its charge.

The new buildings at the Conference Office, erected by the Trustees of the Book-Room, are now completed; and arrangements are in progress for the transfer of the Books to the commodious rooms provided for their reception, and for the efficient and systematic direction of the business of the Library.

During the Conference in Sheffield, a luncheon was given in the Cutlers' Hall by Mr. Samuel Osborn, and other gentlemen, with a view to the promotion of the interests of the Library, to which a large number of Ministers and Lay Gentlemen were invited. About eighty accepted the invitation; and, in response to the statement and appeal then made, the sum of £533 10*s.* was promised towards initial expenses in the way of furnishing, and the purchase of modern books, and £23 2*s.* as annual subscriptions.

The Trustees of the Fernley Residuary Trust Fund have made a grant to the Library of £250, viz., £200 for the purchase of modern books, to be inscribed the 'Gift of the Fernley Trustees,' and £50 towards the expense of furniture and fittings.

It is highly desirable that a large addition should be promptly made to the list of annual subscribers, in order that current expenses may be adequately provided for.

2. The Conference authorises the Committee of Management to take the necessary steps in order to obtain annual subscriptions to provide for the current expenses of the Library.

3. The following are appointed the Committee of Management:—The Rev. WILLIAM F. MOULTON, D.D., President of the Conference; Rev. DAVID J. WALLER, Secretary of the Conference; Rev. CHARLES H. KELLY, Ex-President; Rev. J. Agar Beet, Joseph Bush, J. Ernest Clapham, W. Theophilus Davison, M.A., Walford Green, Dr. Greeves, Dr. Gregory, Marshall Hartley, Hugh Price Hughes, M.A., Dr. Jenkins, George Kenyon, George W. Olver, B.A., Dr. Osborn, Marmaduke C. Osborn, Dr. Rigg, John Telford, B.A., William J. Tweddle, John Walton, M.A., Theophilus Woolmer, Dr. Young; Sir George Hayter Chubb, Messrs. Henry J. Atkinson, M.P., Moses Atkinson, John Beauchamp, S. Rathbone Edge, M.A., T. Morgan Harvey, John B. Ingle, James W. Jepps, John W. Laycock, John Wesley Lewis, George Lidgett, B.A., Thomas Lyle, M.A., Alexander M'Arthur, M.P., Robert W. Perks, Edward Riggall, J. Bamford Slack, B.A., George Stampe, and James E. Vanner, with power to add to their number.

4. The Rev. Charles H. Kelly is appointed the Treasurer, and the Rev. Marmaduke C. Osborn the Secretary.

5. The Rev. George Kenyon is appointed Honorary Librarian.

HOME RE-UNION

A Conference of Bishops of the Anglican Communion met at Lambeth Palace in July 1888. That Conference appointed a Committee to consider the question of Home Re-Union. The Report of that Committee laid down as a basis for Home Re-Union four Articles, referring to the Holy Scriptures, the Creeds, the Sacraments, and 'the Historic Episcopate.'

The Conference of Bishops adopted these Articles, and requested the constituted authorities of the various Branches of the Anglican Communion to 'make it known that they hold themselves in readiness to enter into brotherly conference with the representatives of other chief Christian Communions in the English-speaking races.'

In accordance with the wish so expressed, letters from the Archbishop of Canterbury on this subject were considered by the Conference, which ordered the following reply to be forwarded:—

My Lord Archbishop,—

Your letters on the subject of 'Home Re-Union' addressed to the Rev. Joseph Bush, who was President of the Wesleyan-Methodist Conference of 1888, have been laid before the Conference. I regret that, owing to some doubt as to your Grace's wish respecting the first letter, this answer has been delayed.

The Conference has received your letters with the respect due to your Grace, and to the venerable body of Bishops at whose instance this communication, with others similar to it, was sent forth. The Conference cordially joins with you in prayer for the unity of the Church of Christ, that thus may be fulfilled the prayer of the Blessed Saviour Himself: 'That they all may be one; as Thou, Father, art in Me, and I in Thee, that they also may be one in Us.'

It appears to the Conference that very much might be done by all the Christian Communions to promote that unity of spirit, without which corporal unity is impossible, and if possible, would be of little worth. By frankly acknowledging the Christian character of the members of the several Churches, by recognising cordially and practically the status and work of their Ministers, and by abstaining from everything in public teaching and in our more private ministries which would injure the influence or destroy the fruit of godly labour beyond our own Communions, we might approach much nearer to that State of heart and mind on which the Divine Head of the Holy Church universal would doubtless look with approval. In your Grace's efforts, and those of your Right Reverend Brethren to produce this happier state of feeling, the Conference would desire very heartily to co-operate; for it is the traditional policy of Methodism to be in its relation to other Christian Churches 'the friend of all, the enemy of none.'

The Conference, whilst deploring needless divisions, and still more a schismatical spirit, is of opinion that the true unity of the Church of Christ does not necessarily require the corporate union of the several Churches, or their acceptance of any form of polity and government.

And whilst fully recognising the spirit which animated the Committee on 'Home Re-Union' appointed by the Bishops, the Conference is of opinion that the Articles presented as a basis for possible Re-Union (especially the fourth, which relates to 'the Historic Episcopate') do not, in the absence of fuller information and more exact definition, provide a practical ground for the discussion of the subject.

I have the honour to be,
My Lord Archbishop,
Your Grace's faithful servant and brother in Christ,
WILLIAM F. MOULTON,
President of the Wesleyan-Methodist Conference.

BRISTOL, 7th August, 1890.

CENTENARY OF THE DEATH OF JOHN WESLEY.

1. The Conference recommends that suitable Memorial Services in commemoration of the death of our venerable Founder be held in City-Road Chapel, and in other Circuits where it may be deemed advisable.

2. In connection with this Centenary, the Conference authorises an appeal to Methodists throughout the world, for the purpose of renovating and improving the Chapel at City Road, and putting the graveyard and the monuments it contains into a becoming condition; with, possibly, some necessary expenditure upon Wesley's House.

3. This authority, however, is granted on the following conditions:—

(1) That a new Trust be formed for the City-Road property, the names of the Trustees to be approved by the First London Financial District Meeting.

(2) That the Centenary Memorial Fund be administered by a Committee, of which the Rev. WILLIAM F. MOULTON, D.D., President of the Conference, shall be Chairman. This Committee shall consist of the Rev. Henry Douthwaite, Superintendent of the City-Road Circuit; all the surviving Trustees who are willing to act; together with four gentlemen to be appointed by the City-Road Quarterly Meeting, the Chairmen of the Second and Third London Districts, the Rev. John Bond, Marshall Hartley, George Kenyon, Richard Roberts; Messrs. J. Calvert Coates, George W. Kilner, Thomas Lyle, M.A., George W. Munt, Robert W. Perks, James Taylor, William Vanner, J. Wesley Walker; the Rev. Charles H. Kelly, and Mr. T. Morgan Harvey, Treasurers; and the Rev. Dr. Stephenson, Frederick J. Murrell, and Thomas E. Westerdale, Secretaries.

N.B.—The Conference entrusts to this Committee the arrangements for the Memorial Services to be held at City-Road Chapel.

TERM OF MINISTERIAL APPOINTMENT TO A CIRCUIT.

The Conference resolves:—

1. That, inasmuch as there appears to be a growing feeling in the Connexion that some definite extension of the term of Ministerial residence in Circuits is desirable, while the Conference is convinced that the legal and other difficulties in the way of such a change are of a kind so serious as, having regard to the divided state of opinion in the Connexion on the subject, to be at present practically insuperable—a special Committee be appointed to obtain competent professional opinion, and to prepare a statement of information for the use of the Conference. The subject shall be discussed in both the Pastoral and Representative Sessions of the next Conference.

2. The following is the Committee:—The Rev. WILLIAM F. MOULTON, D.D., President of the Conference; DAVID J. WALLER, Secretary of the Conference; CHARLES H. KELLY, Ex-President; Thomas Cross, Dr. Greeves, John Samuel Jones, Oliver M'Cutcheon, Dr. M'Mullen, Dr. Osborn, Dr. Rigg, John S. Simon, Dr. Stephenson, Dr. Young; with Messrs. Thomas H. Bainbridge, John Broxap, Charles B. Davidson, J. Wilcox Edge, John Hardcastle, Isaac Hoyle, M.P., William Hunt, J. Wesley Lewis, William Middlebrook, Thomas G. Osborn, M.A., John I. Parkes, Robert W. Perks, W. Willmer Pocock, John R. Redman, and James S. Sutcliffe; and Rev. Henry J. Pope, Convener.

APPOINTMENT OF MINISTERS TO CIRCUITS IN THE SAME TOWN.

The Conference rescinds the Rule of 1830, which enacts 'that where there are two or more Circuits in the same city or town, no preacher shall be so stationed in them as to remain in such town or city for a period exceeding six years in succession.'

ŒCUMENICAL CONFERENCE.

1. The Conference receives the Report of the Committee, showing that all the Methodist Bodies in the United Kingdom, and all the Affiliated and Colonial Churches represented in the Eastern Section in 1881, have agreed to unite in the Conference in 1891; and a United Committee has been formed to promote the necessary arrangements. The Committee also reports that the various Bodies in the Western Section are arranging for the Conference. It further reports that the United Committee has recommended that each Section shall consist of two hundred representatives; and that of these forty-one ministers and forty-one laymen shall be allotted to Wesleyan-Methodism.

2. The following are elected Representatives:—

Regulations Concerning Supplies.

Minutes of Conference, 1812, 1857, 1876, 1879, 1885, 1887, 1888, 1889.

1. Any Minister needing a Supply is directed to communicate with the Chairman of the District before applying to the President; and the Chairman is also directed to satisfy himself, by personal enquiry, that an efficient local Supply cannot be obtained.

2. Any Minister on whose behalf a Supply has been appointed shall retain the Supply for one month after he has given notice to the President that his services will no longer be required,—unless the President has employment for him sooner. And such Minister when he gives notice to the President that, after a given date, the services of the Supply will be no longer required, shall at the same time notify the fact to the Chairman of the District.

3. The retiring President shall furnish to the Conference, on the second day of its Session, a list of all Ministers who have had Supplies during any part of the preceding year, with the date in each case on which the Supply was sent, and withdrawn. And on receiving this list, the Conference shall appoint a Committee to enquire whether these Ministers are physically competent to take a Circuit.

4. Except in special cases, the President's List of Reserve shall consist of men who have been trained in the Theological Institution.

5. Every Student who has completed his term of three years in the Theological Institution, and is duly certified by the Discipline Committee, shall be regarded as commencing his Probation at the Conference next ensuing.

If he receives an appointment at the Conference, or is called out by the President as a Supply before Christmas, he shall be entitled, after Ordination, to the usual allowances of an Ordained Minister.

But if not so appointed or called out, or if he shall be specially recommended to return to the Institution for a fourth year's course of study, he shall, in the year immediately following his Ordination, be entitled only to the allowances of an unmarried Minister. This resolution does not carry any disabilities with regard to other Funds than the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund.

Those Candidates for the Ministry who have taken a Degree in any one of the Universities of the United Kingdom, shall not, of necessity, spend the full term of three years in the Theological Institution; but, on the recommendation of the Staff of the Branch, the term of their residence may be shortened. And, in such case, their Probation shall also, on the above conditions, commence at the Conference next ensuing.

6. Every Preacher sent by the President as a Supply shall be paid at the rate of Thirty Guineas a year, for the time he is in the Circuit; this allowance being in addition to Board and Lodging.

In regard to Travelling Expenses, a Preacher sent to a Circuit as a Supply is dealt with on the same principle as one who is appointed by the Conference to his first Circuit. Once arrived in a Circuit as a Supply, he receives his travelling expenses from that Circuit to another when removed by the President during the year, or by the Conference at the end of the year.

7. In respect of payment, the year of a trained man on the President's List of Reserve appointed in connection with, or immediately after, the Conference, shall reckon from the first day of September to the last day of August.

8. Students who have not completed their term at the Institution, but are called out to meet special emergencies, shall, when their services are no longer required by the President, return to the Institution and complete their term.

9. Students who have completed their term at the Institution, and were not called out during their third year by the President, and have not received appointments at the Conference, shall, if no other course be open to them, return to the Institution, and there await the call of the President.

10. Students who have completed their term at the Institution, but were called out during the previous year by the President, yet have not received appointments at the Conference, are under the care and at the cost of the Home-Mission Committee.

11. Students who have completed their term at the Institution, and have been sent by the President as Supplies, shall, when their services are no longer required, be placed by the President under the direction of the Home-Mission Committee, which shall be responsible for their maintenance; the Committee shall, however, be entitled to a week's notice from the President before any such Student receives another appointment.

12. The employment of Students as Supplies, otherwise than by the President, during their vacation, shall continue as heretofore to be matter of private arrangement, in regard to which neither the President nor the Home-Mission Committee shall have responsibility; except in those special cases in which the Home-Mission Committee may grant Supplies, for short periods, to Chairmen of Districts.

PART II.

1. District Meetings, 1891.—The Annual Meetings of the several District Committees shall be held between the 10th and 17th of May, with the exception of those of the North Wales, South Wales, Lincoln, Isle of Man, Edinburgh and Aberdeen, and Zetland Districts.

2. Isle of Man District.—It shall be a part of the business of the Financial District Meeting of the Isle of Man District to call the attention of Superintendents, and other Ministers who may be responsible, to the Regulations as to the duty of making certain Quarterly Returns to the Registrar-General of the Island, according to the provisions of the 'Dissenters' Marriage Act Amendment Act, 1885,' of the Isle of Man.

3. Names and Addresses of Circuit Stewards.—The Superintendents of Circuits are required to furnish the Chairman of the District with the names and addresses of the Circuit Stewards immediately after the December Quarterly Meeting; and, immediately after the March Quarterly Meeting with the name and address of any Gentleman elected to attend the May District Meeting in the place of any Circuit Steward declaring his inability to attend such District Meeting.

4. Admission of Members.—Rule of 1797. It is not intended that the names of all those who are on trial should be laid before a Leaders' Meeting for distinct and formal discussion; but solely, that if there be, in the opinion of a Leader, any reasonable objection to the character and conduct of any person who is on trial, such objection may be stated by him; and that, if the validity of the objection be established to the satisfaction of the Meeting, a Member's Ticket shall not be given to such person at the Quarterly Visitation.

5. Trial of Members.—When a charge is brought against any Member resident in a place where no Leaders' Meeting is statedly held, the case shall be referred for investigation to the Leaders' Meeting of the principal Society in the Circuit Town. The Leader or Leaders, and the Society Stewards, of the Society of which the accused is a Member, shall be associated with the Leaders' Meeting for the purposes of the investigation.

If the accused person is a Trustee, then there shall also be associated with the Leaders' Meeting, as above constituted, the Trustees of the Chapel with which the Society of which he is a Member is connected; or, if there is no such Chapel, then the Trustees of the Chapel in connection with the principal Society in the Circuit Town. But no Trustee shall, in either case, be so associated, unless he is himself a Member of the Society in the same Circuit.

6. Attendance of Ministers at Official Meetings.—All the Ministers and Preachers on Trial appointed to a Circuit have a constitutional right to take part as members in our Leaders' Meetings, and in all other official meetings of the Circuits to which they are appointed.

7. Probationers and the Lord's Supper.—The Conference resolves that, in compliance with a former injunction on this subject, the Superintendents be required to make the necessary arrangements, in their Circuit-Plans, for securing to their junior Colleagues proper facilities for partaking of this Holy Sacrament.

8. Resolutions on Pastoral Work.—The Conference directs that the 'Resolutions,' as far as the words 'counted for a forest,' be read in the stead of the 'Liverpool Minutes' at each Annual District Meeting, and at the Ministers' Meeting of each Circuit in September. And the Chairmen of Districts are directed to make enquiry concerning the due observance of this regulation. (Minutes, 1885, pp. 356-366.)

The Conference further resolves that a copy of the 'Resolutions on Pastoral Work' be presented, under the direction of the Chairman of each District, to every Preacher on Trial on his first appointment to a Circuit. (Minutes, 1885, p. 183.)

9. Reading of the Pastoral Address.—The Superintendents are directed to appoint special Society Meetings, to be held at the principal Chapels in their Circuits, for the purpose of having the Pastoral Address read, and made the subject of suitable remarks and exhortations.

10. Recognition of New Members.—The public and formal Recognition of New Members of Society is in accordance with early Methodist usage. A public welcome given by the Society tends to encourage the New Members, whilst the formal recognition will deepen their sense of responsibility.

Such recognition might be associated with the administration of the Lord's Supper; or it might be found expedient to recognise New Members at a Society-meeting after the Quarterly Visitation of the Classes; or, in villages, a Recognition Service might take the place of a week-evening service.

The Conference, therefore, directs that, from time to time, meetings for the Recognition of New Members be held, as far as practicable, in every Circuit, subject to the discretion of the Superintendent as to the frequency and exact nature of such meetings.

11. Annual Return of Members.—The number of Members in the Society, and of persons admitted on trial, as taken at the March Quarterly Visitation in each year, and reported at the District Meetings, shall be the number returned on the Minutes of the following Conference. These Returns of Members in the Society are to be forwarded, immediately after the May District Meetings, to the Rev. John W. Greeves, Wesleyan Centenary Hall, Bishopsgate Street Within, London, E.C.

12. Sunday-School Official Meetings.—The Superintendent Minister of the Circuit shall preside at the Annual Meeting (of the Committee and Subscribers); and also at all Meetings of the Committee, and at all Meetings of the Teachers. If at any one of the said Meetings the Superintendent Minister be not present, one of the other Ministers of the Circuit shall preside. If either at an Annual Meeting, or at a Meeting of the Committee, no Minister is present, the Meeting shall appoint one of the Officers of the Institution to act as Chairman. If at any Teachers' Meeting no Minister is present, one of the Superintendents of the School shall preside.

13. Sunday-School Statistics.—With a view of securing more correct returns from Sunday Schools, it is an instruction to the Secretary or Secretaries of each School that, wherever practicable, the Schedule of Returns be submitted to the Local Committee before such Returns are presented to the Circuit Quarterly Meeting.

14. Catechetical Instruction in Sunday-Schools.—The Conference attaches the utmost importance to doctrinal teaching in Sunday-Schools by means of catechetical instruction, and directs that Ministers shall give special attention to this subject. Superintendents and teachers are also urgently and affectionately recommended to do their utmost to promote the use of our Catechisms.

15. Examination of Pupil-Teachers.—The Conference directs that the Annual Examination of Pupil-Teachers in Religious Knowledge shall be held on the last Saturday in October and on the first Saturday in March; that the questions shall be prepared by the General Committee; that the Examination shall be held, either in the several Circuits by the Superintendent Ministers or their Colleagues, or at suitable places for Central District Examinations, as may be determined by the September District Meetings, and agreed to by the respective School Committees; and that the written answers shall be forwarded to the General Secretary, and shall be valued by a Central Board of Examiners to be elected by the General Committee.

The Conference further recommends that, in connection with Central Examinations, Meetings of Teachers and Pupil-Teachers be held under the direction of the Chairman of the District and the District Educational Secretary.

16. Quarterly Fast-Days.—The days upon which the Quarterly Fast, appointed by Rule, is to be observed throughout the Connexion, for the following year, are, Fridays, September 19th, and December 19th, 1890; March 20th, and June 19th, 1891.

17. The Ballot in Quarterly Meetings, etc.—The Conference declares that the practice of voting by Ballot in the administration of Methodism in our Circuits, is contrary to long-established usage, and that its adoption would in various ways be injurious to the interests of our Societies. (Minutes, 1884, p. 191.)

18. Discipline of Methodism.—The Chairmen of Districts are enjoined to make particular enquiries at their Annual Meetings in reference to the several points of Discipline specified in the first Section of the Answer to Question XXVIII. in the Minutes of 1825.

19. Interchanges of Ministers.—The expenses of interchanges between Ministers residing in various Circuits, appointed by the Conference, shall in no case fall upon the Ministers themselves, but shall be provided by the Circuits concerned, under the direction of the District Meeting. (Minutes, 1878, p. 252.)

20. Political Meetings in Wesleyan-Methodist Trust Premises.—Having regard to the fact that a desire has been expressed in some places to use our Trust Property for the purpose of Political Meetings, the Conference declares that such uses are not contemplated by the provisions of any of our Trust Deeds; and it reminds Superintendents and Trustees that our Trust Properties can only be lawfully used for the purposes provided for in the Trust Deeds.

The Conference further expresses the conviction that any such use of the Premises as that suggested would be detrimental to the best interests of our Societies by endangering their peace and unity.

21. Candidates for Admission on Trial.—(1) Those Preachers who are recommended for Admission on Trial shall, at or before the time of the Annual District Meeting, preach in the presence of, at least, three of the Ministers of the District Committee, to be selected by the Chairman, exclusive of the Superintendent by whom the Candidates respectively are proposed; and a special report of the Sermons shall be made in the District Meeting, and immediately forwarded, in writing, to the Secretaries of the Committee for the Examination of Candidates.

(2) Arrangements shall be made by the May District Meetings for the hearing of each Candidate by two Ministers of the District, in addition to those who have heard him before his recommendation by the District Committee; and such Ministers shall immediately forward their Report to the Rev. Peter Thompson, 242, Cable Street, London, E.

22. System of Marking in Examinations.—The Conference resolves:—(1) that in future, in valuing all Examinations and Trial Sermons, a system of marks by numbers from 1 to 7 be adopted: number 1 being the highest value and 7 the lowest; (2) that the seven grades from 1 to 7 shall signify respectively, Excellent, Very good, Good, Fair, Moderate, Poor, Very poor; and that the marks 1, 2, 3, denote three grades of an Honours' Division; and 4, 5, 6, 7, four grades in a Pass Division; 'average' quality being indicated by the mark 4 (fair).

23. Candidates for the Ministry.—1. Candidates for the Ministry from the Welsh Districts who are able to preach in English, and who pass their Examinations in English, shall be regarded as eligible for the general work. 2. Except when the Conference directs otherwise, accepted Candidates shall be sent forthwith to the Institution.

24. Probation of University Graduates.—Candidates for the Ministry, who have obtained a Degree in any University of the United Kingdom, shall, on passing a satisfactory Examination in Theology, have the special consideration of the Conference in regard to the term of their Probation. (Minutes, 1886, p. 203.)

25. Preachers on Trial and Mr. Wesley's Works.—Those Preachers on Trial who do not already possess Mr. Wesley's Works, are required to procure them during the period of their Probation; and shall be allowed to pay for them to our Book-Steward by such instalments as may best suit their convenience. (Minutes, 1882, p. 224.)

26. Preachers on Trial.—Whenever it shall be found to be practicable, Preachers on Trial shall preach during the District Meetings.

27. Candidates for Ordination.—The Conference directs that Candidates for Ordination shall, at or before the May District Meeting, preach before three Ministers of the District, who shall report, in writing, to the Meeting.

28. Army and Navy Work.—(1) The Chairmen and Superintendents of our Foreign Mission Districts where there are Garrison and Naval Ports, are instructed to make such arrangements with the Naval and Military authorities as may be necessary for the benefit of Wesleyan Soldiers and Seamen, in concert with the Army and Navy Sub-Committee.

(2) Soldiers' and Sailors' Homes.—The Conference directs that, in addition to the Connexional sanction already required by our Rules before any property can be acquired for Methodist purposes, any Ministers or other persons connected with our Societies contemplating the erection or acquisition of a Soldiers' or Sailors' Home shall communicate with the Army and Navy Sub-Committee; and no binding arrangements shall be entered into until the written consent of the Home-Mission Committee and of the Foreign Missionary Committee respectively shall have been received.

(3) All Ministers working for the benefit of Soldiers and Sailors in Stations where Wesleyan Homes already exist, or shall be established, shall include in their quarterly reports an account of the work done in the Homes; and at the Annual District Meetings in May the financial condition of such Homes shall be reported, as in the case of other Trust properties.

(4) The following information shall be presented from each of our Military and Naval Stations to the District Committees at their Annual Meeting in May; together with a Report of the work done for the benefit of our Soldiers and Sailors:

(i.) The number of declared Wesl yans in the Army and Royal Navy, including the Coastguard, taken for the 31st of December in each year.

(ii.) The number of Members of Society in the Army and Royal Navy, includin the wives and children of Soldiers and Seamen.

(iii.) The average attendance at Divine Service during the year.

(iv.) The amount of capitation and other official payments for the year.

In the case of Home Stations, these Reports and Returns shall be submitted to the District Home-Mission Sub-Committee, who shall present them, with any needful remarks thereupon, to the District Committee.

(5) Ministers who are appointed to Army and Navy Work are not to be considered as Ministers of the Circuit where they may be stationed, so as to be claimed for Circuit work, unless special arrangements be made in any case with the Army and Navy Sub-Committee. After their proper work has been efficiently done, they may give such help to the Circuit as they may be enabled to do, but only on arrangement in writing between the Superintendent of the Circuit and the Army and Navy Sub-Committee. Their personal conduct is to be under the cognisance of the Superintendent of the Circuit and the District Meeting, with the before-mentioned conditions.

(6) Wherever capitation payments are received on behalf of our Wesleyan Soldiers and Seamen, the pastoral duties which are entailed thereby shall be strictly fulfilled, and every facility and encouragement given to the men, their wives and families, to become attached to the services of the chapels in which by these payments they are now seat-holders.

29. Home-Missionary Ministers.—The Conference directs that a special enquiry shall be made at the May District Meetings, whether the Regulations for the employment of Home-Missionary Ministers, adopted by the Conference, have been faithfully observed in the Circuits to which Home-Missionary Ministers are appointed; and that a Report in each case shall be made to the Conference.

30. Juvenile Home and Foreign Missionary Associations.—In the case of Circuits which are not in a position to ask for the appointment of a Home-Missionary Minister, and to give the pledge required, but which feel the necessity of adopting some plan of Home-Missionary operations, the subjoined allocation is allowed:—One-third of the sums received to be paid to the Funds of the Foreign Missionary Society, it being expressly understood that in every case the contribution to the Foreign Missions shall be at least equal to what has been presented from Christmas Offerings, on the average of several preceding years; one-third to the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund; one-third to the Circuit, to be expended in support of local movements of a directly Home-Missionary character, under the direction of the Superintendent, and of a Committee to be appointed at the December Quarterly Meeting. (Minutes, 1863, Vol. XV., p. 528; and 1877, Vol. XX., p. 398.)

31. Lay Members of District Committees.—The Chairmen of Districts shall send a Circular to the Lay Members of the District Committee, requesting their attendance on the Wednesday, and, if necessary, on the Thursday, in the week of the Annual District Meeting; specifying the business that will be brought forward, and particularly mentioning any subject that may have been specially remitted by the Conference to the consideration of such Meeting.

A similar Circular shall be prepared and sent with reference to the Financial District Meeting.

32. Representative to the Stationing Committee.—The Minister who shall be the Representative of any District to the Stationing Committee shall be chosen by the united votes of the Ministers and Laymen who are members of the District Committee.

33. Election of Ministers to attend the Conference in its Representative Session.—1. The election shall be made by ballot after nomination from among the whole number of Ministers in any District who desire to attend the Conference. 2. The Ministers so elected shall have permission to attend the Conference in its Pastoral Session. 3. The Ministers necessary to complete the number permitted to attend the Conference in its Pastoral Session shall then be elected. 4. In the event of any Minister elected to attend the Conference in its Representative Session offering to 'provide for himself,' his election shall not thereby be rendered void. (Minutes, 1886, p. 199.)

34. Division of Circuits.—Before a District Committee consents to the division of any Circuit, enquiry must be made whether due attention has been paid to satisfactory arrangements for the Trust-Estates affected by the proposed division, especially in reference to any debts existing thereon.

For Regulations as to Division of Circuits, see Minutes, 1886, pp. 270-273.

35. Boundaries of Circuits.—Whereas difficulties have arisen from the want of accurate and recorded definitions of the boundaries of Circuits, the Conference directs that, in future, the boundaries of Circuits which are divided shall be fully stated in the Minutes of the District Meeting to which they belong, and that the Secretary of the District shall send a copy of the record to be inserted in the Minutes of the Quarterly Meetings of the Circuits concerned; and that, in such cases, copies of the Ordnance maps, or some other maps, of the localities concerned, be coloured, so as to show the boundaries, and deposited in the Safes provided for the custody of the Trust-Deeds of the Circuits.

The Conference further directs that these arrangements be made in all cases of alteration in the boundaries of existing Circuits.

36. Minor District Meetings.—In all cases in which the holding of a Minor District Meeting is rendered necessary, except under the Regulation of 1840, such Meeting shall be held in the District in which the accused party resides; the accused and the accuser selecting respectively two Ministers from the said District, who, with the Chairman thereof, shall constitute the Minor District Meeting.

Should either party refuse or decline to choose two Ministers, to act as members of the Meeting, the Chairman is empowered and directed to nominate them, so that the number required by Rule may be made up. (Minutes, 1840, Vol. IX., p. 94.)

37. District Minutes.—The Chairmen of Districts are required to procure two complete copies of the Minutes of the several Annual and other Meetings of the District Committees, transcribed according to the order of time in which such Meetings shall have been held, and duly signed by the Chairman and Secretary.

One of these copies shall be inserted in the District Records; the other shall be sent to the Rev. Marshall Hartley, Centenary Hall, Bishopsgate Street Within, E.C., not later than June 20th, and delivered by him to the President on the first day of the Conference, to be preserved under his direction, as a document appertaining to the Connexion.

The copies of the latter class shall be written on foolscap paper, that they may be annually bound together in one volume.

The District Secretary is required to furnish the Chairman with such extracts from the District Minutes as he will need at the Conference.

38. Custody of Connexional Documents.—In addition to the Journals and Daily Records of the Conference, and the Minutes of the several District Committees, the following Documents shall also be preserved:—The printed Agenda of the Conference; the Minutes of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions from year to year, with the Documents laid before that Committee, and the Resolutions of the Conference thereon; the Reports of any special Committees or Commissions appointed by the Conference; any legal opinion obtained from time to time by the direction of the Conference; and a Record of all Legacies and Funds left to the Connexion, of the place where the Trust Deeds are deposited, with the names of the Trustees, and the provisions (if any) for the renewal of the Trust; and when the Legacies have been finally disposed of, the Minute Books of the Trustees, showing the arrangements made; with any other Documents the safe custody of which the Conference may hereafter direct. (Minutes, 1882, p. 287-8.)

39. Schedules from Departments.—As it is obviously desirable that the Committees appointed by the Conference to manage the several Departments of the business of the Connexion, in the intervals of its Session, should be furnished with as much statistical information as possible on the matters of business severally confided to their care,—the Conference authorises them, through their appointed Officers, to send, when they deem it expedient, suitable Circulars and Schedules to the Superintendents, or to the Chairmen of Districts, as the case may require; and directs the Superintendents and Chairmen duly to return such Schedules properly filled up.

40. Designations to Departmental Offices.—Twelve months before the end of any term of Departmental Office, the Committee in charge of the Department shall submit to the Conference the names of three Ministers in nomination for that office; of whom the Officer for the time being may, or may not, be one. (Minutes, 1886, p. 204.)

41. Elections to Departmental Offices.—In any new appointment to a Departmental Office, the Minister elected shall have a clear majority of the total number of votes cast; and when such majority is not obtained on the first ballot, a second ballot shall be taken on the first two; or, if necessary, the first three—names on the list which have the largest number of votes. (Minutes, 1883, p. 183.)

42. Election of Chairmen of Districts.—In the appointment of Chairmen, the Minister elected shall have a clear majority of the total number of votes cast, and according to the Standing Order relating to Elections to Departmental Offices. (Minutes, 1886, pp. 205, 295.)

43. Committee on Appeals, and other Cases.—At each Conference, the President shall nominate, not later than the second day, a Committee of twenty-one members of the Conference, to whom shall be referred, without discussion, all cases requiring further enquiry touching the character of Ministers or Preachers on Trial, immediately after the reading of the Minutes of District Committees thereupon; or of any notice of charge or appeal relating thereto; or for any reason which the Conference may deem sufficient.

Any complainant or appellant, or any person under enquiry, may object to one in three of the members of the said Committee sitting on his case; and the President shall then appoint some other member of the Conference to act instead of the member so objected to.

Special Cases to be decided upon by the Conference may be referred to the whole Committee; but it shall, for ordinary purposes, be divided into three sections, for each of which a Convener shall be appointed, who shall be responsible for preparing the business of the Committee. (Minutes, 1873, Vol. XIX., p. 202.)

44. Ministerial Members of Connexional Committees. — No Minister, who is not an Officer of a Departmental Committee, shall remain upon that Committee as a Member more than six consecutive years, unless he shall have been nominated for a further appointment thereon by the vote of four-fifths of the Members of the Committee present. (Minutes, 1882, p. 383.)

45. Lay Members of Connexional Committees.—A certain number of Lay Gentlemen, being at least one-sixth of the number of Lay Members of each Departmental Committee, shall annually retire from each Committee by rotation; the same persons being ineligible for immediate re-appointment, except in special cases, and after nomination for such re-appointment by the vote of four-fifths of the Members of the Committee present. (Minutes, 1882, p. 383.)

46. Preparations for the Stationing Committee.—The Representative of each District shall send to the Secretary of the Conference, not later than the 27th day of June in each year, upon a Schedule to be provided by him, complete lists of

(1) The arrangements provisionally made for the appointment of Ministers to Circuits in his District;

(2) The invitations accepted by Ministers in his District to Circuits in other Districts; and

(3) All Ministers in his District for whom no arrangement has been made.

Also, a list of all Ministers to be transferred from the Foreign to the Home Stations shall, at the same time, be furnished by the Missionary Secretaries to the Secretary of the Conference.

From these lists the Secretary of the Conference shall compile, and cause to be printed in a convenient form for use in the Stationing Committee, a Preliminary Draft of Stations embodying all arrangements thus provisionally made; and also a separate list of all Ministers for whom provisional arrangements have not been made; and a copy of these shall be furnished to each Member of the Stationing Committee, in London, on the Monday before the meeting of that Committee.

47. Regulations concerning the Stationing Committee.—1. The Stationing Committee shall, from year to year, hold its first Session in London. 2. The appointments made shall not, as heretofore, be printed day by day. 3. The Stations shall be printed in the Conference Town. 4. The First Draft of Stations shall be an absolutely confidential document until the Representatives' Copies are ready for the post. 5. All Students who are leaving the Institution, and are eligible for appointment, shall be entitled to a copy of the First and Final Draft of Stations. 6. Each Representative shall send to the Secretary of the 'Conference Arrangements Committee' two sets of Addressed Wrappers, for the First and Final Draft, for the Ministers and Circuit Stewards in his District, and for Six other Laymen—Members of the District Committee; the cost of which shall be refunded by the 'Conference Arrangements Committee.'

48. Stationing Committee.—After the second reading of the Stations, the Committee shall, when deemed expedient, retire for the further consideration of the Stations.

49. The Ex-President and the Stationing Committee.—The retiring President shall be, ex-officio, a Member of the Stationing Committee during the sittings of Conference.

50. Supplies in relation to Circuit Appointments.—A Probationer sent by the President, before Christmas, as a Supply, is not thereby disqualified for appointment for a third year to the Circuit where he served as a Supply. (Minutes, 1887, pp. 193-4.)

51. Numbering of Circuits and Stations.—1. Except those in which no Minister's House is provided, all Stations appearing in the Minutes shall be numbered. 2. The Minister appointed to any Station without a number is the Superintendent, and is therefore entitled to preside in the Quarterly Meetings and in the Trustees' Meetings; but he shall, as heretofore, act under the direction of the Chairman of the District. (Minutes, 1886, p. 204.)

52. Conference Plan.—The Superintendents of those Circuits in which the Conference may, from year to year, assemble, shall, with the previous approbation of the President, complete and print, not later than the 15th day of June in each year, a Plan of the order of preaching in the principal chapels during the Session of the Conference; and shall also, on or before the above date, send to every person whom they have appointed to preach in those chapels, a copy of the Conference Plan.

And in order that the Plan thus prepared may not be violated, to the disappointment of our friends, no Minister who attends the Conference shall be at liberty to make an engagement to preach in any other Circuit, either on the Sabbath, or on any other day, during the period appointed for the meeting of the Conference, at the time for which his name shall be inserted on the Conference Plan.

53. Conference Sessions.—With a view to facilitating the despatch of the Conference business, there shall be two Sessions daily.

54. Open Session of Conference.—The Open Session shall be held on the evening of the second day of Conference each year.

55. Rotation of the Conference.—The Conference rescinds the Rule of 1873 (Minutes, Vol. XIX., pp. 196-7), which directs that the Conference shall hold its Sessions in London more frequently than in any other city or town. (Minutes, 1887, p. 193.)

56. Question VII.—In response to the enquiry in the Conference: 'Is there any objection to any Minister, or Preacher on Trial?' the names of the Districts only shall be called, and the Chairman of each District shall then give the required information. The right to challenge any name, or bring a charge against any Minister, shall not be affected by this regulation.

57. Memorandum of Agreement.—The Memorandum of Agreement between the Conference and Candidates from other

Conferences and Churches shall apply in all particulars to married men who are accepted in the ordinary way as Candidates for the Ministry; and the payments required therein shall be made, and the privileges described therein shall begin to be enjoyed, in both cases, at the time of their admission into Full Connexion with the Conference. (Minutes, 1882, p. 289.)

58. Ministers Becoming Supernumeraries for One Year.—In all cases where a Minister who becomes a Supernumerary for one year is not a Member of the Annuitant Society, the amount which would have been paid to him as a Member of that Society shall be deducted from the extra grant made by the Committees of the Auxiliary Fund and of the Home-Mission and Contingent Fund. (Minutes, 1887, p. 261.)

59. Status of Certain Ministers.—MINISTERS WITHOUT PASTORAL CHARGE.—(1) Any Minister wishing to maintain his ministerial status whilst holding no definite appointment to a Circuit or a Department, and without becoming a Supernumerary, shall apply for permission through the District Meeting to the Conference, which shall decide the case after a full examination of it by a Special Committee.

(2) Any such Minister shall continue to be in every way subject to our discipline, including the usual enquiries as to character and doctrine.

(3) No such Minister shall receive any payment from the Auxiliary Fund during, or on account of, the years in which he shall occupy the position herein described; and he shall pay the yearly assessments to the Fund for the Maintenance and Education of Ministers' Children, on the same scale as Ministers appointed to Departments; and he shall then continue to receive the benefit of those Funds in the ordinary course.

(4) The name of every such Minister shall stand upon the Minutes in connection with some Circuit, and following his name shall be these words: 'Resides in this Circuit without Pastoral charge.' Nevertheless, he shall not, as a Minister, be a member of the Quarterly Meeting, or of any Leaders' Meeting in the Circuit.

60. Supernumeraries Resident Abroad.—(1) Any Minister having permission to reside abroad shall have such permission annually renewed.

(2) If any Minister remain abroad for more than one year he shall be required either to make arrangements with the officers of our Connexional Funds, with a view to retiring from the English work, or to furnish the Conference annually with a satisfactory report from some other Methodist Conference, in recognised relation with this Conference.

(3) A list of all such Ministers shall be annually printed in the Minutes of Conference at the end of the Stations.

61. Weekly Offertory System.—(1) The Conference recommends that in every Chapel in which the Offertory System has been introduced, as well as in all other Chapels, the Connexional Collections be made on Sundays set apart for the purpose, be duly announced beforehand, the objects and need of the Fund concerned distinctly stated, and an appeal made, and the whole sum so gathered strictly devoted to the stated purpose.

(2) The Conference recommends that where the aggregate results of the Weekly Offertory System show an increase of Circuit income (derived from the same sources) over that of years antecedent to the introduction of the System, the Connexional Funds, whether they have suffered or not, shall equitably share in such increased income; and that this object shall be secured by Offertories specially appropriated for this purpose, or otherwise.

(3) The Conference expresses its strong objection to the practice of allotting to the Connexional Funds any average sum; i.e., a proportion of the yearly receipts from the Offertory, calculated upon the average collections for a given Fund during a number of years preceding the introduction of the Offertory—in lieu of making Collections for each Fund according to rule. Such a practice is unfair to the several Funds, which are thus precluded from sharing in the general life and progress of the Circuit, and is further liable to the fatal objection that it shuts out all opportunity of bringing the various Funds and their claims before our Congregations.

(4) The Conference is of opinion that the Offertory System should not be adopted in any Chapel without the consent of the Circuit Quarterly Meeting.

The Circuit Quarterly Meeting affords a most valuable opportunity for bringing the Connexional principle before the leading officials of our Circuit; and the Conference recommends that at each June Quarterly Meeting this should be done, and a Report made of the Circuit Contributions to each Connexional Fund during the year. (Weekly Offertory System, Minutes, 1889, p. 288.) For list of Connexional Funds, see pp. 340-343.

62. Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings.—(1) Should a majority of the June Quarterly Meeting, in any Circuit, be of opinion that it is desirable to address to the Conference a Memorial on any Connexional subject, and agree to do so, that Meeting itself, subject to the Regulations which follow, shall have authority to adopt and transmit to the Conference such a Memorial. And at such Meeting any Member thereof may propose, for consideration, the propriety of addressing a Memorial to the Conference.

(2) Not less than ten days previously to the June Quarterly Meeting, a copy in writing shall be given to the Superintendent, of the particular Motion or Resolution which any Member of the Quarterly Meeting intends to propose, as the basis of a Memorial to the Conference; and no proposal, of which such Notice has not been given, shall be brought forward that year.

But, should the Quarterly Meeting adopt the substance or principle of a Resolution so brought forward, it may amend, as well as simply adopt or reject it.

(3) A Memorial, founded on such Motion or Resolution, if approved by a majority of the persons present, shall be signed by them, individually, within a week afterwards.

(4) The Conference directs Superintendents of Circuits to forward to the Convener of the Committee on Memorials and Suggestions, Rev. Francis W. Greeves, 1, Oakleigh Villas, Mannamead, Plymouth, all Memorials from Quarterly Meetings ten days before the opening of Conference. Nevertheless, the Conference will, as heretofore, receive Memorials up to and including the second day of its Session.

(5) All Memorials thus received by the Conference shall be referred to a Committee of its Members; who shall carefully examine, consider, and classify the whole, and present their Report thereon to the Conference.

(6) With regard to the Subjects of such Memorials, the Conference cannot entertain any proposals which are of a manifestly revolutionary character, or subversive of that system of Doctrine or Discipline which has been confided to it as a sacred deposit by Mr. Wesley; and which, as the Conference believes, has also been committed to its keeping by the Providence and Grace of God.

(5) Neither can the Conference sanction such Memorials as involve a direct interference on the part of one Circuit with the local affairs or proceedings of any other Circuit. (Minutes, 1852, pp. 111, 112.)

No Memorial can be received from the Quarterly Meeting of a Circuit, except in Manuscript. (Minutes, 1874, p. 454.)

The consideration and determination of all Questions raised by Memorials from Circuit Quarterly Meetings shall come within the province of the Conference when exclusively Ministerial, or when the Lay Representatives shall be present, according to the subject-matter thereof respectively. (Minutes, 1877, p. 424.)

CHURCH-MEMBERSHIP AND THE CLASS-MEETING.

The following is an abstract of the Recommendations of the Committee on Church-Membership, which were adopted by the Conference in 1889. (Minutes, 1889, pp. 408-413.)

Pastoral Responsibility.

No system can be more effective than the men who work it. If our knowledge of the flock of Christ is to be thorough, our returns of membership trustworthy, or our influence upon the Members powerful for good, there must be patient, minute and diligent attention to the Quarterly Visitation of the Classes. If a Minister speaks lightly of the Class-Meeting, or treats lightly the Quarterly Visitation; if he hurries through the Visitation, and, to save time, unduly crowds the Classes together; if, as there is reason to fear is sometimes done, he sends the Tickets to the Leader instead of meeting the Class himself, both our Leaders and Members will think lightly of the Class-Meeting, and treat it lightly too. Time and energy devoted to larger and more popular religious gatherings will not compensate for any neglect, even in villages, of conscientious care in the Quarterly Visitation of the Classes. In order to the improvement of the Class-Meeting, it is necessary that, amongst all our Ministers, the sense of Pastoral duty and responsibility be strengthened and deepened.

Withholding Tickets.

Exclusion from membership in the Class-Meeting involves, for the time being, excommunication from the visible Church; and this is the most serious and painful exercise of ecclesiastical discipline, to be undertaken only when necessity demands it, and under a sense of solemn responsibility.

In regard to the occasions which warrant the withholding of a Society-ticket, standards vary; and hence have arisen confusion and difficulty, and some injury to the Work of God.

In the Quarterly Visitation of the Classes, Ministers should bear in mind these four points:

1. There is no Rule which requires a Minister to withhold a Ticket solely on the ground of irregular attendance at Class.

2. There is a Rule which requires that no Member shall be left without a Ticket until he has been visited by a Minister.

3. It is the duty of the Minister to see to it that the name of no person is removed from the Class-Book who has not been carefully visited, patiently borne with, faithfully exhorted, and earnestly entreated; or, for any other than grave moral and spiritual reasons, or decided and persistent disaffection.

4. Even in such cases, every person so excluded from the fellowship of the Church must have the opportunity, if he claims it, of having his case judicially decided at a Leaders' Meeting, according to the provisions of our Discipline.

Ministers forming Classes.

In many places, persons who would, in the first instance, shrink from joining any other Class, would willingly join one of which a Minister is the Leader. By means of such a Class, conducted with tact and judgment, many might be drawn within our closer fellowship, to their great profit, and to the advantage of Wesleyan-Methodism.

The Leaders' Meeting.

There is, just now, nothing more important than that the Leaders' Meeting should be restored to its former place of spiritual influence and religious power. It should be borne in mind that the Leaders' Meeting is not a mere instrument for collecting the contributions in the Classes, and administering relief to the poor. The supreme purpose of the Meeting is to enable the Ministers, with the help of the Leaders, to guard the purity and promote the spiritual well-being of the Societies.

The Leaders' Meeting should, therefore, be held regularly; and, in connection with the larger Societies, at least once a month. It is the duty of the Minister to examine the Class-Books, and to take note of any Members who, by reason of sickness, poverty or any other cause, need prompt and special visitation. Occasionally, the whole time of a meeting might, with advantage, be given up to prayer and testimony, combined with brotherly conversation in reference to the special work of the Class Leader.

In a word, the Leaders' Meeting should be made the spiritual centre of the Society, even as it is the Supreme Court. If this were done, not only would existing Leaders become more efficient, but a succession of competent Leaders would more easily be maintained.

New Leaders and New Classes.

In every large Society new Leaders should be appointed with reasonable frequency. Wherever there are feeble Classes, with a declining attendance, it is important to appoint new Leaders to create new Classes. In many a Circuit, increase comes from Classes newly formed. If we have men and women of grace and gifts, vigour and enterprise, let us not pass them by because they are young. As a rule, our best Class-Leaders are they who were young when they entered upon the office; and many who, in middle life, refuse to become Leaders, would probably have accepted the appointment at an earlier age.

'Whenever a new Leader, nominated by us and accepted by the Leaders' Meeting, is first introduced to the Meeting, let us take that opportunity of stating the duties which belong to the office. And in particular, let us urge upon our Leaders the vital importance of seeing or communicating with each of their Members once a week.'

Counsels to Class-Leaders.

Whether they be young or old, our Leaders should be better instructed in the work they have undertaken. Many need to be told not only what to do, but what to leave undone. Let them not insist that every one shall, from the first, speak every week in the Class-Meeting. Some are young, others are timid; and many are more likely to begin to speak if they may choose the time. In dealing with men and women who are 'swift to hear, slow to speak,' we need much tact, skill and patience.

Leaders should be advised to hold a Prayer Meeting, say, once a month. It would also be well to read at the Class-Meeting a few verses of Holy Scripture, bearing upon some aspect of Christian duty or privilege, experience or practice. Leaders may be encouraged to introduce, occasionally, a Bible Reading, which should be used for the purpose of evoking conversation on Christian experience. But strict care must be taken that the Class-Meeting shall not become merely a Bible-Class. Let it never be forgotten that the proper business of the Class-Meeting is spiritual fellowship.

Leaders should be urged to mark the Class-Book at every Meeting; calling over each name on the Book, whether present or absent. A short and easy method of reducing the number of absentees is to call over the names week by week, and enquire the cause of absence. As a rule, our Leaders would do well to receive weekly the Contributions of the Members. When arrears of Contributions have been allowed to accumulate, our poor Members have serious discouragement placed in the way of their attendance at Class.

Above all, the Leader should be carefully instructed that he is not at liberty, of his own will, to drop one single name from his Class-Book. The name of every person to whom a Ticket or Note on Trial is given one quarter must be entered in the Book for the next quarter. Names are removed only after consultation between the Minister and the Leader.

In the Visitation of the Classes, the Minister should compare carefully the list of names which he finds in the Book with the list of the previous quarter. 'The number of the names' may correspond, whilst yet the names are not the same; one 'received from another Circuit' taking the place of one quietly dropped. The Minister is responsible for seeing to it that, neither through inadvertence, nor from any other cause, does any name disappear, between Quarterly Visitations, from the Class-Book.

ORDINARY TIME OF MEETING OF CONNEXIONAL COMMITTEES.

Monthly Committees.

Foreign Missions: Second Wednesday in the month; and, when necessary, the fourth also.

Book and Tract: First Monday in the month; in July, the second Monday.

Chapel: Second Wednesday in September; after that, first Wednesday in the month.

Education: Second Thursday in the month (morning).

Sunday-School Union: Last Thursday in the month (afternoon).

Children's Home and Orphanage: Second Thursday in the month (afternoon); Local Committees monthly.

Home Missions: Third Thursday in the month (morning).

Metropolitan Chapel Building: Third Thursday in the month (afternoon).

Extension of Methodism: Last Wednesday in September, November, January, March and May.

London Mission: Last Friday in the month (afternoon).

Quarterly Committees.

Theological Institution: October 17th, Handsworth; January 16th, Headingley; April 17th, Didsbury; and July 9th, Richmond. The Finance Sub-Committee will meet quarterly, on the evening before the General Committee. The Local Executive Committees meet on or about the last Thursday in the quarter.

Schools: October 24th, Manchester; January 9th, London; April 10th, Bath; and July 3rd, London. The Governing Bodies will meet quarterly, on the day before the General Committee.

Annual Committees.

Examination of Candidates for the Ministry: June 24th and 25th, at Richmond and Didsbury.

CONNEXIONAL FUNDS.

Collections and Subscriptions.

The Public Collections in all our Circuits are to be made, whenever practicable, at the times under-mentioned.

The Annual Subscriptions are due at the dates following:—

Theological Institution Fund, January 1st.
General Chapel Fund, February 1st.
Education Fund, April 1st.
Missionary Society, May 1st.
Worn-Out Ministers' Fund, May 1st.
Fund for the Maintenance and Education of Ministers' Children, November 1st.
Home-Mission Fund, December 1st.

Worn-Out Ministers' and Ministers' Widows' Auxiliary Fund.

Donations in the Classes shall be entered in the Class-Books at the September Visitation, and collected by the Class-Leaders not later than October. The Circuit Treasurers shall close their accounts with the Class-Leaders not later than the end of November, remit the money to the District Treasurer, and present their statement to the Christmas Quarterly Meeting.

The District Treasurers shall remit the amount to the Rev. Walford Green, Wesleyan Centenary Hall, Bishopsgate Street Within, London, E.C., and close their account with the Circuit Treasurers and the General Treasurers not later than the end of January.

Private Subscriptions shall be solicited in May, and Superintendents shall remit the money at once, and send the List not later than the end of June, to the Rev. Walford Green.

Public Collections shall be made in July, and Superintendents shall remit the amount to the Rev. Walford Green.

Home-Mission and Contingent Fund.

Public Collections shall be made in October, except where the Foreign Missionary Anniversary is held in the Autumn, in which case the Sunday Collections for this Fund shall be made in April.

A Public Meeting shall be held in every Circuit, and, as far as practicable, in every principal Chapel.

Private Subscriptions shall be solicited in December. Superintendents shall remit Collections and Subscriptions to the Rev. John W. Greeves, Wesleyan Centenary Hall, Bishopsgate Street Within, London, E.C.

Donations in the Classes shall be entered in the Class-Books at the March Visitation, and collected by the Leaders in April, and the Superintendents shall pay in the money, at the District Meeting in May, to the Financial Secretary, who shall forthwith remit the amount to the Rev. John W. Greeves.

Juvenile Missionary Associations. It is desirable that remittances to the Rev. John W. Greeves should be made quarterly, in October, January, April and July.

Fund for the Maintenance and Education of Ministers' Children.

Public Collections shall be made, and Private Subscriptions solicited in November, and the whole amount remitted to the Rev. Walford Green, Wesleyan Centenary Hall, Bishopsgate Street Within, London, E.C.

Circuit Assessment. It is desirable that the amount should be paid to the Rev. Walford Green in quarterly instalments, in September, December, March and June.

Theological Institution Fund.

SPECIAL AND ANNUAL ADDRESSES.

THE ANNUAL ADDRESS

OF THE

CONFERENCE TO THE METHODIST SOCIETIES.

DEAR BRETHREN,—

We welcome our annual opportunity to greet you in the name of our Divine Lord. 'Grace be unto you, and peace, from Him which is, and which was, and which is to come; and from the seven Spirits which are before His throne; and from Jesus Christ, Who is the faithful Witness, and the First-begotten of the dead, and the Prince of the kings of the earth.'

Accept from us the assurance of continued affection, and of our earnest desire to promote your spiritual edification. 'For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake.'

All social relationships involve mutual privileges and mutual obligations. We heartily acknowledge the response which you have made to our overtures. By acceptance of the truth, by active service, and by the love and the support which you have given to us, you have pledged us to renewed devotion, in order to serve your spiritual interests.

One hundred years ago the Conference was held in Bristol, and on that occasion John Wesley presided for the forty-seventh, and last time. Charles Atmore wrote: 'At this Conference I parted with Mr. Wesley, to see him no more until the resurrection of the just. He appeared very feeble; his eyesight had failed so much that he could not see to give out the hymns. Yet his voice was strong, his spirit remarkably lively, and the powers of his mind, and his love towards his fellow-creatures, were as bright and as ardent as ever.'

As we look back over the century, we mark the Hand of God in the growth of our ecclesiastical constitution, in the creation of our Church institutions, in the literary embodiment of our theology, in the continuance of our type of spiritual and evangelical life, and in the extension of the Methodist form of Christianity to many lands.

During the next century our progress will depend upon our fidelity to the great spiritual traditions which we have inherited. The Elishas who witnessed the translation of our Elijah, and who received a double portion of his spirit, have passed away. The names of these men are still on our lips, and their unwritten recollections still linger in our conversations. But as the generations pass by their influence will decline, and we shall be liable to lose their spirit. To counteract this danger let us study the writings of Mr. Wesley, the history, the biography and the devotional literature of our Church.

But our progress will depend especially upon the attitude which we assume in relation to the future. While we appropriate the blessings of our spiritual inheritance, let us, at the same time, assimilate the true ideas and the well-founded hopes of our own generation. Thus we shall combine historic sentiment with progressive sympathy, and we shall lead the hosts of God to greater victories.

It is important to cultivate an intelligent interest in Methodism as a whole. Our spiritual ancestors were distinguished for Connexional sympathy, and for large conceptions of the Kingdom of God. Guard against confining your interest to the particular church or Circuit to which you may belong. Such a habit would contract your souls, and limit your faith and your spiritual imagination. To avoid a parochial spirit, we invite you to share in our great enterprises, to participate in our Special Anniversaries, and to read our periodical literature.

Still the Circuit is the prime factor in our Church organization. On its life and growth all our institutions depend. Our practical devotion ought always to be regulated by a judicial temper. The constant drain which some Circuits experience, both on their numbers and on their resources, makes increase difficult. Great success is often involved in making up the losses which have been sustained. Our new agencies are worthy of your support; but our old institutions are not to be neglected.

The personal discipline experienced in devotion to feeble churches is of great value. Depleted Societies often furnish the highest types of self-sacrifice. There is great joy in building old wastes, and in raising up former desolations. God has good things in store for weak churches: 'For the Lord shall comfort Zion: He will comfort all her waste places; and He will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the Lord; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.'

During the last fifty years new conditions of life and work have grown up around us. The population of the country has rapidly increased. The development of industry has led to remarkable congestions of population. Political associations, commercial companies, and trades unions have been organized on an extensive scale. Meanwhile the Churches have been using forms of devotion which were suited to quieter times and simpler conditions of Society. But a great revival of Evangelistic activity has taken place. The social ideas of the generation are now embodied in new types of organization, in fresh forms of fellowship, and in enlarged methods of spiritual work.

There are several features of modern Evangelism which are worthy of your thoughtful attention. In the first place, it is not limited to sanctuaries which have been formally dedicated to the worship of God. In public halls, and in secular buildings, it is possible to practise a freedom which would be unsuited to sacred edifices. Some, who have given their sympathy to Evangelism, are disposed to criticise disciplined worship; while others, who love orderly worship, are inclined to criticise Mission Services. This is unfortunate; and it leads to a division of sentiment.

Let those who worship in secular places respect the claims of order and reverence; and let those who worship in sacred buildings acknowledge the claims of freedom, naturalness and responsive joy. Thus opposite types of people will be able to unite in worship and in practical service. One type will chasten the other; and it will be easy for our converts to exchange the elementary life of the mission-room for the educational influences of the organized and disciplined Church.

The Evangelism of the day includes, we rejoice to say, a deep interest in the material, the social and the economic welfare of the people. Mission efforts, and Temperance agencies, in times past, have dealt largely with effects; and many have overlooked some of the causes by which the effects have been produced. But at length we are widening the scope of our policy, so as to embrace, not only the constitutional needs, but also the environment of the people. Many of the social questions which are under discussion belong to the realm of politics rather than to the sphere of spiritual policy, and for this reason you will need to handle them with discrimination. Outside the Church you may follow your own convictions; but inside the Church your speech should be chastened, and your action should be modified, by the dictates of spiritual wisdom. It is your duty to claim all reasonable freedom. If you express your mind in regard to the housing of the poor, the drink traffic, or the sweater's den, you are not, of necessity, a party politician. At the same time you should guard against bringing political predilections into spiritual utterances. Social problems should be discussed from a Christian standpoint, and in a spiritual temper. Our interest in these questions arises from the fact that we are anxious to prepare the way for all the moral and the spiritual improvements of which our fellow-creatures are capable.

We desire also to point out how important it is that Evangelism should be followed by Ethical and Spiritual teaching. In conducting Mission Services, preachers are obliged almost to limit themselves to the simple message of the Gospel. The consequence is, that converts are in danger of resting in the first principles of the doctrine of Christ, instead of going on to perfection. Leaders in this department of Christian work should beware of all methods which tend to create a distaste for intellectual and spiritual instruction. Testimony is a great force, but it is not a substitute for the exposition of the Word of God. The Bible is our text-book, and not the human soul. People of a certain type are apt to express the Grace of God through the emotions rather than through the judgment, or through the conscience. Christian life is to be manifested in moral duties as well as in spiritual exercises. Stability of character depends upon Divine knowledge. Class-leaders, who are entrusted with the care of young converts, should be sensitively alive to the claims of moral and Christian culture. The training of those who have been rescued from degradation is a process which taxes the patience of those who devote themselves to it. Converted men have often a hard conflict to conquer old habits. 'The husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth.' In like manner we must wait for the fruit of the Spirit, in the fields of character and of life.

Permit us also to remind you that your association with the Church, and your growth in grace, depend upon your submission to discipline. We are living in a period of great liberty. Men are invested with political authority. There are certain Church principles which are not included in pioneer organizations. Some good men are impatient under the restraints of Church life, and withdraw themselves, and indulge in self-willed efforts for Christ's sake. People, moreover, have so much choice between one Church and another, and between one Mission and another, that they are in danger of developing the spirit and practice of vagrancy. Under these conditions the administration of Church discipline is difficult. The enforcement of rule and order contributes, in the case of unchastened people, to separation. Conscience needs to be educated in relation to Church-membership and Church authority. Liberty is not a call to licence, but an opportunity for voluntary obedience to prescribed rule. Our system of discipline, which is the outcome of the spiritual wisdom of our forefathers, contemplates order and obedience without the sacrifice of necessary freedom. Submit yourselves, therefore, dear brethren, to the ordinances of the Church for conscience' sake, and for the Lord's sake.

Society is an instrument of discipline in relation to social duty. So the Christian Church is an instrument of discipline in relation to spiritual duty. Trees which grow in the hedge-row are often stunted and disproportionate; trees in the coppice train each other, and they aspire towards heaven. Beware of selfish individuality. Cultivate social grace in spiritual fellowship. 'Be kindly affectioned one to another, with brotherly love; in honour preferring one another.' People who, under the plea of being Christians, claim to be superior to the laws and usages of any particular Church, can never develop the finer graces of the Christian character. The ordinances and rules of the Church may not appeal to you with all the authority which the New Testament possesses, but for that very reason they form a more delicate test of your submission and obedience. We exhort you to yield yourselves thereto; and, by so doing, to secure the discipline of your faculties, and the regulation of your life.

appeal to the unconverted multitudes who are outside all Church organizations, it is equally important to retain and to educate those who are already under our care. We fail to keep many who belong to us by birth and by training; and we lose many of those who are brought to profess the experience of converting grace. During the past five years 131,754 persons have ceased to meet in our Society Classes. There are large districts, both of town and country, in which our form of Christianity does not exist. The population of our land, moreover, is full of movement; hence it is easy to pass beyond the range of our active influence. Nevertheless our leakage is much too large, and every effort should be made to reduce it within the smallest limits.

We are not afraid to launch out into the deep, and to let down our nets for a draught; but we are apt to assume that the work has been done when the nets have been drawn to the beach, and the fish have been sorted and counted. Progress in numbers is desirable. Progress in character is yet more important. Enthusiastic demonstrations serve a great purpose, but they need to be followed by a diligent use of the methods of edification. Pleasant Sunday-Afternoon Services meet the needs of working people, but they are not substitutes for Senior Bible-classes. The thoughtful sermon has its mission as well as the impromptu address; and the School, which is an instrument of training, is as important as the Open-Air Service. Churches are built up, not only by popular services, but also by effective organization, by patient instruction, and by kindly discipline. Invidious comparisons between different branches of Church policy and different orders of men are out of place. Conversion needs to be followed by cultivation. The Church is the home of people of all types, all grades, and all degrees of Christian attainment. To cover the necessities of Church-life corresponding types of ministry are required: 'And He gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers; for the perfecting of the saints, unto the work of ministering, unto the building up of the body of Christ: till we all attain unto the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a full-grown man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ.'

The edification of the Church depends upon the efficiency of regular agencies and established ordinances. We rejoice to recognise the self-denying services of the officers and teachers in our Sunday-schools. The children of our country are prepared, by elementary education, for the reception of Divine knowledge. The style of teaching which served in generations gone by, is beneath the demands of the present time. But professional skill is not to be expected in amateurs. Qualities of heart are of great value in dealing with the young. After the pressure of Saturday it is hard to be perfectly prepared for the class-room on Sunday. We admire your perseverance in this branch of Christian work. You can have no higher mission than that of communicating the Word and Spirit of God to the youthful mind. Cultivate the art of teaching. Bring out the moral and spiritual lessons of Holy Scripture. Above all things, seek the conversion of the children. Early training is indispensable to the attainment of the full stature of Christian manhood.

We rejoice also in the work of our Class-leaders. We trust, dear brethren, that you have given special attention to the Report on Church-Membership which was adopted by the Conference of 1889. That Report contains suggestions which are calculated to secure uniformity of administration and certainty of membership. Nominal association with the Church is unsatisfactory. On the other hand, names are not to be removed from our records until every effort has been made to retain them. Our social Means of Grace are splendidly adapted to secure the results of evangelism. Intelligent Christians are specially qualified for spiritual fellowship. Spiritual testimony is the natural expression of the life of God. The social temperament is characterized by outspokenness. The reserved disposition tends towards secrecy. The representatives of these opposite types of nature should meet together, and educate each other. God has cast His creatures in many moulds, but spiritual life is one throughout the earth; and our ancient forms of fellowship are suited to the cultivation and the expression of that life.

The work of our Local-preachers claims grateful mention also. In these times of manifold and intense activity it is hard to combine preaching with a secular calling. In order to do this men must be content to modify the pursuits and habits of their lives. In the early days of Methodism influential laymen used to preach. They supplied in Circuits an element of continuity which an itinerant Ministry failed to furnish. Amongst men of culture and social position the practice of preaching has declined. Such men prefer civic duties to-day; and when they occupy public positions with dignity and honour, we rejoice with all our hearts; still we urge our educated young laymen to listen for the call of God, and, when they hear it, to respond, and to preach Jesus Christ.

The wish to preach is essential to the success of preaching. Dear brethren, our helpers in the ministry of the Word of Life, let us seek together a renewal of our commission, our experience, and our testimony; and, by the help of the Divine Spirit, we shall effect a renewal of the resources of life in our Churches. 'Follow after charity, and desire spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may prophesy.'

The subject of Temperance also demands earnest consideration. You will observe that the Conference has, this year, designated the Rev. G. A. Bennetts, B.A., to be set apart next year as Temperance Secretary. We commend him to your kindly interest. With your co-operation he will be able to organize and to extend this branch of our Church work.

The Conference has also expressed its judgment in regard to the growing evils of betting and gambling. This vice affects society most seriously; and we earnestly hope that ministers, Local-preachers, and Sunday-school teachers will give a most emphatic testimony against this demoralizing practice.

There are also certain features of the age, and certain habits of society, which affect religious life most powerfully, and hence you will need to cherish towards them a watchful spirit.

By reason of keen competition business has reached a difficult stage. The ambition to be rich, and even the necessity to live and to be honest, may place men in great temptations. Practices are often exposed which show how far men yield to wrongdoing. The most careful experiments may fail. Those who are unfortunate will not lack sympathy; but tricks of trade deserve condemnation. The commercial reputation of some men is a testimony to Christianity. Your spiritual experience will be influenced by your conduct in business life. We urge you to the practice of high principles. The world can bring no more serious charge against us than when it says that religious men are not always moral.

Another characteristic of the age is criticism. The accumulation of literature and the complexity of modern life have tended to produce this condition of mind and of temper.

Sound criticism contributes to simplicity and to reality, and therefore we welcome it. But by many the Bible is regarded not as a final and an authoritative declaration of Divine Truth, but simply as a literature. Yet by true scholarship, and by reverent interpretation, the meaning of the Holy Book has been developed with unexampled force; and, in spite of unbelief, the hold of revelation on human consciousness is firmer and deeper than it ever was. Brethren, suffer the word of exhortation. Your defence against doubt does not lie in argument so much as in experience. There is a marvellous correspondence between the Bible and the human soul. Let the truth mix with the soil of your nature, adding to its richness and its fruit-bearing power. Thus you will demonstrate the harmony between the Bible and the very nature of things; and so long as we can keep that demonstration before the world we have nothing to fear.

Churches also are subjected to utilitarian tests. Modes of worship, financial administration, religious societies and official men are estimated rigidly according to their practical value.

The advance of civilization has increased expenditure. The costs of Church administration have consequently grown. Careful men are tempted to think that spiritual results are hardly worth the money which they cost. But the Work of God is not to be measured by a financial standard. Economy is a religious duty; but meanness is unworthy of a follower of Jesus Christ. It is possible for a man to be lavish in his expenditure upon himself, and severely economical in his gifts to the Cause of God. The critical temper tends to weaken generous sentiment. Church Policy should not be discussed in a party spirit. The political temper is unsuited to any Church meeting. Reckless action and uncharitable speech are fatal to devotional feeling. Delicate articles and fine textures need to be handled with care; and, in like manner, spiritual facts and circumstances require to be manipulated with caution, gentleness and conscientiousness.

Our Foreign Missionary Society has been subjected to criticism. It is now open to the most searching investigation, and we have no fear in regard to the issue. Certain questions of policy, which have been contemplated for some time, will now be more closely considered; and you may be sure that all modifications which may be necessary and desirable will be made.

Missionary Society has been the glory of our Church. We beseech you to rally to its support. We commend it to your sympathy and to your prayers.

The age in which we live is also intensely practical. Action is quickened. Duties are multiplied. Agencies abound. Our spiritual faculties are often weary, and our work suffers in consequence. It is difficult to prepare our own souls for duties which follow each other in such quick succession. The activity of modern life deserves our sympathy; and yet it is attended by danger: danger to Christian faith, and to inward experience. Unless we keep ourselves in meditative contact with the Word of God, and in habitual communion with our living Lord, we shall lack those inward resources on which practical life depends, and our work will become a strain, a mechanical exercise, a weariness of the flesh and of the spirit.

The intensity of practical life involves the necessity of recreation. When our energies are worn down they must be renewed by rest and change. The habit of spending the Lord's day by the seaside is growing. Facilities for travel are tempting people to extend their journeys to other countries. These periods may be used so as to refresh both soul and body. On the other hand, they may be spent so as to cause spiritual decline. They imply, of necessity, some interruption of our habits of devotion and practical service, and for this reason they are dangerous. When we have withdrawn ourselves from the religious associations with which we are familiar, we need to exercise all our moral and spiritual self-control. When we have relaxed our work we must continue our worship, our private prayer, and the meditative reading of the Word of God. It will avail us but little if, while we renew our physical vigour, we sink into spiritual languor.

Suffer us also to warn you against the worldliness of the day. We are living in the midst of a great reaction from Puritanism. Sympathy is turning from the spiritual to the natural side of things. Town life has produced a new passion for rural nature. Civilization is creating artificial wants. Art is clothing objects in sensuous garments which are most attractive. Ingenuity is manufacturing new forms of enjoyment. Travel is contributing to the knowledge of the world. Current literature is devoted to descriptions of natural scenery. There is much in all this with which we can sympathize. Every part of human nature should be provided for in the programme of life. But there is danger in this tendency, especially for those

Spirit, home to the hearts and consciences of all our countrymen. We love them all, and long earnestly for their salvation from sin and error, and we hail every opening to preach to them the Gospel of redeeming love. But though our aim and our testimony are one with yours, we would again remind you that our work is carried on under conditions which you can scarcely understand. Only those who toil under the shadow of a great system of error can correctly gauge the difficulties incident to such toil. We do not magnify our difficulties, or seek to use them as an excuse for indolence or half-heartedness in our work, but we cannot overlook them in estimating the strength and value of that work, and we affectionately ask you not to overlook them in your estimate of us and of our success. We report this year only a small increase of members, but we are not without many tokens of God's presence and favour, and of blessing such as no returns of membership can tabulate. From amongst the children of our own people we reap our richest harvest of conversions, but we also know what it is to gather into the Saviour's fold those who are outside the Churches. The history of our new mission in Belfast already furnishes us with blessed examples of God's power to reach and save the lowest through our instrumentality. Our General Mission has its own rich record of blessing; and in the quieter spheres of ordinary Circuit work in town and country many a brand has been plucked from the burning, and many a heart made glad with God's pardoning love. Still more do we rejoice over those who, through the preaching of the Gospel by us, the reading of God's Word, and the saintly home-life of our people, have been led to renounce Romanism, and have sought and found rest for their souls in the Lord Jesus Christ. We do not speak much of these successes, but we feel bound to inform you that they are more frequent than many even of our own people imagine. There is to-day a growing hunger for the Word of God, a growing desire to know the true way, a growing disposition to question the dogmas of the Church, and we believe that Roman Catholic Ireland will yet pour her wealth of love and devotion at the feet of the Lord Jesus Christ.

We desire also to thank God for the success achieved by our first efforts at Colportage, and for loud calls to larger effort in this direction, for the liberality and unity of our people, for peace in all our borders, for a large supply of ministerial candidates, and for a rising ministry which is resolved to emulate the best deeds of those who planted Methodism amongst us.

Our colleges in Dublin and Belfast continue to promote the cause of Intermediate and Higher education. Wesley College, Dublin, is still burdened with a heavy debt; but the Rev. John W. Jones has been re-appointed to the work of debt-extinction, and we heartily commend him and his work to your sympathy and help. We desire gratefully to acknowledge the distinguished honour which you have conferred upon us in the election of our beloved brother, the Rev. Wallace M'Mullen, D.D., to be your Representative to the General Conference in Canada. During the year, five honoured brethren have passed to their reward. Amongst their number was one well-known to you, the Rev. John Ker, D.D., a man whose unselfish and herculean services in the Cause of God and of Irish Methodism will not soon be forgotten by us.

We are glad to inform you that the improvement in the state of our country which we reported last year has been maintained, and we pray that it may not only continue but increase yet more and more.

We ask for a continuance of your sympathy and prayer and aid in our efforts to win this land for Jesus Christ. We ask you to help us in our fight against Sabbath desecration, intemperance and impurity. We also appeal to you to assist us in defeating all legislative measures which would lead to the further endowment of Romanism, or tend to its supremacy in this portion of the United Kingdom.

We send you as our representatives the Rev. Oliver M'Cutcheon—whom we nominate as Delegate, the Rev. William Nicholas, D.D., and the Rev. James D. Lamont, brethren in whom we have the fullest confidence, who will give you a more detailed account of our work. 'Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the Word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you.' Praying that the blessing of God may rest in unusual measure upon you,

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

JAMES DONNELLY, Secretary.

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1890,

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE IRISH CONFERENCE OF 1890.

REVEREND AND DEAR BRETHREN,—

We salute you most cordially in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, both yours and ours. We have received your Address with feelings of warm sympathy and deep gratitude to Almighty God for the tokens of His continued presence with you, and the measure of spiritual prosperity which He has bestowed upon you. We have welcomed very heartily the Rev. Oliver M'Cutcheon, Dr. Nicholas, and James D. Lamont, the Representatives who, together with other distinguished ministers of your number, have visited us this year; and the account they have been able to give of your state and progress has encouraged and comforted us.

Be assured once more, dear brethren, of our sincere sympathy with you in those special difficulties which retard the progress of your work, and prevent you from recording any very large increase of numbers. The conditions under which your work is carried on are ever borne in mind by us; and though we may not fully understand the pressure of your difficulties, we know how dark are the shadows cast by a great system of superstition and error, and we rejoice in the fidelity and earnestness with which you endeavour to sow the seeds of light and truth, proclaiming the Gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ in its simplicity, and striving to illustrate, in your lives, its purity and power. We are assured, with you, that the return of only a small increase in the number of your members should not be regarded as discouraging. It is no small matter that amidst diminishing population, political disquietudes, and the cease-activities of other Christian Churches, you should be able to hold your ground, and make some slight advance. In your case, more than in most Churches, it is true that success cannot be adequately gauged by statistical returns. It has been your work in the past, and it will continue to be your work, in large measure to labour for others. You sow what others reap. You labour, others enter into your labours. In our own British Churches, in the United States, in Canada, and other colonies of this great Empire, are to be found the fruits of your faithful, patient, unassuming efforts. Of the Methodist Church in Ireland it will be said in the great day when the Lord writeth up the peoples, that 'this and that man was born in her,' who, in distant parts of the earth, has lived and toiled for the Master. These shall form a part of the crown which, in that day, you shall be permitted to cast at His feet.

The indirect influence also of your testimony is being felt upon the Roman Catholicism of your country, and it is greater than can at present be estimated. We rejoice to hear from you that proofs of the reality and growing power of this influence are becoming patent among you; and we would earnestly exhort you to labour still in the patience of hope, not undervaluing the importance of definite and tangible results, but anxious chiefly to maintain, in all its fulness, the silently leavening influence of truth and love. Strive still to be, as you have been in the past, as the salt of the earth, the light of the world. To keep alight the torch of truth in the towns and country districts where God has permitted you to kindle it, and help to preserve your beloved country in some degree from the corruptions of error and superstition, is no mean task. A church, not large in numbers, but godly, generous, earnest, prayerful, loving and laborious in all that is good, cannot but be an unspeakable blessing to any nation. May you still find it your joy to bear your testimony to the truth which has made you free, and which we rejoice with you to believe will yet bring to Ireland 'the liberty of the glory of the sons of God.'

We have been interested to observe the special features of your work to which you draw attention. The success which has attended your new and special efforts in Belfast is matter of devout thankfulness, as is also the quiet progress of your General Missions. We are glad to hear that the work of Colportage upon which you are entering is so full of promise, and that you continue to prosecute your efforts in the cause of Intermediate and Higher education. The continued improvement in the state of your country to which you refer affords ground for gratitude to Almighty God, upon Whose guidance and blessing all national prosperity depends. We pray that He, in whose hands are the hearts of kings and peoples alike, may so order the course of events by His governance that you and the whole Church of Christ may joyfully serve Him in all godly quietness. Amidst so much that is disturbing in the political world, and discouraging in your immediate surroundings, the work of Methodism remains the same: 'To reform the world, especially the Church, and spread Scriptural holiness throughout the land.' May you still be encouraged to make this your one object, turning aside from it neither to the right hand nor the left, assured that if in this sense you 'seek first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness,' other blessings, for which you earnestly seek, will be added unto you.

For ourselves, we have very much to encourage us, though we are not without reminders of the great need of watchfulness and fidelity. There are many signs of growing and deepening interest in Home-Missionary operations; not only in those special enterprises which are carried on amidst the swarming multitudes of our large towns, but in whole districts where the Work of God amongst us has somewhat flagged, there are most encouraging tokens of awakened life and renewed energies. The trials through which our Foreign Missionary Society has had to pass have issued in the complete vindication of the character of our missionaries; and we trust we are entering upon a period of renewed missionary effort and enterprise. The call to renewed effort at home and abroad is loud; the opportunities which God gives us in all directions are abundant; and we long to respond more fully to the Divine call, and be more faithful and diligent in our use of these sacred opportunities. Enemies are busy around us, with whose evil machinations you are familiar: the 'rulers of this world's darkness' are very mighty and ever active. Other dangers we have to guard against, of which you happily know less. The conflict with unbelief in its various forms is severe, and the disintegration of faith, here and there manifest around us, might cause alarm. But we are thankful to God, Who has kept us united in the defence of the Gospel; and we preserve unwavering faith in the power of the truth as it is in Jesus to conquer all. We ask your prayers, as we never cease to remember and pray for you.

We have elected on your nomination the Rev. William Gorman and John Woods Ballard as members of the Legal Conference in place of the Rev. Thomas C. Maguire and John Henning. We have appointed the Rev. David J. Waller, our Secretary, Charles H. Kelly, Ex-President, and Frederic W. Macdonald to accompany our President to your next Conference.

And now we pray that your faith may grow exceedingly, and your charity increase and abound; that 'the God of hope may fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost,' now and evermore.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

DAVID J. WALLER, Secretary.

OF THE

CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST CHURCH IN FRANCE AND SWITZERLAND, 1890,

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1890.

HONOURED FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—

We have received with gratitude your answer to the Address of our last Conference. The Christian affection and intelligent sympathy of which it is the expression have cheered us in our labours and in our trials. The visit of your esteemed and able Representative, the Rev. George W. Olver, B.A., whose presence among us is increasingly welcome, has confirmed the impression made by your Address. We desire to be increasingly known, appreciated and loved by you.

You know something of our difficulties; we will not again enumerate them. To one of them, however, it may be well to refer, as it seems to be taking an accentuated form. Roman Catholicism appears to be rousing itself for a forward movement, imitating, after a fashion, revival services, and even adapting to its own use some of the methods employed by the Salvation Army.

From the different fields of Evangelization which we have recently occupied we have encouraging tidings. Cherbourg, Nancy, and the North of France present hopeful signs. And if we had the needful resources, several other large towns might at once be occupied as Evangelistic stations. In some large towns we feel the want of Mission-rooms connected with the central chapel. And at Levallois-Perret, a large and growing suburb of the city of Paris, the need of a commodious chapel, with lecture-room and Class-rooms adjoining, is strongly felt.

We remark with joy that in many of our churches a considerable number of promising youths are rising up. As the far greater part of these youths belong to the families of the poor, it is extremely desirable to provide educational advantages for them. And this education must be, in many cases, gratuitous. Other Protestant Churches have made large provision for this need, and have by this means drawn away from our Communion many pious and talented youths. And unless we are content to be drained of our life-blood, we must 'provide for those of our own household.' All these youths will not become Ministers, but they will form an educated and attached Methodist laity.

Our Algerian Mission is still in its infancy. Toiling and sorrowing, not often rejoicing, our faithful missionary pursues his work, 'looking for and hastening unto' the time when the false prophet, as well as the beast and the dragon, shall be finally overthrown.

The smallness of our number prevents our taking any distinctive action as a Church in the many vast and thrilling social questions of the day. But the admirable practical philanthropy of the venerable James Hocart employs itself with ever-increasing success in rescuing abandoned infancy, and housing these helpless waifs in the 'Children's Home.'

We follow with close attention the evolution of the principles of Methodism which is taking place under your vigilant and wise direction. Walking in your footsteps, we have this year resolved to call our laymen in larger numbers to participate in the business of the Conference in its Representative Session.

We have designated as our Representative to your Conference our retiring President, the Rev. Matthieu Lelièvre, D.D. It is needless to recommend him to your cordial reception, for we believe him to be as highly esteemed and almost as well-known on your side of the water as on ours.

The choice of the Conference, which we respectfully ask you to ratify, has again fallen upon the Rev. William Cornforth, D.D., to fill the office of President for the ensuing year. His administrative skill and rare tact in the management of a business meeting recommend him for this, his eighth re-election.

We pray that the Spirit of wisdom and understanding, the Spirit of counsel and might, the Spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the Lord, may rest upon you in your deliberative Sessions and in your Public Services.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

MATTHEW GALLIENNE, Secretary.

THE ANSWER

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1890,

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST CHURCH IN FRANCE AND SWITZERLAND, 1890.

REVEREND AND DEAR BRETHREN,—

Joined with our people in an open Session, we have listened with deep interest to your fraternal message, and to the Address of your eloquent Representative, Dr. Lelièvre, which unfolded it. We haste to say that your affection meets with a hearty response from every member of this Conference and from our people at large.

We congratulate you on the more settled political condition of your country. The storm which threatened you a year ago has rolled away. In many respects the outlook is more cheering than it has been for a century. Your nation has shown a dignity in its reverses, a self-control in its temptations, and a power of recovery from its disasters, which have gladdened us all. We feel more than we did in the days of your political ascendency, the greatness of the French people.

You always follow with interest the courses of our development; and it is a delight to us to confide to you our counsels and our hopes. The relation of our laymen to the Conference has engaged our earnest and prolonged attention, for we feel that their part in our deliberations cannot be too real and effective. It was found that to close the pastoral Session before we had consulted with our lay brethren caused many hindrances and delays in the business of the Conference. To overcome these it has been decided, with general consent, to follow the arrangement which has worked so well in our District Meetings, and hold the joint Session in the middle of the Pastoral Session. Throughout the discussion we have seen no disposition on the part of the laity to invade the rights and privileges of the Pastorate, but only an earnest wish to discharge more efficiently their own functions. We are now considering how to make Lay Representation more close and direct. This is not a simple matter, as the structure of our Church, the form which it has taken in the moulding hands of Providence, hardly allows of the adoption of the simple expedients of our political system. We are glad to see that you are alive to the importance of associating your laity, as far as our Church principles will allow, in your counsels and responsibilities.

The Class-Meeting has ceased, at any rate for the present, to be a matter of debate among us. The attention which has been directed to it has had many valuable results. It has been seen more clearly than ever that it is the structural principle of Methodism, and one of the most efficient organs of our spiritual life. It may be desirable to adapt it more closely to the needs of various temperaments and stages of religious development; but it would be as wanton as it would be difficult to displace it. We need not entreat you to cherish the Class-Meeting as an essential feature of Methodism.

We do not wonder that you are anxiously considering the social problems which are everywhere pressing for solution. It may be that these problems are not in themselves more serious than those which have always confronted the humane, and that the special trouble of this age only arises from seeing them more clearly and feeling them more keenly. Certainly society has resources for dealing with them which no previous generation has possessed. Let us, therefore, be of good courage. We rejoice with you in the successful philanthropy of our venerable brother Hocart; and we join in your lament that the fewness of your numbers and the narrowness of your means prevent you from taking the conspicuous part, which your zeal desires, in social effort. It is unnecessary to remind you that to preach the Gospel faithfully is the best service that you can render to your fellow-men, and that every conversion is an important contribution to the regeneration of society.

We deeply sympathize with you in your financial straits. You have not the resources which your circumstances demand, and which your zeal could so well employ. In the evangelization of the masses and in the education of your youth you are sorely restrained. It would be a great joy to us if we could increase our help; but you are fully aware of the lamentable insufficiency of our Missionary income to meet the urgent and reasonable appeals which come from all our stations. It is to be hoped that after a period of perplexity and distress, our Missionary Society is entering on an era of enlarged resources and increased success.

The difficulties of your situation, brethren, are never forgotten by us. An ancient Church, with an imposing history and a bewitching ritual, and with a theological and moral system skilfully accommodated to the weakness of the human heart, is putting forth, as you remind us, special efforts to regain its lost hold of the masses of the people. A philosophy, which elevates agnosticism into one of its first principles and discharges men from many unwelcome obligations, is clothed with a literary charm. Works of fiction, which adorn the grossest and excuse the vilest passions of our nature, are instilling poison into the veins of the people. How can a small and humble Church resist this misrepresentation of Christianity, and this perversion of philosophy and art? We recognise sadly that your modest successes are all that can be looked for from the circumstances of the case.

Our interest in your work is not entirely unselfish, for we feel that the conditions of your country are a peril to ours. Beneath the sea that severs is the land that binds us together. England has always been sensitive to every movement of the mind, to every throb of the heart of France, and is especially so in this age with its increased facilities of communication. Our work in France, in its measure, is of little less importance to us than our work at home.

We bid you encourage yourselves, brethren, in the confidence that you hold the truth of God in its integrity and without the admixtures of superstition. Many signs suggest that your fellow-countrymen are growing weary of theories which supply no motives to duty, no consolations in sorrow, no hope in death. They will not be able to find rest in any form of Christianity which denies the rights of conscience and insults the common understanding. What part you will play in the unfoldings of the Providence of God, it is impossible to forecast. But to have any part in preserving, in its purity and vigour, the Evangelical tradition against the day when your country shall be prepared to receive it, to contribute in the humblest measure to the moral and spiritual renovation of France, is a high and honourable vocation.

We are very near the end of the first century of Methodist effort in France. The visible results are somewhat disappointing to an impatient faith. But we retain all our confidence in you, brethren beloved, and we will sustain you to the utmost of our power in your arduous work.

This Conference heartily ratifies your choice of the Rev. William Cornforth, D.D., as your President for the ensuing year.

'And now we commend you to God, and to the Word of His Grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified.'

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

DAVID J. WALLER, Secretary.

THE ADDRESS

OF THE

SOUTH AFRICAN CONFERENCE OF 1890,

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1890.

HONOURED FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—

Once more we are permitted, by the mercy of God, to send you our greetings, which we do with sincere affection and brotherly regard.

We have heard with deep thankfulness that you have us in remembrance, and that we have a place in your prayers.

We rejoice in the bonds of filial relationship which bind us to British Methodism, and are determined to do nothing to weaken, but everything to strengthen those bonds.

Throughout another year we have endeavoured to preach, with fidelity and fervour, the great truths and doctrines which have hitherto been the life and strength of our beloved Methodism; and the Lord has been with us confirming the Word with signs following.

Our only hope of success in the great work that lies before us is in the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ. To that Gospel our attachment is as strong and fervent as ever.

We have been greatly cheered by the growth of almost every department of our work. Our progress is not rapid, but steady and sure. In this city, seven years ago, we held our first Conference, and hopefully assumed the new and heavy responsibilities which were then committed to us. 'Hitherto the Lord hath helped us.' Our membership has since grown at the average rate of more than a thousand a year; and to-day 28,776 full members, 10,000 on trial, and 4,734 in junior Society-Classes, are enrolled in our fellowship.

The exodus of members and adherents to the Transvaal Gold Fields, from which we suffered greatly last year, and from which we continue to suffer, has been considerably checked. At the same time the commercial and agricultural interests of South Africa, which from some years past have been seriously depressed, are beginning to revive. We anticipate with confidence a period of growing prosperity.

Our people have generously and nobly sustained our various institutions and enterprises.

The recently formed Missionary Society is steadily gaining intelligent and sympathetic support in every part of the Connexion. The income of the past year has risen to no less a sum than £4339, an increase of £489 on the year 1888, but we regret to say that the increase does not nearly compensate for the reduction of the grant. We are profoundly conscious of the importance of maintaining our missionary character and traditions, and have resolved to abate nothing of our zeal and labour for the complete evangelization, and the intellectual and moral elevation of the Native races of this land. We have resolved to give to all our native candidates for the Ministry, save in very exceptional cases, two years of theological instruction at one of our institutions; and we feel increasingly the need of some provision for the adequate training of European candidates.

In some respects the year has been one of grave anxiety. Some of the brethren have been called to sustain painful family bereavements, and several others have failed in health partially or completely. Two of our number, Brothers T. Cresswell and J. Mtimkulu, the former after thirty years, and the latter after seven years of faithful and honourable service, have passed to their eternal reward.

We note with pleasure the visit of the Rev. Alexander M'Aulay to this country for the purpose of conducting Revival Missions in our Colonial and Native Circuits. We gratefully record the success which has already attended his labours among us, and trust that the work that still lies before him may be characterized by the same blessed results.

The return of the Rev. J. Smith Spencer to England involves a very serious loss to this Conference and Connexion. Mr. Spencer has taken an active and prominent part in almost all matters pertaining to the consolidation and extension of our work. As the Secretary of the Conference in 1887 and 1888, as President in 1889, and as the Secretary of the Missionary Society for several years, he has rendered great and varied services to this Connexion, and by his unfailing courtesy and brotherliness has won the affectionate regard of his brethren. We earnestly hope and pray that he may long be sustained in health and strength to serve the Church of Christ.

We have appointed the Rev. J. Smith Spencer and the Rev. William Wynne to convey to you this our Address, and to represent us at your Annual Conference.

We thank you for accepting our nomination of the Rev. S. Evans Rowe for the Presidency. His conspicuous ability in the conduct of the business of the Conference, and his wise and seasonable utterances in our public Conferential services, have abundantly justified his appointment to the chair. We cherish the hope that his year of office will be eminently happy and prosperous.

It has afforded us much pleasure to receive, as a Deputation from the Transvaal, the Rev. Owen Watkins and George Weavind; and we are of opinion that an occasional and, if possible, a regular interchange of Representatives between this Conference and the Transvaal and Zwaziland District would help to promote the interests of the Work of God.

We have much pleasure in nominating as our President for next year the Rev. Peter Hargreaves, and we respectfully request you to appoint him.

For thirty-two years Mr. Hargreaves has been a most devoted and successful missionary in Tembuland and Pondoland, and for the last five years Chairman of the Clarkebury District. He is well known to you, and greatly beloved by us, and his elevation to the chair of the Conference in 1891 would be timely and wise.

We earnestly pray that the Sessions of your Conference may be marked by the presence and blessing of Almighty God.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

JAMES SCOTT, Secretary.

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE OF 1890,

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE CONFERENCE OF THE WESLEYAN-METHODIST CHURCH OF SOUTH AFRICA, 1890.

REVEREND AND DEAR BRETHREN,—

It has been a real joy to us to receive once more your Annual greeting. Most heartily do we reciprocate your warm expressions of affection and goodwill. Widely different as are the conditions of our work, we have much in common. We are one with you in spirit. We are one in aim. We take a deep and abiding interest in all that affects the welfare of the Churches under your care. We sympathise with you in all your difficulties. We rejoice with you in all your successes. We 'cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in our prayers.'

Recent events have given to Africa a very prominent place in the public mind; and we, as a Conference, are fully alive to the far-reaching issues which are involved in your fidelity to the great trust which in the Providence of God you have received. Whether we consider the vastness of the territory over which your operations extend, the splendid results which have been already achieved, or the untold possibilities which are opening before you, we are profoundly impressed with the magnitude of the work in which you are engaged.

The Hand of God is clearly traceable in the planting of the Methodist Church on the great Continent of Africa, and we cannot but regard it as a signal token of His favour that at this juncture, when such high hopes are entertained concerning the future, you should be in a position to exert a powerful and beneficent influence.

We do not forget the important services both to civilization and to Christianity which you have rendered in the past. Your native Churches have long been regarded by us as amongst the most precious fruits of Missionary toil. And the generous provision which you have made for the spiritual nurture of our own sons and daughters, who have left our shores to find a home in the regions beyond, has placed us under great obligations. You have had amongst you men of a princely spirit, whose benefactions have done much to lay the foundations of the superstructure which you are raising to-day. You inherit some of the noblest traditions of Methodism, and we rejoice to know that there never was a time when those traditions were more worthily maintained, 'and our hope of you is steadfast.'

The difficulties connected with the perfecting of your Organization are formidable, but we gather from your Address that they are being steadily overcome. We trust that ere long you will be able to give effect to the wise counsels by which your future action is to be determined. Suitable provision for the training of colonial candidates for your Ministry will doubtless be made in due time. Meanwhile, the British Conference will not be slow to render you such help as lies within its power. We note with satisfaction that you propose to give to all your native candidates a sound theological training. This is a point to which we attach much importance, and we wish you God-speed in the endeavour.

We needed no assurance that you hold fast by the old truths, and that you are resolved to preach them with the fervour and simplicity which have ever characterized your Ministry. Our own Conference has again given full proof of the jealousy with which it guards the sacred deposit committed to us. We recognise with you the vital connection which exists between a right belief and right action. For ourselves we are determined to be faithful. And we are fully persuaded that you also are loyal to those great doctrines which it has been our peculiar mission to expound, and which, by the mercy of God, have hitherto been preserved in their integrity amongst us. We have a rich heritage, and so long as the Methodist people are true to their trust, we need have no fear of the destroyer.

We have given a cordial welcome to your honoured Representatives, the Rev. J. Smith Spencer and the Rev.

William Wynne. It has afforded us much pleasure to hear of your affairs. We have followed with fraternal interest the various labours of Mr. Spencer, whom you have specially honoured, and we thankfully recognise the valuable services he has been able to render to Methodism in South Africa; and we have also observed with warm approval the successful efforts of his colleague on behalf of the natives of many tribes employed in the diamond industry at Kimberley.

Your choice of a President for the next year is one in which we entirely concur. The name of the Rev. Peter Hargreaves has long been familiar to us as one of your most devoted and successful missionaries, and we rejoice in the honour which you have conferred upon him. We heartily confirm his nomination.

We are truly thankful to hear of the hopeful outlook of your newly-formed Missionary Society. 'A great door and effectual is opened unto you.' We trust that the generosity of your people, which is so marked, will enable you to fulfil your heart's desire. Would that it were in the power of our own Missionary Society to render you more efficient aid. Every part of your work calls forth our ready sympathy, but we are specially mindful of those who minister, often amid much hardship, to sparse and widely scattered populations. We are glad to know you care for these as well as for the teeming myriads beyond.

We are relieved to find that there are signs of returning commercial prosperity. Our hope is that the development of your material resources, which has of late years been phenomenal, will not be further arrested, and that 'the present distress' will soon give place to a more favourable state of things.

The year has been to us also a year of anxiety, notwithstanding many tokens of the Divine Presence amongst us. But by the good hand of our God upon us we have, as we trust, been safely brought through our most pressing difficulties. The Conference of 1890 will be memorable, not only as affording a signal instance of the wisdom which has been brought to bear upon the solution of grave and intricate problems in our Church-life, but also as exemplifying in a very remarkable way our strong and ardent attachment to the Missionary cause.

We mourn with you over the devastating influence of the liquor traffic amongst the native races. We, too, have our Drink Question, and are greatly exercised by the appalling evils which are wrought through the facilities afforded for gratifying this debasing appetite. We trust the day is not far distant when some means will be devised for restraining this pernicious traffic both at home and abroad. We have this year designated a Minister for the appointment of Connexional Temperance Secretary, and we have every reason to believe that this appointment will do much to awaken a deeper interest in this important part of our work.

We are, by the blessing of God, able to report an increase in our Membership, though it is not so large as we could have desired. We have, however, much to encourage us. We are resolved to address ourselves with renewed ardour to the great work of spreading Scriptural holiness throughout the land. We are giving increased attention to the social needs of our fellow-men around us, and in our Circuit life as well as at our great Mission centres much is being done to uplift the poorest and the most degraded. A very important branch of our Home-Mission work is that which relates to our soldiers and sailors. We are pleased to know that you contemplate the erection of a Soldiers' Home in South Africa. We trust that the movement which you have set on foot for the benefit of the Army and Navy will be crowned with success.

The year has brought to some of you personal sorrow. We deeply sympathize with those who have been bereaved. We, too, have had our losses. Conspicuous amongst these we have to record the death of one to whose heart Africa was very dear, and who has left behind him precious and inspiring memories of service which is destined to bring forth yet more abundant fruit in more than one field of Mission toil. The name of the late Rev. John Kilner, D.D., who did so much to prepare the way for your existence as an affiliated Conference, will long be remembered with grateful affection by you.

And now, Brethren, 'We commend you to God, and to the word of His grace.' 'Be perfect, . . . be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you.'

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

DAVID J. WALLER, Secretary.

THE ANSWER

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE, 1889,

TO THE

ADDRESS OF THE FIFTH GENERAL CONFERENCE OF THE AUSTRALASIAN WESLEYAN-METHODIST CHURCH, 1886.

REVEREND AND DEAR BRETHREN,—

We duly received the loyal and loving Address of your last General Conference, and we gladly avail ourselves of the opportunity of reciprocating the 'cordial greetings' which it conveyed. As 'the friends of all, and the enemies of none,' we are ever ready to offer the prayer of the Apostle: 'Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity;' but the prayer, in our case, gains special force and emphasis from the consideration of the peculiarly tender ties which bind you to ourselves.

We rejoice greatly with you in the review of the part which Methodism has sustained in the religious progress of our colonies in the Southern World. Marvellous as have been the political and social developments of the Australasian Continent and its adjacent islands during the past hundred years, not less wonderful, and far more hopeful and inspiring is the progress which has been made by the Churches of Christ. In the great future, which we may safely predict for your country, we have all confidence that Methodism will maintain the honourable position which she has gained in the sisterhood of Churches, as a living embodiment and expression not only of sanctified zeal, but of 'whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report;' and our fervent prayer and hope is that the material and social prosperity of the colonies may be leavened by an ever-deepening and ever-aggressive religious life. In our Annual Address to the Methodist Societies there is a paragraph which we venture to repeat: 'Practical holiness has always carried with it a surpassing force; but in this day, when men are less influenced by tradition and reasoning than perhaps they ever were before, character acquires quite an exceptional significance.'

We are grateful to learn from your Address, that in your discussions as to the conditions of Church-membership, 'there has been the heartiest unanimity concerning the great value of the Class-Meeting as a means of grace;' and that 'no wish has been expressed to depose it from the place of honour which it occupies among the spiritual agencies of the Methodist Church.' We have felt, with you, the difficulty of dealing with the many godly persons connected with our congregations who, on various grounds, decline to avail themselves of this form of Church-fellowship; but, after long and anxious deliberation, we cannot bring ourselves to approve of any change in the conditions of membership that would seem to lower the significance or impair the efficacy of this ordinance. Our policy is not to alter the conditions of membership, but in every possible way to improve the character of the Class-meeting.

The methods which we are adopting in order to overtake, as far as possible, the spiritual necessities of the great centres of human life, are the natural and normal development of Methodism, which is instinctively aggressive. The great success which has attended our so-called 'Forward Movement' bears witness, that without any violation of the principles of our economy, and in perfect fidelity to our doctrines and discipline, Methodism, under God's blessing, is capable of grappling with the gravest problems of the world's moral life. Your circumstances differ in some degree from ours; but they are amenable to the same gracious influence. You 'stand pledged anew' to do your share in the great mission of Methodism: the spreading of Scriptural holiness throughout the world; and the great Head of the Church stands pledged to give you His blessing. This mission necessarily involves a certain elasticity of adaptation to the changing conditions of society, but it need not detract from the supremacy of our regular Circuit work.

We deeply sympathize with you in your care and anxiety in relation to the unhappy disruption of the Methodist Church in Tonga. Mysterious, indeed, is the Providence which has permitted so grave a calamity to fall upon what you justly describe as 'one of the most successful Missions of the Wesleyan Church.' We understand that the methods which you have adopted in order to bring about 'a reconciliation between the parties that are at variance' have not, for the present, succeeded. But, though 'the vision' of this blessed reconciliation may 'tarry,' 'it will surely come' if in patient faith you 'wait for it;' and 'the Sun of Righteousness shall arise with healing in His wings.'

You were right in assuming that we should be gratified to learn that you have made a hopeful beginning of the movement in the direction of Higher Education. The opening of the Queen's College is full of promise; and it is not without reason that you cherish the prospect of direct spiritual as well as social and intellectual results, as the issue of this enterprise. We have been signally successful in this direction. The Mission undertaken by the former scholars of the Leys School has done a great work in the heart of London; and we have sanctioned an important scheme for a University Settlement in one of the most neglected quarters of the Metropolis, in connection with which Wesleyan graduates will carry on evangelistic, educational and social work among the masses.

The deliberate attacks which have been made on the principles and policy of Foreign Missions have not shaken our faith in this branch of our work; nor have they impaired our confidence in the wise discretion and self-denying zeal of our agents. The fierce light which beats upon all Christian organizations to-day has not revealed any fatal flaw in our methods; it has only driven us to a more simple trust in Him from Whose lips we have received the Great Commission: 'Go ye into all the world, and preach the Gospel to every creature.'

We were glad to welcome your Deputation to our Conference in Cornwall, and to 'hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind, striving together for the faith of the Gospel.'

'And now, brethren, we commend you to God, and to the word of His grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified.'

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

DAVID J. WALLER, Secretary.

OF THE

SIXTH GENERAL CONFERENCE

OF THE

AUSTRALASIAN WESLEYAN-METHODIST CHURCH, 1890,

TO

THE BRITISH CONFERENCE, 1890.

REV. AND DEAR FATHERS AND BRETHREN,—

Assembled again in Conference, we desire to renew our expressions of regard and love for the parent Conference in Great Britain. We observe with eager interest the results of your annual deliberations, and greatly rejoice in the tokens of prosperity that are presented by your work from year to year.

As you are quite aware, our own work in the Southern Hemisphere has been, and must for a long time continue to be, carried on in the midst of new and untried conditions. Our strength as a Church, our zeal and our capacity of service, are taxed to the utmost to meet those conditions with safety and success. Moreover, the adaptability of our Connexional and itinerant system to the requirements of an increasing but widely scattered population is frequently put to a severe test. We rejoice, however, to assure you that although it is often with great anxiety that we watch the course of events, the elasticity of our principles, and the loyalty of our Ministers and people to the essential doctrines and usages of Methodism, afford strong encouragement; and, moreover, we have a firm persuasion that God will be with us in the future even as He has been in the past.

Several questions of the highest importance and gravity have engaged our attention at this Conference. The question of Church-membership is one of these. We have read your own debates, and carefully studied the conclusions you have reached on the same vital subject. It has been a distinct advantage to us to have had the results of your experience and councils before us in our discussions. Our decision, whilst conserving the great principle of Christian fellowship as the vital centre of Church organization, and our Class-Meeting as an approved test of membership, so far modifies the form of that institution as to meet, we trust, the case of many who hitherto have stood aloof from Church-membership.

Another important question has been the enlargement of the powers of the annual Conferences. This we have adjusted by widening in some degree the sphere of administration, so as to allow of greater freedom of action in the several Conferences without infringing the legislative authority of the General Conference, or endangering the unity and integrity of our Australasian Church.

We regret to say that the unhappy state of affairs in Tonga continues to cause us very great anxiety. The hope of reconciliation and re-union between the separated sections of the Church there must for the present be deferred. We have, however, solicited the good offices of Her Majesty's High Commissioner, Sir. John Bates Thurston, during his contemplated visit to the Islands, with a view to the removal of the disabilities under which our people continue to suffer. We have also re-appointed the Rev. George Brown as our special commissioner to Tonga, to watch over the interests of our Church in that group, and to direct its operations. And we trust that the time is approaching when our people in Tonga will have full religious freedom, and when 'walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Ghost' they shall be 'multiplied.'

The extension of our missions in the South Seas, especially in New Guinea, is pressing upon us with increasing urgency. Our success, by the blessing of God, in New Britain, encourages fresh enterprise in this region; and an invitation to take under our special charge the islands along the eastern coast of the mainland offers an immediate opportunity, of which we earnestly desire to avail ourselves, by which the field of our Foreign Missionary operations will be greatly widened.

Our Home-Mission work is equally urgent in its demands, and our attention has been for some time specially directed to the condition of the masses in our large towns. The zeal and enterprise displayed in this department of your great work at home have stimulated us in the task before us. We are thankful that success has attended such efforts as have been put forth, thereby affording both stimulus and encouragement.

In all our work, in all our difficulties, and in every conflict, our confidence and hope are in our Divine Lord and Saviour, of whom it is declared: 'He shall not fail nor be discouraged, till He have set judgment in the earth: and the isles shall wait for His law;' and our earnest prayer is that upon us and you His continual blessing may descend.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

H. T. BURGESS, Secretary.

OF THE

CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,

TO THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE, 1890.

DEAR BRETHREN, BELOVED OF GOD,—

Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ.

We, your fellow-servants of the Methodist Episcopal Church, give thanks to our God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, for His grace manifested in you, and for the fruits of the Spirit in which He has made you to abound. We have learned with great rejoicing through your honoured messenger, the Rev. Charles H. Kelly, that peace prevails in all your borders, and that the work of the Lord is prospering in your hands.

The loving expression of your sympathy with us in our great bereavements both comforted and strengthened our hearts. The touching words of Mr. Kelly reminded us that though our beloved dead are resting from their labours, 'their works do follow them;' and that they, 'despite the distance and the dark,' are with you and with us, living members of the whole family in heaven and in earth.

Death, dear brethren, has made havoc in your ranks also. Sir William M'Arthur was a name familiar in many of our homes, an inspiration among us to noble life and generous deed, a challenge to godly emulation in the service of our Master. The Rev. Luke Tyerman had placed the historical students of America under lasting obligations to him for his industrious and painstaking researches; among the scholars of our own Church especially his memory and his example will be cherished faithfully.

May the Father of Lights and the Giver of Life make us who remain rich also in the knowledge of the past, and strong in the activities of the present, seeing that these who have died in the faith without us cannot be made perfect

We greatly rejoice, dear brethren, in the prosperity of your Junior Societies and your Sunday-Schools. We likewise are stirred up to unceasing diligence in the training of the young, and we have established for our riper youth the 'Epworth League,' whereby we hope to kindle a love for the noble men of other days, and a passion for power and sacrifice in the work which it behoves us now to accomplish. The League numbers already 1500 chapters and 60,000 members; and if carefully guarded will doubtless become a power in the Church.

Our hearts were likewise greatly moved in hearing of your efforts in London to bring the glad tidings to the neglected masses of brother-men and sister-women. We, too, are sore distressed by the needs of our great cities. They would bewilder and dismay us with their changing life, their rapid growth, their forecasts of struggle and confusion, if our faith in the Gospel of Jesus Christ were not so steady and so confident. And by God's grace we are adding to our faith both courage and good works.

An order of deaconesses has been created, into which a number of elect women have already entered; the new hospital in Philadelphia has been added to the one already opened in Brooklyn; Church Extension Societies have been established in all our larger cities. Wiser methods of winning those who will not come to the Churches are sought out with prayerful eagerness, and the desire of our hearts is that the common people may hear the Gospel gladly.

We give thanks to God that He continues to own our ministry of His Word, as He has been owning yours, by the conversion of our fellow-men. During the last year the increase of our membership was 83,177, and we now number 2,252,639 souls. Nowhere do we find the Gospel powerless; and always to the glory of His name, we find it most powerful when preached without additions and without dilution.

In our Educational work our progress for the year 1889 was greater than for any year of our history. Our literary institutions are full of eager students; gifts of unexampled munificence have been made to several of our Colleges; our older foundations are putting on new strength, and many of our newer plantings are promising great power. Our theological seminaries especially are prospering, greatly to our comfort. For if ever anywhere, then surely in our age and in our land, ambassadors of Christ are needed who unite the fervour of a joyful experience with the calm of pure intelligence, the glow and fire of the Holy Ghost with the learning and the wisdom which comes of patient and candid study of the Holy Scriptures.

Our efforts to educate the freed-men have also borne much fruit. Beset with difficulties (for this work is without analogy in the world), these efforts have exacted our utmost wisdom and patience, and they are still prosecuted with sacrifice and toil.

You will rejoice with us, we are sure, at the successful completion of our new building in New York City for our Book Concern and Missionary Society. This latest visible outcome of his courage and sagacity is an imposing monument to that far-sighted Englishman, John Dickins, who began the publishing work of our Church with $600, which he had borrowed from himself. The stately edifice that carries his work into the coming century will, we hope, carry his name also down to many generations.

The Missionary cause during the last decade has filled the mind and heart of the Church as never before. Knowledge of missionary enterprise and missionary success has greatly increased among us, and the noblest of our youth are dedicating themselves to missionary labour. Our contributions for 1889 were $1,446,238. Of this sum more than one half was spent in foreign fields.

Our work of Church Extension becomes daily more important. It is well-nigh impossible to supply the needs of the newer towns and cities. Yet we are not discouraged nor alarmed. We have seen the slender resources of our fathers multiplied by the touch of Jesus Christ into food for many millions. We look forward, therefore, confidently to an abundant supply of all our wants in Jesus Christ.

In the cause of Temperance we have been moved to utterances which might leave no doubt of our solemn conviction that the destruction of the traffic in intoxicating liquors is for America both a political and a moral necessity. That the vision of this destruction may be for an appointed time, and may surely come, is our prayer to God and our persuasion to men.

For the Œcumenical Council shortly to be held we bespeak your diligent co-operation.

We send to you, beloved brethren, Bishop Henry W. Warren,

D.D., LL.D., and the Rev. Charles J. Little, LL.D., who will bear to you our greetings in the Lord. We commend them to your kindness and brotherly love.

Brethren, pray for us!

Thankfully do we call to our remembrance that other Conference at Bristol where Francis Asbury was set apart with prayer for the work of God in America. The petitions of that beseeching band, though often answered hitherto, are still effectual. And we are fain to believe that the mutations of a century have not separated you and us,—who are the joint heirs and descendants of that believing company,—wholly from each other.

Surrounded by diverse conditions, our development has not been, and could not be, the same. But we inherit the same blessed doctrines, and share the same gracious spirit. We praise God that the enthusiasm of our founders is no longer despised and rejected of men, that the handful has become like the stars for multitude, and that thousands who are not of us are yet rejoicing with us in the proclamations of free grace and full salvation which our founders were called of God to make. Yet these, His mercies of the past, will surely not suffice. For when we behold the work to which we are called, our thanksgivings give place to a sense of solemn responsibility, and our minds are filled with the burden of a mighty task. The forces of evil, moreover, are gathered against us on every hand. The babble of vain philosophies bewilders the minds of our children; the perplexities of knowledge becloud their understandings; a sensuous art and a sensual literature, 'the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eye, the pride of life,' strive mightily against the Spirit and the truth. But 'if God be for us, who can be against us?' May He, the Father Almighty, vouchsafe to keep us united in the love and power of an endless life, and may the Grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

In behalf of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and by order of the Board of Bishops, EDWARD G. ANDREWS,

THE LETTER

OF THE

BRITISH CONFERENCE, 1889,

TO THE

GENERAL CONFERENCE OF THE METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH, SOUTH, OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, 1890.

REVEREND AND DEAR BRETHREN,—

On behalf of the Wesleyan-Methodist Conference of Great Britain and Ireland, I beg to commend to you the Rev. David J. Waller, the Secretary of the Conference, as a messenger of fraternal respect and greeting to your General Conference assembling at St. Louis, Missouri, in May next.

By this appointment our Conference, while it has done honour to its Secretary, has desired to show all possible respect to the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. The Conference trusts that this first official visit of intercourse between your Church and ours may open the way to lasting relations of intercommunion in the future.

The Wesleyan-Methodists of England are not unaware that, in various respects, there is a close sympathy and correspondence between the traditions of Methodist discipline and work cherished in your own great Church, and those of which the British Conference regards itself as especially the depositary and guardian.

I remain,

Rev. and Dear Brethren,

Yours in the bonds of Christian affection,

CHARLES H. KELLY,

President of the Conference of the People called Methodists.

SHEFFIELD,
August 2nd, 1889.

vividly before our mind your joys and cares, your trials and triumphs. The problems that perplex you, and the tasks that engross your energies are, in many features, different from those with which we are called to grapple. While we study how to deal with huge populations gathered in small areas, you are confronted by the problem of vast areas sparsely peopled. While we, in our agricultural districts, are often dismayed by the removal of our people and the reduction of our resources, you are in more danger of being overwhelmed by rapidly multiplying demands upon your resources, and a growth of your opportunities outrunning the increase of your means. It will be a satisfaction to you to be assured that the doctrines and methods of our Church are justifying themselves as effectually in the changed and changing England of to-day as they ever did in the days of our fathers; as it is gratifying to us, on the other hand, to observe that this same Methodism is equally acknowledged by God and useful to man in the novel social conditions and national needs of a country like yours. Our attention and energy have of recent years been strenuously applied to Home-Missionary enterprises; and, by free resort to new agencies, and fresh strength given to those already existing, we have striven to cope with the evils resulting from disorganized social conditions, and a national life in many ways unnatural and unhealthy. Among yourselves also, for many years to come, Home-Missionary labours will have to be assiduously and vigorously prosecuted; but your toil in this department may well be more pleasurable and cheerful than ours, since the task that demands your energies, arduous though it may be, is to maintain your Church on the crest of the advancing tide that is bringing to your country ever-growing strength, wealth and influence.

In your notable Church enlargement and prosperity you will, we doubt not, be watchfully alive to the danger lest the Evil One, who will weave a snare even out of the mercies of God, should betray you into putting too much trust in what may be called 'ecclesiastical politics.' Only in proportion as our Societies are pervaded by the Spirit of Christ, at once pure and ardent, and all our members, in humble pursuit after righteousness and fervent zeal for souls, manifest a living faith, can your Church or ours be abidingly fruitful. We gather with satisfaction from your Address and from more recent information of your progress, that you have not taken the prosperity that God has given you as an invitation to 'rest and be thankful; but have understood that God's gifts are ever designed to be man's opportunities. We look with hopeful expectation for the unfolding of yet larger divine purposes in your regard, and the outpouring of yet richer blessings than those over which we now so heartily rejoice with you.

Your enlightened and steadfast recognition of the vital importance to your Church and country of sound Scriptural and Christian education and literature, commands our warm admiration. The general and earnest interest which has been aroused among you by the question of University federation is an indication that you appreciate justly the manifold and serious issues involved in the character of the higher education of the country, and in the relation sustained by religion to science, philosophy and culture. While, on the one hand, it is injurious to stamp upon education a sectarian impress, it is, on the other hand, fatal to let it lack a living and pervasive Christian influence; and, called as you are, by the position God has given you, to minister to the more advanced and cultured classes of society among you, as well as to those of smaller knowledge and narrower opportunities, it behoves you to maintain with jealous guardianship your influence in connection with the higher education of the country.

Your zeal for the evangelization of the heathen proves to us that you bear the true family likeness of the Methodist stock, and are ambitious to claim your share of our Founder's 'parish.' And we are thankful for the wise instinct and the guiding Providence that have led you to add to your faithful labours among the Indian tribes at home your mission in Japan abroad. In this sphere you apply the forces of Christianity to a nation ancient in culture, adult in intellectual development, but youthfully plastic in its love of novelty; in the other, you seek to enlighten and gladden an aged race, wedded to hoary tradition, its vigour worn to decrepitude, whose life belongs to the past rather than the future, and yet primitive, almost infantile, in moral and mental condition. In the one task you tend the dying embers of the old life of the New World; in the other you fan the rising flame of the new life which Christian civilization is imparting to the Old World. Wisely, have you, by choice of these contrasted tasks, made appeal to various sympathies and found employment for various resources among your people. The Rev. Egerton Young's visit to this country has greatly increased our knowledge of and interest in your heroic labours among the Indians; while your own description of your Japanese mission, a description confirmed by many testimonies, compels us to glorify God in your success there.

We pray that in these and all similar labours which your love for Christ and the world may lead you to undertake, our God may fulfil all the good pleasure of His goodness, and the work of faith with power; that the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in Him according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

We commit this Address to the hand of the Rev. Wallace M'Mullen, D.D., whom we have deputed as our Representative to your General Conference. We commend him to your affectionate regard as a brother who has rendered invaluable service to the cause of Methodism in Ireland, and has for nearly twenty years been a member and trusted adviser of our British Conference.

You will be looking forward with interest, as we are, to the Œcumenical gathering of the Churches of our Methodist brotherhood, which is to assemble in the United States next year. We anticipate with pleasure the opportunity which that occasion will afford us, of renewing with you and with the other Churches of the brotherhood a fellowship more intimate than is afforded by such communications as this.

We pray that the Lord may make you to increase and abound in love one toward another and toward all men, even as we do toward you.

Signed on behalf and by order of the Conference,

DAVID J. WALLER, Secretary.

IV.—CONNEXIONAL SUNDAY-SCHOOL UNION.

2, Ludgate-Circus Buildings, London, E.C.

The Committee of the Connexional Sunday-School Union is thankful to report that the year has been one of prosperity.

There has been a gratifying increase in the number of our Schools, in the total number of scholars on the registers, and particularly of scholars over fifteen years of age. The number of Schools connected with the Union has also increased during the year: and notwithstanding the very large increase of scholars in Junior Society-Classes reported last year, the growth in numbers this year is considerable.

A decrease is reported of Members in Society-Classes and on Trial. The Committee is of opinion that the numbers given in these columns of the schedule should receive greater care from our Sunday-school friends. It is of the utmost importance that the information required for the three columns should be accurately supplied.

The decrease in the number of Schools where our Catechisms and Tablets are used is cause of sincere regret. The decrease if taken by itself, though unsatisfactory, would not have been deemed serious, but taken in connection with the decrease of last year it must be regarded as an unhealthy sign. The Committee most earnestly commends to our Sunday-school friends generally the gravity of this question. It will be a grievous failure of duty to the young if proper grounding in our doctrines as set forth in the Conference Catechisms is neglected.

The Bands of Hope and the Juvenile Temperance membership show a remarkable advance.

'Children's Sunday' was a day of rich blessing; and in many parts of the country many of the scholars gave signs of a deep, genuine spiritual work upon the conscience and the heart.

During the year the newly-appointed Secretary has attended a large number of Conventions and Services for our Sunday-Schools.

The trade of the Union is maintained, and the circulation of our Sunday-school literature is advancing. The Committee has ample grounds both for thankfulness and confidence.

APPENDIX IV.

ABSTRACT OF THE REPORT

OF

THE CHILDREN'S HOME AND ORPHANAGE.

THE Children's Home is in its twenty-first year.

The Committee is happy to report that during the year just closed a larger number of children have enjoyed its advantages than in any previous year. On the 31st of March, we had under our care 814 children. This, however, includes 59 boys who were at that moment on their voyage to Canada. If all the vacancies occasioned by the departure of the young emigrants had been filled, this number could have been increased by 27 or 70 beyond the total of the previous Report.

This by no means represents the whole of the work embraced within our circle of operations. Some 800 children and young people in Canada and other Colonies continue to claim our care and attention. About 1,100 poor children are in our Mission Schools in London and at New Oscott. The Gordon Hall Mission is quietly but steadily accomplishing much solid good amongst the very poor population in the vicinity of Globe Road. The Girls' Helpful Society each year shelters, aids and guides many scores of girls and young women.

The Home in the English Branches is now training about 50 more children than it was three years ago, when the Queen's Jubilee Fund was commenced. Of course this enlargement of the work has in many ways involved increased expenditure; and in addition, several unexpected charges have this year come upon the Funds.

In other respects the financial condition of the Home is encouraging. The list of Subscriptions and Donations shows an increase of £563 15*s.* 5*d.*, whilst the collections in Sunday-Schools and Chapels and the Birthday Society show a further net increase of £69 15*s.* 4*d.* The income from Legacies and Donations on Annuity, which however is never brought into current income, has been exceptionally large, owing to the handsome bequest of £2,000 by the late Mr. Alderman Moscrop, of Bolton.

All these facts, with many others which incidentally have come before the Committee in the course of the year's work, show that the public interest in our work is growing steadily; which leads the Committee to believe that it may rely not only upon a maintenance, but a steady increase of income.

It is only in this faith, that it has ventured to determine upon maintaining during another year the full number of children which the Home can accommodate. The ordinary income does not meet the ordinary expenditure. The assistance from the Jubilee Fund will soon be exhausted, and only a steady and reliable increase of income will justify the continuance of our work upon its present scale.

APPENDIX V.

ABSTRACT REPORT OF THE TEMPERANCE COMMITTEE TO THE CONFERENCE OF 1890.

We report this year 3569 Bands of Hope, with 370,681 enrolled members; an increase of 133 Bands and 12,831 members. The number of Bands connected with Sunday-Schools is 3,259, an increase of. 99, with 343,350 members, an increase of 9,642. The number of Bands not connected with Sunday-Schools is 310, with a membership of 27,331.

The advance in the number of Temperance Societies still continues. There are now 652 Adult Societies, with 43,481 members, an increase of 36 Societies, and of 2,225 members.

Our Band of Hope work furnishes ground for thankfulness. From the beginning our Temperance work amongst the young has been healthy and steadily progressive. Still, the Committee feels that a very large number of the young people who are under the pastoral oversight of our Church, are as yet untouched by our Temperance agencies. In order to meet, to some extent, the case of such young people in our Sunday-Schools, the Committee has prepared and issued during the year a Pledge-Book for Sunday-school Teachers, in the hope that they will take suitable opportunities of bringing the question of Temperance before their classes, and will endeavour to persuade the members of those classes to sign the pledge.

Though during the last two or three years there has been an improvement in the matter of the Adult Temperance Societies, yet that branch of our work is still feeble and unsatisfactory. It is true that our complex organization and many meetings render it difficult to organize Temperance Societies in some places. Still, the importance of the cause, and the fact that other Churches are giving increasing attention to it, render it imperative that this department of our Church work should receive due consideration. The Committee repeats the suggestion previously made that, where it is impossible to hold frequent meetings, a society might be formed with occasional meetings, at which a membership might be enrolled and duly reported to the District Meeting and the Conference.

The Committee has continued to act during the year in conjunction with the United Committee for the Prevention of the Demoralization of the Native Races by the Liquor Traffic. A Memorial was sent by the Committee to the Anti-Slavery Conference at Brussels, praying that Conference to take into consideration the question of the Liquor Traffic in Africa. The question has been considered at large by the Conference; and, though we have not obtained all that could be desired, yet it is probable that an agreement will be arrived at between the Powers, by means of which considerable protection will be afforded to the natives against the inroads of the traffic.

According to the Resolution of the Conference of 1889, the Committee has given special attention to the question of gambling. An anti-gambling pledge has been issued, and admirable articles upon the question have appeared in The Methodist Temperance Magazine, which is the official organ of the Committee.

The Gross Profit on the year's working amounts to £528 1s. 11d., to which if there be added a small balance on last year of £4 19s. 10d. there will be a balance of £533 1s. 9d. to be distributed by the Committee at its meeting in October..

The above Tables will show how great is the advantage of the Common-Cash system to the Funds of Methodism. All Funds that have to borrow obtain their overdrafts on the lowest possible terms, viz., the actual Bank Rate of the day, and they borrow largely from each other rather than from the Bank. Funds having credit balances obtain Deposit rate of interest, in addition to which they receive, according to the credit balances they have kept, their full proportion of Profits.

APPENDIX IX.

ORDER AND FORM OF THE BUSINESS OF THE CONFERENCE.

THE Conference adopts the following ORDER AND FORM OF BUSINESS, subject to such modifications as may hereafter be found necessary or convenient.

I. PASTORAL SESSION.

Previously to each Conference, the Stationing Committee shall meet in London in connection with the Annual Meeting of the Home-Mission Committee, and shall prepare and issue the First Draft of the Stations of Ministers.

The Stationing Committee may conveniently meet again in the Conference town on the Monday afternoon or evening preceding the Conference, for the revision of the Stations.

The Business of the Conference, when composed of Ministers only, includes the following Subjects:—

1. The formal constitution of the Legal Conference:—

AN ALPHABETICAL LIST OF THE WESLEYAN-METHODIST MINISTERS AND PREACHERS ON TRIAL IN GREAT BRITAIN AND IRELAND, AND ON THE COLONIAL AND FOREIGN STATIONS UNDER THE BRITISH CONFERENCE.

1. The figures in the first column mark simply the year in which each Minister entered on his work; those which immediately follow the name of the Circuits, denote the number of the Circuit on the Stations, the Mission Stations being distinguished by a number in brackets; and the numbers which stand at the right of the third column denote the year of annual appointment.

2. This List has been compiled for the purpose of convenient reference; no pains have been spared to ensure accuracy; but the List is not to be considered official.

PREACHING AND HEALING.

A TRACT upon this subject, recently addressed to ministers of all denominations, may be had post free, upon application to the address given below.

Mr. B. COPSON GARRATT'S system of treatment is so well known among Wesleyan friends that it scarcely needs an introduction; but there are so many needing its help that it is advisable to remind folks that Mr. GARRATT is always willing to give a candid opinion upon any case submitted to him. If there is a prospect of benefiting the sufferer, details of the course to be pursued are freely given, but false hopes are never knowingly encouraged. None need hesitate to write for information and advice, as so doing entails no fee, nor obligation of any kind. Numbers of ministers and connexional office-bearers have reason to be thankful that they ever adopted Mr. GARRATT'S treatment, and the following brief extracts from some of their letters should encourage sufferers of all classes to inquire at least what can be done for them :—

Rev. CHARLES GARRETT (sometime President of the Wesleyan Conference), 4, Blackburne Terrace, Liverpool.

"Your treatment has been of great benefit to me. I have also watched its effect on others, and the results have been most satisfactory. To all my friends who are ailing I say: 'Consult Mr. GARRATT.' Most of them have followed my advice with very gratifying results. The work in which you are engaged has my heartiest sympathy and co-operation."

Rev. W. G. WHITE.

"I have much pleasure in bearing my unfaltering testimony to the success of Magnetism as a remedy. A few years ago I was a great sufferer from Nervous Debility, and sought the advice of various medical men, but to no purpose. It then occurred to me to try your treatment, and in a short time I began to feel quite a new man. I am still deriving benefit from the Belt, more indeed than I can tell you in a short letter."

Mr. JAMES SINCLAIR, Woodville, Putney.

"Some years ago, when I placed myself under your treatment, I was a victim of Insomnia of the worst form, and, with shattered nerves, was fast becoming unfit for business and the enjoyments of social and family life.

"Within three weeks of commencing to wear your Vest, and attending to your instructions as to friction, etc., I was virtually a new man; my sleep returned, and my nerves seemed as if anew braced up, and life became a pleasure.

"I am thankful to say, by God's blessing on the means you prescribed, I have never looked back. I have had occasionally a return of the symptoms, but a few days' use of the Vest and Gloves is quite sufficient to restore me."

Full information and gratuitous advice in any case post free on application to B. COPSON GARRATT, 16, Finsbury Square, London, E.C.

THE WESLEYAN METHODIST BOOK-ROOM.

'A Piece of an Honeycomb:' Meditations for every day in Year. By H. G. McKENNY. Crown 8vo. Red lines round each page, extra cloth, red edges.

'An exquisite volume in every respect. It is no mere collection of common-place reflections on various texts, but a rich store-house of beautifully short and practically helpful thoughts of just the kind intelligent and earnest Christians need for daily refreshment and guidance.'—Wesleyan Methodist Magazine.

The Sabbath for Man: An Enquiry into the Origin and History of the Sabbath Institution. With a Consideration of its Claims upon the Christian, the Church, and the Nation. By Rev. W. SPIERS, M.A., F.G.S., F.R.M.S., &c. Crown 8vo. 2s. 6d.

'We commend this book very highly as an able exposition and successful defence of orthodox teaching on The Christian Sabbath.'

Methodist New Connexion Magazine.

'Mr. Spiers is accurate, painstaking and practical. . . He writes as one who knows his subject—soberly, reasonably, and attractively.'

Methodist Recorder.

By Canoe and Dog Train among the Cree and Salteaux Indians. By EGERTON RYERSON YOUNG. Introduction by Rev. Mark Guy Pearse. Fifth Thousand. With Photographic Portraits of the Rev. E. R. Young and Mrs. Young, Map, and Thirty-two Illustrations. 3s. 6d.

'Young and old will read this amazing story with delight. His heroic journeys through the snow are described in a way that will secure the attention of all.'—Sword and Trowel.

The Credentials of the Gospel: A Statement of the Reason of the Christian Hope. THE FERNLEY LECTURE FOR 1889. By Rev. J. A. BEET. Fourth Thousand. Demy 8vo. Paper covers, 1s. 6d. Cloth, gilt lettered, 2s. 6d.

'An uncommonly interesting production. The matter is digested with admirable skill, and the expression is clear as Horace's Bandusian Spring, and precise as logic itself.'—Christian World.

Sermons, Addresses, Charges. By Rev. JOSEPH BUSH, ex-President of the Conference. Crown 8vo, with Portrait, 3s. 6d.

'The ex-President is so well-known as a preacher and a writer as to render all characterization of his strikingly individual style and cast of thought a meritless work of supererogation. . . It is quite enough to say that these deliverances are alike worthy of himself and of his office.'

Wesleyan Methodist Magazine.

This Book has been prepared by a Sub-committee, the convener of which was the Rev. Dr. Stephenson. The Musical Editorship has been entrusted to Mr. Alfred Rhodes, A.R.A.M., to whose skill and interest the Committee are much indebted. It is right to say, however, that Mr. Rhodes is not responsible for the selection of the tunes.

It is obvious that in a book intended for use in great popular gatherings, many compositions must be included which do not meet the demands of severe musical taste. Their utility for the purposes contemplated in the publication is the justification of their presence.

The unusual metrical form of very many of the hymns has called for many new tunes. In supplying them the Committee are happy to have been able to secure the assistance of several able composers.

The Mission of The Children's Home is to rescue children who, through the death or vice, or extreme poverty of their parents, are in danger of falling into criminal ways. It is therefore at once an Orphanage and a Refuge.

The Home receives Children of any age, or any sect, without election. It is conducted on the Family system; is a Religious and Industrial Institution; is a Training School for Christian Workers; and is dependent on Voluntary Contributions.

Within the last twenty-one years about 2,700 children have received the benefits of this Institution. Nearly 800 are now in residence. About £16 will maintain a child in the Home for a year.

Nearly 2,000 children have now passed through the Home, and there is the greatest cause for thankfulness to God for the present well-being and for the prospects in life of a large majority of this great number.

In connection with this work the Gordon Hall Mission is carried on in the East End of London; an agency for the Protection of Girls is at work, a refuge being available night and day; a Servants' Free Registry is open, and Lodgings are provided for respectable young women during the interval between situations; also a Mission to the poorest Children of East London is very successfully carried on. The entire work is greatly in need of more liberal support. The smallest contributions will be thankfully received.

The need of such a work is painfully obvious. Our cities and towns are crowded with children exposed to every evil influence, shut out from all good, living a life worse than that of savages, and as they grow up they naturally take their places in the ranks of the pauper and the criminal. Yet they may be saved. Hundreds of cases prove that these little ones—some of them mere infants—are susceptible of every elevating influence, and need only the care of a Christian home to develop all that is good in their characters, and fit them for reputable and useful lives.

Collecting Books, Boxes, or Cards will gladly be forwarded to those who are willing to collect in aid of the funds of the Institution.

Cheques and Money Orders should be crossed City Bank, and Orders made payable at General Post Office.

Price One Penny Weekly. 16 Pages, Large Quarto.

THE LITERARY PRODUCT OF THE WORLD'S BEST MINDS.

1d. Weekly; 6d. Monthly; Half-Yearly Vols., in Cloth, Gold Letters, 4s. 6d. each.

VERY SUITABLE FOR

PREACHERS, TEACHERS, THINKERS, AND SPEAKERS.

A FEW SELECTED TESTIMONIALS FROM PRESS OPINIONS.

The Rev. C. H. SPURGEON writes: "It strikes me there is nothing in literature to excel them in their own line."

SIR THEODORE MARTIN, Biographer of the late Prince Consort, says: "The publication is one which deserves to be widely known and strongly recommended."

The LORD BISHOP OF CARLISLE, speaking at the opening of the Stanley Library at King's Lynn, said: "Somebody has hit upon the notion of publishing a penny paper, GREAT THOUGHTS—and I certainly think it is worth a penny and more."

The VEN. ARCHDEACON FARRAR says: "Yours is a most excellent and timely periodical."

GEORGE WILLIAMS, Esq., President of the Y.M.C.A., says: "The choicest fruit thus judiciously gathered from the trees of knowledge, and presented in so cheap a form, cannot fail to be the means of doing much, very much, good."

The Rev. NEWMAN HALL says: "I am charmed with GREAT THOUGHTS. . . . The work is very valuable as a book of reference and illustration. In its penny form it is the best substitute I know for the pernicious literature of the day. I recommend it to my friends everywhere."

METHODIST TIMES.—"Archdeacon Farrar presided over a Conference of the Sunday School Union, and in the course of his address spoke in high terms of GREAT THOUGHTS, which, he said, he frequently read with the greatest pleasure, and he would recommend it to their notice."

METHODIST RECORDER—"Let those who have not seen it buy and learn how Mr. Downes in his own way—and a very capital way—is helping to keep down the devil in the Press."

CHRISTIAN LEADER.—"True to its name, it cannot fail to exert a purifying influence in every home which it enters."

CHRISTIAN AGE.—"This unique weekly not only holds its own, but comes to us with marked improvements."

BRITISH WEEKLY.—"GREAT THOUGHTS is now not only a wonderful repertory of choice extracts, but a capital magazine of articles on present-day topics."

CHURCH BELLS.—"Open it where one may, one finds some suggestive germ to set one thinking."
